Translingual Practice Literature National Culture And Translated Modernity China 1900 1937:

Translingual Practice Lydia He Liu, 1995 After the first chapter which deals with the theoretical issues ensuing chapters treat particular instances of translingual practice such as national character individualism stylistic innovations first person narration and canon formation

Translingual Practice: Literature, National Culture, and Translated Modernity; China 1900-1937 Lydia H. Liu, 2022 Are languages incommensurate If so how do people establish and maintain hypothetical equivalences between words and their meanings What does it mean to translate one culture into the language of another on the basis of commonly conceived equivalences This study bridging contemporary theory Chinese history comparative literature and culture studies analyzes the historical interactions among China Japan and the West in terms of translingual practice By this term the author refers to the process by which new words meanings discourses and modes of representation arose circulated and acquired legitimacy in early modern China as it contacted collided with European Japanese languages and literatures In reexamining the rise of modern Chinese literature in this context the book asks three central questions How did modernity and the West become legitimized in May fourth literary discourse What happened to native agency in this complex process of legitimation How did the Chinese national culture imagine and interpret its own moment of unfolding

Configurations of the Real in Chinese Literary and Aesthetic Modernity Peter Button, 2009 Tracing the formation of the modern concept of literature in 20th century China this book examines the emergence of the Chinese socialist realist novel in relation to the literary and philosophical currents globalized in the wake of capitalist modernity Provided by publisher

The Oxford Handbook of Music in China and the Chinese Diaspora Yu Hui, Jonathan P. J. Stock, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Music in China and the Chinese Diaspora illuminates new insights into Chinese music studies musical genres and contexts This volume incorporates extensive scholarly insight from China Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora and is arranged into three parts the historical legacies of Chinese music evolving practice and musical transformations and prominent issues in Chinese music studies

Strands of Modernization David B. Sicilia, David G. Wittner, 2021-11-01 The late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries saw extraordinary transfer and diffusion of industry and transportation related technology and business methods While most scholarship on nineteenth century technology transfer beyond Europe and North America has focused on the West to East movement of artifacts skills and knowledge Strands of Modernization considers the transfer of technology and business methods within East Asia in the period between approximately 1850 and 1920 Highlighting currents moving in multiple directions contributors expand upon conventional notions of what qualifies as a technology or a business practice looking more broadly at skills systems of technology tacit knowledge and the ideologies and other belief systems with which they interact The core ambition driving Strands of Modernization is to illuminate processes of adaption versus adoption that occur when technology and business practices cross sociocultural boundaries

between China and the United States and their critical interpretation matter now How can they help us describe cultural exchanges in which nothing substantial is exchanged at least not in ways that can easily be tracked All sorts of literary meetings took place between China and the United States in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries involving an unlikely array of figures including canonical Americans such as Washington Irving Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Chinese writers Qiu Jin and Dong Xun and Asian American writers like Yung Wing and Edith Eaton Yet present day interpretations of these interactions often read too much into their significance or mistake their nature missing their particularities or limits in the quest to find evidence of cosmopolitanism or transnational hybridity In Intransitive Encounter Nan Z Da carefully re creates these transpacific interactions plying literary and social theory to highlight their various expressions of indifference toward synthesis interpollination and convergence Da proposes that interpretation trained on such recessive moments and minimal adjustments can light a path for Sino U S relations going forward offering neither a geopolitical showdown nor a celebration of hybridity but the possibility of self contained cross cultural encounters that do not have to confess to the fact of their having taken place Intransitive Encounter is an unconventional and theoretically rich reflection on how we ought to interpret global interactions and imaginings that do not fit the patterns proclaimed by contemporary literary studies

Constructing Nationhood in Modern East Asia Kai-wing Chow, Kevin Michael Doak, Poshek Fu, 2001 A cutting edge collection exploring identity making in East Asia This is an interdisciplinary study of the cultural politics of nationalism and national identities in modern East Asia Combining theoretical insights with empirical research it explores the cultural dimensions of nationhood and identity making in China Japan Korea Hong Kong and Taiwan The essays address issues ranging from the complex relations between popular culture and national consciousness to the representation of ethnic racial identity and gendered discourse on nationalism The cutting edge research on the diverse forms of cultural preacceptance and the various ways in which this participates in the construction and projection of national and ethnic identities in East Asia illuminates several understudied issues in Asian studies including the ambiguity of Hong Kong identity during World War II and the intricate politics of the post war Taiwanese trial of collaboration Addressing a wide range of theoretical and historical issues regarding cultural dimensions of nationalism and national identities all over East Asia these essays draw insights from such recent theories as cultural studies postcolonial theories and archival researched cultural anthropology The book will be important reading for students of Asian studies as well as for serious readers interested in issues of nationalism and culture Kai wing Chow is Associate Professor of East Asian Languages and Cultures Kevin Doak is Associate Professor of History Poshek Fu is Associate Professor of History and Cinema Studies All three teach at University of Illinois Urbana Champaign
