Cases in American Studies is aimed at ESL college students at the Intermediate high through Advanced levels of language proficiency. It is designed around eight country-specific U.S. cases that develop academic skills tested on international exams. The book covers major topics in the areas of academic reading, speaking, and writing. Thus, the targeted learning outcome is two-fold: 1) to explore topical issues in American studies and 2) to master key academic skills. The content of the articles in each unit is selected according to the language needs of students majoring in economics, sociology, political science, and the like. The book can be used both as a supplement to a course in American Studies or as a separate curriculum within an academic skills course.

NOTE: This Books a la Carte edition features the same content as the traditional text in a convenient three-hole punched loose-leaf version. Books a la Carte also offer a great value; this format costs significantly less than a new textbook. Before purchasing, check with your instructor or review your course syllabus to ensure that you select the correct ISBN. Several versions of the MyLab platform exist for each title, including customized versions for individual schools, and registrations are not transferable. In addition, you may need a Course ID provided by your instructor to register for and use MyLab. For courses in Developmental English with students of varying skill levels or those in need of additional writing practice prior to college-level writing, a highly visual, theme-based approach to writing that meets you where you are and guides you to where you need to be. The Writer's World series integrates essential elements that are simply not found in other writing books: a stimulating visual program, thoughtful coverage for nonnative speakers, and effective strategies that address the skill levels of all readers. Authors Lynne Gaetz and Suneeti Phadke draw upon their more than 30 years of combined teaching experience to reach as many readers as possible by meeting their needs and addressing their individual interests and abilities. The authors' innovative instruction seamlessly infuses material for both native and nonnative speakers, while their exercises and activities encourage active participation and collaboration. The engaging design, open layout, and dynamic images support visual learners and prompt critical thinking. Available to package with The Writer's World: Essays with Enhanced Reading Strategies, 4th Edition, Books a la Carte loose-leaf edition. MyLab Writing is an online homework tutorial and assessment program designed to work in tandem with the text to engage students and improve results.
