Representation, Identity, and Multiculturalism in Sarawak Zawawi Ibrahim, 2008 The characteristics and processes of identity formation and representation have been crucial preoccupations in social science and historical studies of Sarawak and the wider Borneo We have examined Brooke and colonial policies on ethnicity and political party formation state federal relations nationalism and ethnicity in the post independence period We have considered inter ethnic relations and the encounters between minorities and the state in the context of development and socio economic change However Professor Zawawi's book demonstrates that in spite of this level of interest and activity there is still much to do We have tended to concentrate on particular groups at the expense of others Detailed studies of the Bidayus and Malays for example are few We still know very little about ethnic relations in urban settings and the politics of identity in relation to tourism development We need to explore much more thoroughly the interrelationships between ethnicity and other principles of social organisation including class gender and patron clientage
