Thinking Miller Place Memoir Comfort:

Thinking of Miller Place Ethel Lee-Miller, 2007-11-12 In my memory I am resting in a hammock between a childhood that was and the reality of today In it I am in a place where I can still if only in my daydreams take off my shoes and run barefoot up the hill If you don't have a red ribbon experience or your own red ribbon place I offer you mine in a sleepy New York town of the 1950s called Miller Place In this tender sparkling memoir Ethel Lee Miller reflects on childhood summers at her grandfather's home in an idyllic town on the northeastern end of Long Island Carefree summertime at Miller Place grounded and sustained Ethel and her twin sister Eileen through the inevitable clumsiness of adolescence and informed the character beliefs and values that would serve them forever An enchanting oasis of freedom and exploration Miller Place offered days filled with diving in the waters of the Long Island Sound and evenings lit by fireflies With her twin always by her side Ethel savored childhood innocence while coming of age and forming secure lasting ideals about love beauty home and family To this day Ethel has only to think of Miller Place to be overcome by feelings of comfort serenity and belonging
