Think Globally Spend Locally The Illustrated History Of Globalization:

Think Globally, Spend Locally Christopher Arnander, 2003 Globalization is the buzzword of the hour Ill defined but inescapable it denotes the spread of Anglo Saxon capitalism across the world Columbus crossing of the Atlantic in 1492 paved the way and Western nations have raced to dominate the world marketplace ever since This brilliant selection of cartoons from both sides of the Atlantic deftly illustrates key themes in the progress of globalization With an entertaining year by year summary of economic and political events over the last half century and a fascinating chronology of globalization s milestones from Columbus onwards this deceptively lighthearted guide is also a fact packed work of reference

The Synagogue in Ancient Palestine: Current Issues and Emerging Trends Rick Bonnie, Raimo Hakola, Ulla Tervahauta, 2020-12-14 This book brings together leading experts in the field of ancient synagogue studies to discuss the current issues and emerging trends in the study of synagogues in ancient Palestine Divided into four thematic units the different contributions apply archaeological textual historical and art historical methodologies to questions related to ancient synagogues Part One addresses issues related to the origins and early development of synagogues up to 200 CE The contributions provide different explanations to the alleged lack of evidence for synagogues built in the second and third centuries CE and ask how much continuity or change there is between the late Second Temple and late Roman early Byzantine synagogues Part Two deals with architecture and dating of ancient synagogues It gives an overview of all synagogues found so far approaches the dating of Galilean synagogues in the light of the recently exposed synagogue at Huqoq and provides a stylistic re evaluation of the Capernaum synagogue decoration Part three examines leadership power and daily life in late antique synagogue contexts illustrating non monumental inscriptions amulets and dining in synagogue contexts as well as the role of individual benefactors Section four contextualizes synagogue art An overview of synagogue mosaics in late antique Palestine is complemented with reinterpretations of the mosaics two synagogues The section also offers a discussion of the appearance of the menorah The New Global History Bruce Mazlish, 2006-09-27 From a distinguished author in the field The New Global History is a critical inquiry into the historical process of globalization which is seen as a distinctly twentieth century phenomenon with its roots in the age of expansion of the early modern world Cutting across disciplinary boundaries The New Global History offers a fresh overarching view of the process of globalization that is always empirically based and discusses the most important themes such as policy trade cultural imperialism and warfare Bruce Mazlish argues that globalization is not something that the West has imposed upon the rest of the world but the result of the interplay of many factors across continents Students of history politics and international studies will all find this a valuable resource in the pursuit of their studies Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2011-04-06 This volume of one of the most comprehensive in the field Its three themes are critical for the study of culture and globalization with its condensation of space time and memory Exploring the intersection between these three processes the essays are learned deeply researched and insightful and the comparative range is impressive The volume is certain to become a standard reference text for scholars and the general reader alike Professor Stuart Hall Emeritus Professor of Sociology The Open University Heritage memory and identity are closely connected keywords of our time each endowed with considerable rhetorical power Different human groups define certain objects and practices as heritage they envision heritage to reflect some form of collective memory either lived or imagined and they combine both to construct cultural identities Today the three terms raise conjoined issues of practice policy and politics in an increasingly globalized world Bringing together a truly global range of scholars this volume explores heritage memory and identity through a diverse set of subjects including heritage sites practices of memorialization museums sites of contestation and human rights

