Thousand Years Viola:

The Day I Met Jesus Frank Viola, Mary DeMuth, 2015-02-24 Two thousand years ago Jesus Christ met face to face with people just like you Broken imperfect sometimes fearful and without hope The Day I Met Jesus is a beautifully crafted narrative that chronicles the remarkable encounters of five women in the Gospels who were desperate to find wholeness security and purpose Like all of us these women struggled with the regrets of their pasts the stresses of their presents and the worries of their tomorrows Join Frank Viola and Mary DeMuth on a fascinating journey back in time as they retell the dramatic accounts of five women who met Jesus Each narrative is told from each woman s unique perspective yet tightly grounded in the Gospel accounts and faithful to first century history Elegantly written and profoundly stirring this book blends creative narrative with uncommon insight spiritual depth and practical application If you are someone who seeks a renewal of hope faith and love The Day I Met Jesus will make your Bible come to life and usher you into a fresh encounter with your Lord

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Global Justice and East Asian Philosophy Janusz Salamon, Hsin-Wen Lee, 2024-08-22

Breaking out of the dominance of Anglo American scholarship this volume centralises East Asian philosophical traditions to explore cross cultural perspectives in the field of global justice studies By bringing together diverse traditions of thinking about justice that contrasts East Asian and Western thinkers traditions it avoids the shortcomings of narrow and one sided conceptualisations of global justice A range of contributors from East Asia Europe and the US who are conversant with both Western and East Asian philosophical traditions provide a rich engagement with contemporary issues relating to global justice The book opens with a section devoted to the methodological challenges specific to cross cultural approaches to justice including the universalism particularism debate and the conditions of the possibility of cross cultural comparisons Part II explores how major East Asian philosophical traditions including Confucianism Legalism Daoism and Buddhism consider issues related to global justice The essays in Part III adopt a cross cultural and or comparative perspective on justice enabling the readers to appreciate similarities and differences between the East Asian and Western perspectives on justice and to appreciate cultural variation Key applied issues in global justice such as epistemic injustice human rights women s rights nationalism religious pluralism coercion corruption and post colonial justice receive full consideration in the final section of this indispensable reference work for understandings of global justice in East Asia specifically and cross culturally

No Hearts of Gold Jackie French, 2021-12-01 Three women from very different backgrounds bound by friendship separated by destiny It was impossible but in full view of the church the Governor and wedding guests The bride had vanished Some girls are born to be loved some are born to be useful Some girls are born to be bad Indulged and wealthy Kat Fitzhubert is seemingly sold off in an arranged marriage in a colony across the world Lady Viola Montefiore is the dark skinned changeling of a ducal family kept hidden and then shipped away Titania Boot is as broad as a carthorse and as useful In the turmoil of an Australia in 1853 that reinvents itself from convict colony to a land of gold one woman forges a business empire One brews illegal poteen with a bushranger And the third vanishes on her wedding day in a scandal that will mystify the world In this magnificent and broad sweeping saga Jackie French defies the myth of colonial women as merely wives servants or whores Instead portraying them as business women farmers bushrangers and brewers of illegal poteen as well as arbiters of their destiny

Morality and Cultural Differences John W. Cook, 1999-01-28 The scholars who defend or dispute moral relativism the idea that a moral principle cannot be applied to people whose culture does not accept it have concerned themselves with either the philosophical or anthropological aspects of relativism This study shows that in order to arrive at a definitive appraisal of moral relativism it is necessary to understand and investigate both its anthropological and philosophical aspects Carefully examining the arguments for and against moral relativism Cook exposes not only that anthropologists have failed in their attempt to support relativism with evidence of cultural differences but that moral absolutists have been equally unsuccessful in their attempts to refute it He argues that these conflicting positions are both guilty of an artificial and unrealistic view of morality and proposes a more subtle and complex account of morality
