The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Rawwida Baksh-Soodeen, Wendy Harcourt, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements explores the historical political economic and social contexts in which transnational feminist movements have emerged and spread and the contributions they have made to global knowledge power and social change over the past half century The publication of the handbook in 2015 marks the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations International Women's Year the thirtieth anniversary of the Third World Conference on Women held in Nairobi the twentieth anniversary of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action and the fifteenth anniversaries of the Millennium Development Goals and of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on women peace and security The editors and contributors critically interrogate transnational feminist movements from a broad spectrum of locations in the global South and North feminist organizations and networks at all levels local national regional global and glocal wider civil society organizations and networks governmental and multilateral agencies and academic and research institutions among others The handbook reflects candidly on what we have learned about transnational feminist movements What are the different spaces from which transnational feminisms have operated and in what ways How have they contributed to our understanding of the myriad formal and informal ways in which gendered power relations define and inform everyday life To what extent have they destabilized or transformed the global hegemonic systems that constitute patriarchy From a position of fifty years of knowledge production activism working with institutions and critical reflection the handbook recognizes that transnational feminist movements form a key epistemic community that can inspire and provide leadership in shaping political spaces and institutions at all levels and transforming international political economy development and peace processes The handbook is organized into ten sections each beginning with an introduction by the editors The sections explore the main themes that have emerged from transnational feminist movements knowledge theory and praxis organizing for change body politics health and well being human rights and human security economic and social justice citizenship and statebuilding militarism and religious fundamentalisms peace movements UNSCR 1325 and postconflict rebuilding feminist political ecology and digital age transformations and future trajectories The ^AOxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Rawwida Baksh,Wendy Harcourt,2015-03-25

The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements explores the historical political and economic context in which transnational feminist movements have emerged and spread and the contributions these movements have made to global knowledge policy and social change from the 1970s to the present As it includes contributions from scholars and practitioners from around the globe particularly from the Southern Hemisphere the chapters consider the interplay between the lived experience of transnational feminist movements and the way that women s rights and gender equality have been theorized in different locations and contexts The Promise and Perils of Transnationalization Benjamin

Stachursky,2013 To date most constructivist international relations studies have characterized the influence of transnationalism on domestic forms of activism as uniformly positive In particular transnational interactions are viewed as positive factors for the development and daily impact of gender activism Benjamin Stachursky s book questions the unvarying positive view of transnationalism on domestic forms of activism arguing for a more nuanced analysis that permits an understanding of the enabling and restricting effects of transnationalism Stachursky also challenges the dominant view of civil society as normatively homogenous by illustrating the complex relationships and conflicts that exist between NGOs and other civil society representatives He grounds his theoretical arguments with a comparative case study on women s rights activism in Egypt and Iran which uses semi structured interviews with women s rights activists in the two countries and analysis of documentation by local political and societal actors Looking at the period from the mid 1980s up to present developments such as the Arab Spring Stachursky analyzes the emergence and development of NGO activism in Egypt and Iran the social political and legal context of NGO activism and key domestic debates on the impact and legitimacy of the actors operating in women s rights activism By closely examining the ambivalent relationship between transnationalism and human rights organizations Stachursky proves that transnationalization has both enabling and constraining effects on the domestic legitimacy of women s rights activists and on their ability to create meaningful social and political change

Conway, Pascale Dufour, Dominique Masson, 2024-04-08 Conditions for global solidarities and social movements have changed radically since their high point in the 1990s United Nations conferences This collection considers how political solidarities are being understood and constructed in a variety of cross border struggles and for what ends under twenty first century conditions In studies grounded in different world regions at a variety of scales authors address how the Cold War divide and its aftermath have structured contemporary asymmetries in European LGBT movements and in global feminisms how colonial difference in Latin America confronts feminist and social justice movements with problems of translation across worlds how travelling concepts essential to constructing solidarities across distance and difference traverse linguistic divides and attendant power imbalances in world cities and transnational networks how rurality as a form of colonial difference challenges established categories of intersectional feminism Feminist politics of power and difference and attention to gendered agency are at the centre of this inquiry into the possibility of twenty first century solidarities across borders Village Ties Nayma Qayum, 2021-11-12 Village Ties argues that grassroots women's mobilization programs can empower poor women to challenge oppressive informal institutions the rules of the game that govern relationships between actors in the rural global South By exploring the activities of women who belong to Polli Shomaj an initiative of the development organization BRAC Village Ties challenges stereotypes of poor Muslim women as backward subservient oppressed and in need of saving

Women's Citizenship in Peru S. Rousseau, 2009-11-09 This book considers neopopulism as a central issue to understand patterns of women's citizenship construction in many countries of contemporary Latin America. It also explains the paradoxes entailed for women's participation and citizenship rights. Contesting Feminisms Huma Ahmed-Ghosh, 2015-09-08 Contesting Feminisms explores how Asian Muslim women make decisions on appropriating Islam and Islamic lifestyles through their own participation in the faith. The contributors highlight the fact that secularism has provided the space for some women to reclaim their religious identity and their own feminisms. Through compelling case studies and theoretical discussions, this volume challenges mainstream Western and national feminisms that presume homogeneity of Muslim women's lives to provide a deeper understanding of the multiple realities of feminism in Muslim communities.
