CCSS Leading educators describe effective practices for motivating diverse learners in grades 5-12, building comprehension of multiple types of texts, integrating literacy and content area instruction, and teaching English language learners and struggling readers. Case examples, lesson planning ideas, and end-of-chapter discussion questions and activities enhance the utility of the volume. New to This Edition: Extensive CCSS content incorporated throughout the book. Chapters on disciplinary literacy, text complexity, and differentiated instruction. Chapters on academic language, writing instruction, history, and English language arts classrooms and coaching. English for Life? G. P. McGregor, 2002 This book is written primarily as a guide for teachers of English as a second language, drawing upon experiences and research in Uganda, Zambia, Kenya, South Africa, and Britain. It acknowledges the recent progress and expansion of education in the African countries and the necessity to equip non-specialist teachers who must nevertheless deliver curricula in English to large classes with limited resources and nurture a high standard of English in their students. The work has relevance also for pedagogues and linguists. Chapters are included on using the students' first language experience, English and communication, encouraging students to co-operate rather than compete, an assessment of the vital primary experience vocabulary, and how to teach it. English for real conversation, improving reading skills, and the choice of books, writing, grammar, and what is meant by knowing the grammar of a language, literature, life, and poetry. Ph Lit Bronze A/I/E Prentice-Hall Staff, 1991 5 Steps to a 5: AP English Literature 2021 Elite Student edition Estelle M.