America and the Politics of Insecurity Andrew Rojecki, 2016-06-15 An innovative analysis of polarized politics post 9 11 In America and the Politics of Insecurity Andrew Rojecki assesses the response of citizens and politicians to a series of crises that confronted the United States during the first decade of the twenty first century This period brought Americans face to face with extraordinarily difficult problems that were compounded by their origin in seemingly uncontrollable global forces Rojecki establishes a theoretical framework for understanding how these new uncertainties contribute to increasingly polarized political discourse Analyzing three domains of American insecurity economic environmental and existential Rojecki examines responses to the Great Recession by groups like the Tea Party and Occupy Wall Street considers why the growing demand for fossil fuels makes people disregard global warming and explores the desire for security measures that restrict personal freedom in the age of terrorism Ultimately he explains why the right has thus far held an edge over the left in the politics of insecurity Rojecki concludes that in order to address these broad scale political problems we must reframe domestic issues as reactions to undiagnosed global conditions Bringing the psychology of uncertainty together with contemporary case studies this book is a sweeping diagnostic for and antidote to ineffective political discourse in a globalized world that imports bads as well as goods Landscape Analysis and Planning M. Luc,U. Somorowska,J.B. Szymańda,2015-03-20 This book presents recent advances in landscape analysis and landscape planning based on selected studies conducted in different parts of Europe Included are methodological problems and case studies presented and discussed during scientific sessions organized by the Commission of Landscape Analysis and Landscape Planning of the International Geographical Union IGU within the framework of the IGU Regional Conference in Krak w Poland August 18 22 2014 The subject of landscape analysis and landscape planning has been of interest to geographers since the beginning of the twentieth century This relatively new area of study which focuses on the landscape resource patches and spatial interconnections was first introduced as landscape ecology Landschaftsoekologie by Carl Troll one of the twentieth century s most influential physical geographers Today landscape studies involve adopting a holistic view of geographic environments and are closely connected to rapidly developing ecosystem sustainable landscape and ecosystem services approaches Modern techniques employing Geographical Information Systems are used to support spatial landscape analyses The Design History Reader Grace Lees-Maffei,Rebecca Houze,2024-12-12 This revised and updated edition addresses the international history and practice of design from the 17th century to the present day Covering both primary texts by social theorists designers and design reformers and secondary texts in the form of key works of design history and design thinking the Reader provides an essential resource for understanding the history of design the development of the discipline and contemporary issues in design history and practice including decolonization sustainability historiography gender and globalization Extracts are grouped into thematic sections each with a contextualizing introduction by the editors and a guide to further reading The updated edition of The Design History Reader expands upon its original content and features numerous significant voices from across the globe Authors include William Morris Karl Marx Roland Barthes Victor Margolin Penny Sparke Judy Attfield Ellen Lupton and many more Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization Ivonne del Valle,Anna More,Rachel Sarah O'Toole,2020-01-15 Through interdisciplinary essays covering the wide geography of the Spanish and Portuguese empires Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization investigates the diverse networks and multiple centers of early modern globalization that emerged in conjunction with Iberian imperialism Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization argues that Iberian empires cannot be viewed apart from early modern globalization From research sites throughout the early modern Spanish and Portuguese territories and from distinct disciplinary approaches the essays collected in this volume investigate the economic mechanisms administrative hierarchies and art forms that linked the early modern Americas Africa Asia and Europe Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization demonstrates that early globalization was structured through diverse networks and their mutual and conflictive interactions within overarching imperial projects To this end the essays explore how specific products texts and people bridged ideas and institutions to produce multiple centers within Iberian imperial geographies Taken as a whole the authors also argue that despite attempts to reproduce European models early Iberian globalization depended on indigenous agency and the agency of people of African descent which often undermined or changed these models The volume thus relays a nuanced theory of early modern globalization the essays outline the Iberian imperial models that provided templates for future global designs and simultaneously detail the negotiated and conflictive forms of local interactions that characterized that early globalization The essays here offer essential insights into historical continuities in regions colonized by Spanish and Portuguese monarchies

The Wiley Handbook of Social Studies Research Meghan McGlinn Manfra,Cheryl Mason Bolick,2017-03-13 The Wiley Handbook of Social Studies Research is a wide ranging resource on the current state of social studies education This timely work not only reflects on the many recent developments in the field but also explores emerging trends This is the first major reference work on social studies education and research in a decade An in depth look at the current state of social studies education and emerging trends Three sections cover foundations of social studies research theoretical and methodological frameworks guiding social studies research and current trends and research related to teaching and learning social studies A state of the art guide for both graduate students and established researchers Guided by an advisory board of well respected scholars in social studies education research Japanese Religions and Globalization Ugo Dessì,2013 This book analyzes the variety of ways through which Japanese religions Buddhism Shint and new religious movements contribute to the dynamics of accelerated globalization in recent decades It looks at how Japanese religions provide material to cultural global flows thus acting as carriers of globalization and how they respond to these flows by shaping new global identities The book highlights how paradoxically these processes of religious hybridization may be closely intertwined with the promotion of cultural chauvinism It shows how on the one hand religion in Japan is engaged in border negotiation with global subsystems such as politics secular education and science and how on the other hand it tries to find new legitimation by addressing pressing global problems such as war the environmental crisis and economic disparities left unsolved by the dominant subsystems A significant contribution to advancing an understanding of modern Japanese religious life this book is of interest to academics working in the fields of Japanese Studies Asian history and religion and the sociology of religion

