Trash A Collection Of Short Stories:

Trash F. Reed, 2004-05-01 F Collyer Reed introduces a rich cast of characters to explore how dysfunctional strangers driven by opportunity or need engage in all types of sexual relationships Murder drugs sex violence and betrayal it s all here in this era of political correctness where trash is king Trash A Collection of Short Stories is adult fiction about sexual need without the window dressing of decency Reed s rough and tumble characters live life as it comes without whining flinching or regret Sex is nothing more than raw white knuckled satisfaction and love is a foreign emotion In Onica a man s obsession with an older woman turns explosive when she extracts revenge after hitting the glass ceiling Lester in Love is about a man hitchhiking to nowhere walking meat with a name whose first experience with love might be his last In Dreamland Jake s sense of party ruins the lives of those he comes into contact with In Ilsa unusual sex for breakfast isn t on everyone s menu neither is it the main course in House of Moltsa But it s the end of the world for Rain of Death and the Twins It s the ultimate irony in Raucous Behavior and Smoking Finish but par for the course in Tractor Foot Collection Edited by Marilyn Pesola

A Collection of Short Stories Rocky T. Kinsley, 2011-08 The book is based on struggles in my personal life including my struggles with drugs alcohol and mental illness It also tends to focus on the dark side of human nature including victims of attempted suicide Trash Jerome Levy, 2017-06-29 This is a collection of unrelated short stories that the author penned over a period of fifty years These range from fatalistic to humorous Conversations with Dorothy Allison Dorothy Allison, 2012-05-09 Since the publication of her groundbreaking novel Bastard Out of Carolina 1992 Dorothy Allison b 1949 has been known as with Larry Brown and Lee Smith as a purveyor of the gritty contemporary South that in many ways is worlds away from prevailing Southern Gothic representations of the region Allison has frequently used her position through passionate lectures and enthusiastic interviews to give voice to issues dear to her poverty working class life domestic violence feminism and women s relationships the contemporary South and gay lesbian life Often called a writer rock star and a cult icon Allison is a true performer of the written word At the same time Allison also takes the craft of writing very seriously In this collection spanning almost two decades Allison the performer and Allison the careful craftsperson both emerge creating a portrait of a complex woman The interviews detail Allison s working class background in Greenville South Carolina as the daughter of a waitress Allison discusses with candor and quick wit her upbringing her work in a variety of modes novels short stories essays poetry and her active participation in the women s movement of the 1970s In the absence of a biography of Allison s life Conversations with Dorothy Allison presents Allison s perspectives on her life literature and her conflections over her role as a public figure Linking her work with African American writers such as Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison Allison pioneered the genre of working class literature writing a world that is often overlooked and under studied Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present Tales of the Gothic: A Haunting

Collection of Short Stories Elizabeth Gaskell, E. E. Cunnington, 2024-10-09 A master of gothic literature Elizabeth Gaskell's darkest horror stories are collected in this haunting anthology From ghostly apparitions to unsettling family secrets these stories helped define classic gothic literature Gaskell's writing is filled with vivid imagery emotional depth and a haunting sense of foreboding that showcases her exceptional storytelling Exploring the darker side of human nature each tale will linger in the mind long after the final page Some of the short stories featured include The Old Nurse's Story Morton Hall The Doom of the Griffiths The Ghost in the Garden Room The Grey Woman Lois the Witch This volume is part of the Mothers of the Macabre series celebrating the works of pioneering women writers who shaped the genre of gothic horror Elizabeth Gaskell's stories in this collection originally published in the mid nineteenth century continue to captivate readers and are not to be missed by lovers of dark tales

Class Definitions Michelle M. Tokarczyk, 2008-10 How does working class status intersect with gender race sexual orientation and religion How do working class status and other identities play out in the lives and work of individual writers This text answers these questions by closely examining the lives and writings of three authors

Labor's Text Laura Hapke, 2001 Hapke's book remarkable in scope and inclusiveness offers those concerned with American working people a mine of information about and analysis of the rich lived history of American laborers as that has been represented in fictions of every kind She provides an invaluable foundation for understanding the dirtiest of America's dirty big secrets the pervasiveness of class differences class discrimination indeed of class conflict in this the wealthiest nation in history Hers is an indispensable guided tour through more than a century and a half of literary representations of hands at their looms pikets on the line agitators on their soapboxes ordinary working women men and children in kitchens parks factories and fields across America

Paul Lauter A K G M Smith Professor of Literature Trinity College Labor's Text sets over 150 years of the multi ethnic literature of work in the context of the history that informed it the history of labor organizing of industrial change of social transformations and of shifting political alignments Any scholar of American literature or American history cannot help but be enlightened by this boldly ambitious and illuminating book

Shelly Fisher Fishkin professor of American studies University of Texas Austin Labor's Text traverses nearly two centuries of the U S literary response in fiction to workers and the work experience Casting her net more broadly than any of her predecessors Hapke's revision of the genre includes many recent writing not usually recognized as part of the tradition Coming at a moment when there is a steady increase in interest about class from color and gender inflected perspectives this is a work of committed scholarship that may well prove to be a crucial compass to reorient the thinking and scholarship of a new generation

Alan Wald author of Writing from the Left A stunning work of scholarship It is an extraordinary achievement and an immense contribution to working class studies

Janet Zandy author of Calling Home Working Class Women's Writings Laura Hapke is a professor of English at Pace University The winner of two Choice magazine Outstanding Academic Book awards she is the author of Daughters of the Great Depression Women Work and Fiction in the American 1930s and other books on labor fiction and working class studies
