The Year Of The Runaways A Novel:

The Year of the Runaways Sunjeev Sahota, 2016-03-29 Short listed for the 2015 Man Booker Prize The Guardian The Best Novels of 2015 The Independent Literary Fiction of the Year 2015 From one of Granta's Best of Young British Novelists and Man Booker Prize nominee Sunjeev Sahota a sweeping urgent contemporary epic set against a vast geographical and historical canvas astonishing for its richness and texture and scope and for the utter immersiveness of its reading experience Three young men and one unforgettable woman come together in a journey from India to England where they hope to begin something new to support their families to build their futures to show their worth to escape the past They have almost no idea what awaits them In a dilapidated shared house in Sheffield Tarlochan a former rickshaw driver will say nothing about his life in Bihar Avtar and Randeep are middle class boys whose families are slowly sinking into financial ruin bound together by Avtar's secret Randeep in turn has a visa wife across town whose cupboards are full of her husband's clothes in case the immigration agents surprise her with a visit She is Narinder and her story is the most surprising of them all The Year of the Runaways unfolds over the course of one shattering year in which the destinies of these four characters become irreversibly entwined a year in which they are forced to rely on one another in ways they never could have foreseen and in which their hopes of breaking free of the past are decimated by the punishing realities of immigrant life A novel of extraordinary ambition and authority about what it means and what it costs to make a new life about the capaciousness of the human spirit and the resurrection of tenderness and humanity in the face of unspeakable suffering

The Year of the Runaways Sunjeev Sahota, 2016 Originally published in Great Britain by Picador an imprint of Pan Macmillan London in 2015

Rewriting the North Chloe Ashbridge, 2023-05-15 This book shows how twenty first century writing about Northern England imagines alternative democratic futures for the region and the English nation signalling the growing awareness of England as a distinct and variegated political formation In 2016 the Brexit vote intensified ongoing constitutional tensions throughout the UK which have been developing since the devolution of Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland in 1997 At the same time British devolution developed a distinctively cultural registration as a surrogate for parliamentary representation and an attempt to disrupt the status of London as Britain's cultural epicentre Rewriting the North shifts this debate in a new direction examining Northern literary preoccupation with devolution's constitutional implications Through close readings of six contemporary authors Sunjeev Sahota Sarah Hall Anthony Cartwright Adam Thorpe Fiona Mozley and Sarah Moss this book argues that literary engagement with the North emphasises regional devolution's limited constitutional charge calling instead for an urgent abandonment of the British centralised state form

Dozois,2000-08-12 In science fiction s early days stories often looked past 1984 to the year 2000 as the far unknowable future Here now on the brink of the twenty first century the future remains as distant and as unknowable as ever and science fiction stories continue to explore it with delightful results Collected in this anthology are such imaginative gems as The Wedding Album by David Marusek In a high tech future the line between reality and simulation has grown thin and it s often hard to tell who s on what side Everywhere by Geoff Ryman Do the people who live in utopian conditions ever recognize them as such Hatching the Phoenix by Frederik Pohl One of science fiction s Grand Masters returns with a star crossing tale of the Heechee the enigmatic vanished aliens whose discarded technology guides mankind through the future A Hero of the Empire by Robert Silverberg Showing that the past is as much a province of the imagination as the future this novelette returns to an alternate history when the Roman Empire never fell to show us just how the course of history can be altered The twenty seven stories in this collection imaginatively take us to nearby planets and distant futures into the past and into universes no larger than a grain of sand Included here are the works of masters of the form and of bright new talents Supplementing the stories are the editor s insightful summation of the year s events and a lengthy list of honorable mentions making this book a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart The Year's Best Science Fiction: Eighteenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois,2001-08-18 The twenty three stories in this collection imaginatively take us far across the universe into the very core of our being to the realm of the gods and the moment just after now Included here are the works of masters of the form and of bright new talents including
