Three Reformers Luther Descartes Rousseau:

Three Reformers: Luther, Descartes, Rousseau Jacques Maritain, 1970 Three Reformers: Luther, Descartes, Rousseau Jacques Maritain, 1925 The Maritain Factor Rajesh Heynicks, Jan de Maeyer, 2010 During the 1920s and 1930s many European modernist artists and intellectuals were seeking a primordial finality in Catholicism. In order to distill the eternal from the transitory they became fascinated by a thought frame promoted by the French philosopher Jacques Maritain: neo-Thomism, a revival of the study of the principles and methodology of the thirteenth-century theologian Thomas Aquinas.

Human Rights in the Twentieth Century Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann, 2010-12-13 Has there always been an inalienable right to have rights as part of the human condition as Hannah Arendt famously argued? The contributions to this volume examine how human rights came to define the bounds of universal morality in the course of the political crises and conflicts of the twentieth century. Although human rights are often viewed as a self-evident outcome of this history, the essays collected here make clear that human rights are a relatively recent invention that emerged in contingent and contradictory ways. Focusing on specific instances of their assertion or violation during the past century, this volume analyzes the place of human rights in various arenas of global politics, providing an alternative framework for understanding the political and legal dilemmas that these conflicts presented. In doing so, this volume captures the state of the art in a field that historians have only recently begun to explore.

Trois réformateurs. Luther. Descartes. Rousseau Jacques Maritain, 1935 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints, 1974 Jacques Maritain and the Many Ways of Knowing Douglas A. Ollivant, 2002 Drawing on the writings of Jacques Maritain and by extension those of Thomas Aquinas, the essays in this volume examine the effects of theories of knowledge on individual culture and entire schools of philosophical thought. The contributors challenge contemporary epistemologies which are largely based on writings of Descartes, Locke, and Kant. They critique these theories internally and demonstrate their incompatibility with other goods such as liberty, human dignity, and access to the transcendent. In stark contrast to modernity's dubious and fragmented opinions and belief systems, Maritain in works like The Degrees of Knowledge and Creative Intuition in Art and Poetry proposed a theory of knowledge that permits real, if limited, knowledge of substances as wholes. Some contributors use these works as a springboard from which to examine aspects or applications of knowledge that Maritain left unexplored. Others challenge or question aspects of Maritain's analysis, seeking to improve upon his work. Still others compare Maritain with other neo-Thomistic philosophers, most notably Étienne Gilson, Alasdair MacIntyre, and Pope John Paul II. Maritain's works on human knowledge and the implicit critique of modernity contained within provide an alternative for those seeking to engage the various deficiencies of the culture of death. These essays demonstrate the continuing relevance and timeliness of Maritain's thought. Douglas A. Ollivant is assistant professor of politics at the United States Military Academy. Contributors: George Anastaplo, James Arraj, Joseph M. de Torre, Robert Delfino, Raymond Dennehy, John M. Dunaway, Robert Fallon, Desmond Fitzgerald, William J. Fossati, W. Matthews Grant.
