ways and this book respects diverse needs when it comes to getting information and help You don't have to feel like you are going through your loss alone In this book you'll find reflection exercises self help resources and stories and suggestions from other people about how they survived which should leave you feeling more confident and better able to seek additional support if you need it Hospice Rebecca Malcolm Schubert, Jean Bayview, 2023-09-07 This book is a selection of a chaplain's experiences of how hospice can serve the families and patients who enter this special journey It contains patient stories told from the chaplain's view When Chaplain Beck is with patients she often shares one of her stories to help ease their fears It is her hope that sharing these stories in this book will prepare readers and lessen their anxiety when hearing the word hospice in relation to themselves or a loved one Experiencing these holy moments may even help on one's own spiritual journey Hospice does not mean death is imminent but rather it is a transition of care that focuses on the patient's physical emotional and spiritual needs as they approach the end of life which may be days or months away From Schubert's first visit made as a chaplain resident to her last day thirty years later as a hospice chaplain she has been honored to serve the dying and their loved ones She hopes that readers will hear the love and grace and see that through hospice the end can be as beautiful as the beginning The Caring Congregation Karen Lampe, 2011 Caring for the congregation is more than any one person can do even the pastor All persons eventually experience grief and loss crisis and suffering and many come to church for the first time as a result of needing help Using this four session study modeled after The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Leawood Kansas churches can form an effective team by addressing four key areas of congregational care prayer ministry support ministry hospital visitation and grief and death ministry Karen Lampe says congregational care should be modeled after the ministry of Jesus who offered compassion understanding healing and wholeness as a way of offering God's redemptive gift of grace Congregational care is one reason according to pastors Adam Hamilton and Karen Lampe that their church is successful in attracting and keeping new members In each richly illustrated session readers will find inspiration Bible connection skill building practical tips and resources including information about anointing helpful scriptures application forms suggested requirements and application for team member a volunteer leader covenant safety and self care contract and a counseling guide The Gifts We Can Afford to Give Our Children Patti Blamire, 2015-04-07 What does it take to become a teacher a nurse an accountant or a plumber It takes a few years of study and or apprenticeship Being educated for our chosen career gives one the knowledge and confidence to succeed in that vocation What does it take to become a parent usually little more than a few moments of pleasure Which education system prepares us for our role as parents I believe that being a Mom or a Dad is THE most important career assignment we will ever be given and yet we receive little or no preparation for this life long task In the past parents produced many children in order to compliment their challenging work load Today however most parents would like to give their children more than what they themselves have had they also want them to have a happy and comfortable childhood and then they envision success fulfillment and happiness for their offspring in their adult lives Have you thought of how you would go about assisting your child to achieve these milestones of life The Gifts you can Afford to give your Children offers some thoughts on subjects such as The Gift of Creativity how to help your child find the creativity within himself The Gift of Honesty and Integrity the value of living a truth filled life The Gift of Humour finding and enjoying the lighter side of life together as a family The Gift of Self worth and Confidence It also looks at finding the Light within ourselves and our children the gentle vibration within every living cell in our Universe It proposes a deeper more satisfying and creative approach to raising children a conscious and thoughtful way of exploring parenthood Traveling through Grief Susan J. R.N.

Zonnebelt-Smeenge, Ed.D, Robert C. De Vries, 2006-09-01 When a loved one dies it can seem like life will never be normal again The world can become a blur of flowers relatives cards and well meaning visitors and the griever may feel that he or she cannot come up for air But there is normalcy after death say authors Zonnebelt Smeenge and De Vries it just takes some time and help to get there Traveling through Grief takes readers on the journey toward life after death focusing on five common tasks of grief accepting the reality of death embracing all the emotions associated with death storing memories separating oneself from the deceased and reinvesting fully in one's own life This book is the perfect gift for a grieving friend or tool for a loved one in need The Courage to Give Jackie Waldman, Janis Leibs Dworkis, 1999-10-01 Offers stories of personal triumph in a collection of tales from people who have made a difference
