

I think we were meant to find each other, AK. I think we were meant to find each other, to leave hell together." I didn't reply. I had no words. I think that no solution is quick, and no remedy will magically make our pain drift away. I believe that we must go on through this pain we are feeling in order to move on. And I believe whatever God or greater power exists above us brought us together so we may heal together. Heal the other in a way that no other person could.
