Theology For Liberal Protestants God The Creator:

Theology for Liberal Protestants Douglas F. Ottati, 2013-09-06 A two volume work by Douglas Ottati Theology for Liberal Protestants presents a comprehensive theology for Christians who are willing to rethink and revise traditional doctrines in face of contemporary challenges It is Augustinian claiming that we belong to the God of grace who creates judges and renews It is Protestant affirming the priority of the Bible and the fallibility of church teaching It is liberal recognizing the importance of critical arguments and scientific inquiries a deeply historical consciousness and a commitment to social criticism and engagement This first volume contains sections on method and creation Ottati s method envisions the world and ourselves in relation to God as Creator Judge and Redeemer The bulk of the book offers an in depth discussion of God as Creator the world as creation and humans as good capable and limited creatures Theology and the First

Theory of Sacrifice Ivan Strenski, 2003-11-01 Are social scientific theories and confessional theologies of sacrifice equally well suited as public discourse about religion The French liberal Protestant theologians of the 5th Section of the cole Pratique and the French doyen of sociology mile Durkheim and his two main followers Henri Hubert and Marcel Mauss engage in a struggle over the proper approach to sacrifice in the public university The Durkheimians argued that theological language and assumptions were inappropriate for this purpose because of their confessional allegiances Another approach to sacrifice free of confessional entanglements was required This is what Hubert and Mauss sought to provide in the Sacrifice Its Nature and Function T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation Science,

Religion, and the Protestant Tradition James C. Ungureanu, 2019-10-03 The story of the conflict thesis between science and religion the notion of perennial conflict or warfare between the two is part of our modern self understanding As the story goes John William Draper 1811 1882 and Andrew Dickson White 1832 1918 constructed dramatic narratives in the nineteenth century that cast religion as the relentless enemy of scientific progress And yet despite its resilience in popular culture historians today have largely debunked the conflict thesis Unravelling its origins James Ungureanu argues that Draper and White actually hoped their narratives would preserve religious belief For them science was ultimately a scapegoat for a much larger and more important argument dating back to the Protestant Reformation where one theological tradition was pitted against another a more progressive liberal and diffusive Christianity against a more traditional conservative and orthodox Christianity By the mid nineteenth century narratives of conflict between science and religion were largely deployed between contending theological schools of thought However these narratives were later appropriated by secularists freethinkers and atheists as weapons against all religion By revisiting its origins development and popularization Ungureanu ultimately reveals that the conflict thesis was just one of the many unintended consequences of the Protestant Reformation Disciplinary at the Fin de Siècle Amanda Anderson, Joseph Valente, 2021-03-09

Contemporary celebrations of interdisciplinary scholarship in the humanities and social sciences often harbor a distrust of traditional disciplines which are seen as at best narrow and unimaginative and at worst complicit in larger forms of power and policing Disciplinary at the Fin de Siècle questions these assumptions by examining for the first time in so sustained a manner the rise of a select number of academic disciplines in a historical perspective This collection of twelve essays focuses on the late Victorian era in Great Britain but also on Germany France and America in the same formative period The contributors James Buzard Lauren M E Goodlad Liah Greenfeld John Guillory Simon Joyce Henrika Kuklick Christopher Lane Jeff Nunokawa Arkady Plotnitsky Ivan Strenski Athena Vrettos and Gauri Viswanathan examine the genealogy of various fields including English sociology economics psychology and quantum physics Together with the editors cogent introduction they challenge the story of disciplinary formation as solely one of consolidation constraint and ideological justification Addressing a broad range of issues disciplinary formations disciplinarity and professionalism disciplines of the self discipline and the state and current disciplinary debates the book aims to dislodge what the editors call the comfortable pessimism that too readily assimilates disciplines to techniques of management or control It advances considerably the effort to more fully comprehend the complex legacy of the human sciences Prophets Without Vision Hedda Ben-Bassat, 2000-06 Ben Bassat English Tel Aviv U discusses crises of ideology and identity in the fiction of contemporary American authors She contends that the fiction of John Updike Flannery O Connor Grace Paley James Baldwin and Alice Walker has absorbed a diversity of prophetic modes from a diversity of Christian Confessions Ted Campbell, 1996-01-01 Ted Campbell examines in a comparative framework the historic teachings of the four major Christian traditions that have shaped our theological heritage Eastern Orthodoxy Roman Catholicism Reformation and Union churches and Evangelical and Free churches He provides an extensive overview of each tradition s particular beliefs on religious authority God and Christ human nature and salvation and church ministry and the sacraments He concludes by considering whether a definable core of Christian teachings cuts across denominational and confessional boundaries Systematic Theology, a Modern Protestant Approach Kenneth Cauthen, 1986 This is a work that originated as a textbook to introduce students to the whole range of Christian thought written from the viewpoint of the non conservative academic tradition in modern American Protestantism The Encyclopedia of Religion Mircea Eliade, Charles J.
