Song Lyric Figurative Language

Directions: Read the song lyrics and identify what type of figurative language is being used. Once you've identified which type of figurative language it is explain your reasoning for why you believe it is an example of that figurative language. You will use the following types of figurative languages: personification, simile, metaphor, hyperbole, and imagery.

Wells by Sugarland

"I want to run through these cottonwood trees
fall asleep in a big bed
of fresh fallen leaves"

Figurative Language: _____

SIMILE

Explanation: _____

They are comparing a relationship and how they get, and needed to each other just how magnetic either attract to one another or push away a magnet.

Figurative Language: _____

IMAGERY

Explanation: _____

This line provides the listener with the image of running through a forest and laying in a big pile of leaves.

Shape of You by Ed Sheeran

"We Push and Pull
like a magnet do"

Figurative Language: _____

IMAGERY

Explanation: _____

These lyrics paint you a picture
of someone who's stunning,
people staring out of their house,
and second tapping on a window.

Our Song by Taylor Swift

"Our song is the slamming screen doors, breakin' out late tapping on your window"

Science to an utterly original point of conflagration where matter is mostly not matter Going to the bottom of the Imagination where it still truly involves images Tiffany explores how we have learned to see the inscrutable via our imagistic grasp of materiality This book is daring brilliant and deeply clever Jorie Graham Boylston Professor of English Harvard University author of Materialism and winner of the Pulitzer Prize Imaginative Teaching through Creative Writing Amy Ash, Michael Dean Clark, Chris Drew, 2021-03-25 Growing out of recent pedagogical developments in creative writing studies and perceived barriers to teaching the subject in secondary education schools this book creates conversations between secondary and post secondary teachers aimed at introducing and improving creative writing instruction in teaching curricula for young people Challenging assumptions and lore regarding the teaching of creative writing this book examines new and engaging techniques for infusing creative writing into all types of language arts instruction offering inclusive and pedagogically sound alternatives that consider the needs of a diverse range of students With careful attention given to creative writing within current standards based educational systems Imaginative Teaching through Creative Writing confronts and offers solutions to the perceived difficulty of teaching the subject in such environments Divided into two sections section one sees post secondary instructors address pedagogical techniques and concerns such as workshop revision and assessment before section two explores hands on activities and practical approaches to instruction Focusing on an invaluable and underrepresented area of creative writing studies this book begins a much needed conversation about the future of creative writing instruction at all levels and the benefits of collaboration across the secondary post secondary divide Stylistics Jane Lugea, Brian Walker, 2023-10-03 This textbook introduces the reader to contemporary approaches to language analysis such as cognitive stylistics and corpus stylistics reflecting recent shifts in research trends and offering students a practical way to access and understand these developments The authors lead readers through detailed explanations guided analyses examples of research and suggestions for further reading This textbook makes an ideal introduction to the field of stylistics for students who are new to the area but who have some background in basic language analysis It will be of use to students on courses in stylistics literary linguistics corpus methods cognitive linguistics and language and style Connections Tammy L. Boeck, Megan C. Rainey, 2000-07 The second in a now three book series Connections is a basic writing text geared to the paragraph to essay level The aim of Connections is to help students make the connection between reading writing and critical thinking all important skills for success in college Not a traditional workbook Connections take a top down approach to writing instruction The text moves beyond traditional sentence and paragraph exercises offering a wide variety of activities and opportunities for journaling supplemental readings quick reference guides and unique step by step writing assignments Connections guides developmental writers gently through every stage of the writing process Rac(e)ing to Class H. Richard Milner, 2015-04-01 In this incisive and practical book H Richard Milner IV provides educators with a crucial understanding of how to teach students of color who live in poverty Milner looks carefully at the circumstances of these students lives and describes how those circumstances profoundly affect their experiences within schools and classrooms In a series of detailed chapters Milner proposes effective practices at district and school levels and in individual classrooms for school leaders and teachers who are committed to creating the best educational opportunities for these students Building on established literature new research and a number of revelatory case studies Milner casts essential light on the experiences of students and their families living in poverty while pointing to educational strategies that are shaped with these students unique circumstances in mind Milner s astute and nuanced account will fundamentally change how school leaders and teachers think about race and poverty and how they can best serve these students in their schools and classrooms

Internet Activities for Language Arts Mari Lu Robbins,1999 Farewell to Shulamit Carsten Wilke,2017-04-10 The Song of Songs a lyric cycle of love scenes without a narrative plot has often been considered as the Bible s most beautiful and enigmatic book The present study questions the still dominant exegetical convention that merges all of the Song s voices into the dialogue of a single couple its composite heroine Shulamit being a projection screen for norms of womanhood An alternative socio spatial reading starting with the Hebrew text s strophic patterns and its references to historical realia explores the poem s artful alternation between courtly urban rural and pastoral scenes with their distinct characters The literary construction of social difference juxtaposes class specific patterns of consumption mobility emotion power structures and gender relations This new image of the cycle as a detailed poetic frieze of ancient society eventually leads to a precise hypothesis concerning its literary and religious context in the Hellenistic age as well as its geographical origins in the multiethnic borderland east of the Jordan In a Jewish echo of anthropological skepticism the poem emphasizes the plurality and relativity of the human condition while praising the communicative powers of pleasure fantasy and multifarious Eros