The Critical Surf Studies Reader Dexter Zavalza Hough-Snee,Alexander Sotelo Eastman,2017-08-17 The evolution of surfing from the first forms of wave riding in Oceania Africa and the Americas to the inauguration of surfing as a competitive sport at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics traverses the age of empire the rise of globalization and the onset of the digital age taking on new meanings at each juncture As corporations have sought to promote surfing as a lifestyle and leisure enterprise the sport has also narrated its own epic myths that place North America at the center of surf culture and relegate Hawai i and other indigenous surfing cultures to the margins The Critical Surf Studies Reader brings together eighteen interdisciplinary essays that explore surfing's history and development as a practice embedded in complex and sometimes oppositional social political economic and cultural relations Refocusing the history and culture of surfing this volume pays particular attention to reclaiming the roles that women indigenous peoples and people of color have played in surfing Contributors Douglas Booth Peter Brosius Robin Canniford Krista Comer Kevin Dawson Clifton Evers Chris Gibson Dina Gilio Whitaker Dexter Zavalza Hough Snee Scott Laderman Kristin Lawler lisahunter Colleen McGloin Patrick Moser Tara Ruttenberg Cori Schumacher Alexander Sotelo Eastman Glen Thompson Isaiah Helekunihi Walker Andrew Warren Belinda Wheaton Knowledge,

Differences and Identity in the Time of Globalization James Kusch, 2011-05-25 The discourse of globalization that pertains to higher education reform is troubling The first troubling thing about much of the discourse that concerns globalization is that it most often does not name a human subject We propose that globalization discourse should be written for and directed towards human beings or students The second troubling thing about the discourse of globalization is the way that it antagonizes and marginalizes who that missing subject might be The two relationships form the themes of this book The nature and logic of discourse about globalization expresses a social rationality that serves as a precondition to constructing relevant meanings The way that we conceive or obscure the subject produces a condition or position where those whom are the subject of the discourse must indeed await its effects who is the pertinent policy about Or for whom is policy intended Much policy discourse holds consequences for the way in which outcomes of policies are understood or explained in the social milieu where policies are enacted The same discourse constructs and deconstructs identities and as we will see the language of reform in fact antagonizes and marginalizes students by virtue of a particular vagueness in the discourse and symbols of the discourse What is at issue in the discourse of globalization is the character and logic of collective identities How then to relate students to the cluster of features that comprise globalization The ^AHypothetical Mandarin Eric Hayot, 2009-04-24 Through readings of novels medical case studies travelers reports photographs and paintings The Hypothetical Mandarin shows that in the West the connection between sympathy and humanity and indeed between sympathy and reality has tended to refract with a remarkable frequency through the lens called China Eric Hayot through keen interpretations of myriad art forms and nonfictional writings reveals how Western responses to Chinese pain go to the heart of the relationship between language and the body the social and philosophical experience of modernity and the definition of a universal human subject In short this analysis reveals how four terms sympathy suffering economic exchange and representational exchange establish the network that frames the historical discourse on China sympathy and modernity It is a book that opens new possibilities for thinking about the West's relationship to China past and present and that establishes a new philosophical vantage from which to consider the question of empathy Transnational Feminisms and Art's Transhemispheric Histories Marsha Meskimmon, 2022-12-29 In this second book of her trailblazing trilogy Marsha

Meskimmon proposes that decolonial ecocritical feminist art s histories can unravel the anthropocentric legacies of Eurocentric universalism to create transformative conversations between and across many and more than human worlds Engaging with the ecologies and genealogies worlds and stories that constitute the plural knowledge projects of transnational feminisms and art s transhemispheric histories the book is written through two critical figurations transcanons and trans scalar ecologies Materializing art s histories as radical practices of disciplinary disobedience the volume demonstrates how planetary feminisms can foster interdependent flourishing as they story pluriversal worlds and world pluriversal stories with art This is essential reading for students and researchers in art history theory and practice visual culture studies feminism and gender studies environmental humanities and cultural geography The Trilogy Transnational Feminisms Transversal Politics and Art Entanglements and Intersections Transnational Feminisms and Art s Transhemispheric Histories Ecologies and Genealogies Transnational Feminisms and Posthuman Aesthetics Resonance and Riffing

Culture and the City Deborah Stevenson, Amie Matthews, 2013-09-13 This edited collection will examine the way in which cities are imagined experienced and shaped by those who reside within them those who manage or govern them and those who as visitor tourist or traveller pass through them Attention will be paid to the influence that these various inhabitants have on city life and living and the dialectic that exists between their sometimes collective and sometimes divergent perceptions and uses of city space In conjunction with this the collection will explore the ways in which local culture and cultural policy are used by public and private interests as the framework for changing the image and amenity of the city in order to raise its profile and attract tourists The book contributes to discussions of the increasingly high profile place that cultural programs have in urban regeneration initiatives and explore the tensions conflicts and negotiations that emerge in urban spaces as a result of policy and culture coming together Papers will be sought from researchers around the world with a view to examining the nexus between tourism leisure and cultural programming from a number of perspectives and with reference to a range of international case studies This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Policy Research in Tourism Leisure and Events
