Transforming Europe Europeanization And Domestic Change Cornell Studies In Political Economy:

Transforming Europe Maria Green Cowles, James A. Caporaso, Thomas Risse-Kappen, Thomas Risse, 2001 Europeanization and domestic change introduction Thomas Risse Maria Green Cowles James Caporaso The Europeanization of gender equality policy and domestic structural change James Caporaso Joseph Jupille Differential Europe national administrative responses to community policy Adrienne H. Iritier Institutional reform in telecommunications the European Union in transnational policy diffusion Volker Schneider Italy pays for Europe political leadership political choice and institutional adaptation Alberta Sbragia Europeanization and the courts variable patterns of adaptation among national judiciaries Lisa Conant Adjusting to EU environmental policy change and persistence of domestic administrations Christoph Knill Andrea Lenschow Europeanization and territorial institutional change toward cooperative regionalism Tanja A. Bräzel The transatlantic business dialogue and domestic business government relations Maria Green Cowles The Europeanization of citizenship Jeffrey T. Checkel A European identity Europeanization and the evolution of nation state identities Thomas Risse Transforming Europe conclusions Maria Green Cowles Thomas Risse Europeanization and the European Economic Area Johanna Jonsdottir, 2013 This book examines Europeanization in the European Economic Area (EEA) exploring whether non member states can have an input into EU decision making and whether the EU can successfully export its policies within the framework of the EEA Iceland Norway and Liechtenstein while not EU member states are members of the European Free Trade Association (EFTA) and signatories of the EEA Agreement The Agreement allows participation in the EU's internal market but also requires extensive and continuous adaptation to EU rules Whilst existing literature is limited mainly to the EU's impact on its own member states or neighbours to the east this book extends the study of Europeanization to the EEA exploring whether Iceland as a non member state can have an input into EU decision making and conversely whether the EU can ensure that its policies are adhered to outside of its borders The author argues that although the EEA Agreement is not without its challenges it has proved considerably more resilient than originally expected This raises the question of whether the EEA provides a realistic alternative to EU membership for other states with close ties to the EU Delving into the largely unknown intersection between the EU and the EEA and providing important new insights into the Europeanization process Europeanization and the European Economic Area will be of strong interest to students and scholars of European Union politics and policy making European Union Enlargement Nordic politics and comparative politics The Politics of Europeanization Kevin Featherstone, Claudio M. Radaelli, 2003-06-05 The Politics of Europeanization looks at the political aspects of European integration from the point of view of domestic politics In doing so it goes beyond the classic analysis of how policies are made in Brussels and raises instead the question what is the power of Europe in national contexts The questions at the heart of this volume are crucial both for our understanding of European integration and for their policy implications What does Europeanization really mean How can it be measured How is the European Union affecting domestic politics and policies in member states and candidate countries Is Europeanization an irreversible process Does it mean convergence across Europe How and why do differences remain The contributors explain and question the power of Europe by providing theoretical and empirical perspectives on domestic politics and institutions government and administration public policies political actors and business groups The volume contains a new research agenda for the nascent literature on Europeanization

Domestic Politics and Norm Diffusion in International Relations Thomas Risse, 2016-10-14 This book collects Thomas Risse's most important articles together in a single volume Covering a wide range of issues the end of the Cold War transatlantic relations the democratic peace human rights governance in areas of limited statehood Europeanization European identity and public spheres most recently comparative regionalism it is testament to the breadth and excellence of this highly respected International Relations scholar's work The collection is organized thematically domestic politics and international relations international sources of domestic change and the diffusion of ideas and institutions and a brand new introductory essay provides additional coherence This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of International Relations European Politics and Comparative Politics The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Political Economy of the European Union Dermot McCann, 2010-08-23 Dermot McCann has succeeded in producing a superb book on the political economy of the European Union This rigorous and extremely readable account makes a major contribution to our understanding of the tension between economic governance at the European level and national patterns of governance that often challenge the EU's liberal ambitions Alasdair Blair De Montfort University

The Political Economy of Central Asian Law Rustamjon Urinboyev, 2024-07-22 This open access book provides fresh and much needed insights into the interconnections between law society and governance in Central Asia By taking the interdisciplinary perspective of law and society the book explores the social life of law and legal institutions in Central Asia in broader terms encompassing not only the state legal system and institutions but also various informal non legal forms of normative ordering The topics covered within this book will be of interest to many scholars considering various theoretical and methodological challenges in studying law governance and informality in authoritarian regime contexts such as Central Asia Considering interdisciplinary approaches taken within the volume we aim to reach out to the students and scholars within the following disciplines and fields of study Central Asian Studies Communist and post communist studies Anthropology Economic Anthropology Legal Anthropology Anthropology of Law Business sciences Socio legal studies Transnational Politics and Governance Law and economics

Real Estate Investment Trusts In Europe Wolfgang Speckhahn, 2016-04-24 It is well known that investments in real estate

provide relatively stable yields compared with stock market volatility so it is not surprising that with globalisation investors have pursued such opportunities across borders especially where foreign countries offer beneficial tax regimes Nor it is surprising that states should fear erosion of their tax base in the presence of such investments This groundbreaking book the first in depth comparative analysis of taxation of real estate investment trusts REITs in different European Union EU Member States investigates the impact of EU law on direct taxation in the case of REITs and whether EU policies in this area have led national legislators to adjust their REIT regimes Presenting detailed case studies of three EU Member States France a well established REIT regime Bulgaria a new accession state and Spain a recent REIT regime this book explores the idea of a harmonised EU REIT and whether harmonisation among national REIT regimes may be possible Among the issues and topics arising in the course of the presentation are the following goodness of fit and adaptational soft pressure relevant case law from the European Court of Justice including both tax and company law REIT shopping noncompliance of REIT regimes with EU law and criteria for the misfit analysis of REIT regimes and potential infringements of EU law The analysis ultimately documents conditions and circumstances for the creation of a harmonised Euro REIT by assessing the level of change on the area of direct taxation within the Member States which would be needed for such a creation to become reality identifying common themes across different legal systems that could assist the harmonisation of laws Throughout a holistic view is taken linking tax and company law with considerations of sovereignty policy and culture In its structured framework comparing REIT regimes this incomparable study takes a giant step towards overcoming resistance to a common REIT taxation regime in the EU As the first comparative study of REIT regimes to identify an emerging common understanding informed by European jurisprudence and Europeanisation policy and theory it is sure to be welcomed by practitioners academics and policymakers in European law and international taxation as well as European studies

The Politics of European Competition Regulation Hubert Buch-Hansen, Angela Wigger, 2011-03-07 Examines the political power struggles that have shaped the evolution of European competition regulation over the past six decades

The Political Economy of European Union Competition Policy Tuna Baskoy, 2008-06-24 In the European Union EU competition policy occupies a central place amongst other EU public policies and is the first truly supranational public policy regulating market competition One of the stated objectives of EU competition policy is to prevent excessive concentration of economic power in the hands of a few
