Teaching and Supporting Children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities in Primary Schools Jonathan Glazzard, Jane Stokoe, Alison Hughes, Annette Netherwood, Lesley Neve, 2015-03-10 If you are a primary trainee or are training to support children in primary schools this is your guide to working with children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities SEND We begin by exploring what is meant by SEND in primary schools and go on to cover all you need to know about your statutory responsibilities in school Current legislation and the Code of Conduct are covered to give you lots of information about the content you will be working in The book then examines the range of needs you will encounter in primary schools giving you details information and practical advice This second edition has been fully restructured and updated to include a new section on the key theory relating to SEND Exploring theories and theorist that you will need to know about to fully understand how to support children Also new for this edition is a chapter focusing on the role of the SENCO in the primary school Finally the book includes more practical support to help you in the classroom Checklists to help you to work comprehensively and information about useful resources and outside agencies

A Student's Guide to Education Studies Stephen Ward, 2013-01-04 A Student's Guide to Education Studies is a much needed resource for any undergraduate making their first explorations into the fascinating world of education The first publication of this book in 2002 helped to define the nature of the subject introducing topics into the field which had not been previously considered This new edition brings the subject up to date with the latest thinking and research on policy globalisation learning and knowledge offering an accessible and wide ranging introduction to a diverse range of topics and issues in education Now fully updated to reflect rapid and significant changes in the field this third edition considers topical issues including the political dimension of education the national debate about schooling and poverty the marketisation of education the end of Every Child Matters the Coalition Government's policies for academies and free schools Organised around three enduring themes Education Policy and Politics Global and Environmental Education and Learning Knowledge and the Curriculum each chapter contains summary points questions for discussion and annotated suggestions for further reading With a distinctive international and global focus A Student's Guide to Education Studies is an essential resource for all students of Education Studies

Evidence Based Primary Teaching Jonathan Glazzard, Samuel

Stones,2020-12-16 New and trainee teacher s need to know that the strategies they are implementing are underpinned by robust research evidence This book gives you the key knowledge supports you to develop critical thinking skills and helps you understand some of the wider contexts of education and teaching A comprehensive guide to support challenge and develop you as a trainee teachers in understanding evidence based teaching in primary schools EPZ Secondary Teacher's Handbook 2nd Edition Lyn Overall,Margaret Sangster,2007-11-10 Multidisciplinary Handbook of Social Exclusion Research Dominic Abrams,Julie Christian,David Gordon,2007 Social exclusion is a key problem for policy makers researchers and professionals worldwide Despite this the debate lacks a dominant disciplinary focus This innovative handbook covers evidence from key research and policy to offer cross disciplinary perspectives on major areas of social exclusion Focusing on central policy domains including education healthcare and crime it is structured so as to relate evidence to the state of social exclusion and the mechanisms by which it can be tackled It book will be an unrivalled reference for academics and practitioners working across disciplines including housing education psychology political science healthcare sociology and law Research in Education ,2004 Primary Teacher's Handbook Lyn Overall,Margaret Sangster,2007-11-20 This up dated new edition offers an analytical reflection on teaching strategies and a model for implementation of those strategies Resources in Education ,1996-06 Inclusion and Diversity in Education Peter P Hick,Gary Thomas,2009 This set brings together key articles on the theme of inclusion and diversity in education The collection takes disability and special education needs as a starting point from which to develop a broader view of a range of themes relating to learners who may be marginalized from educational communities An Introduction to the Study of Education David Matheson,2008 This core textbook introduces the reader to the study of education itself It invites the reader to question what education is what it is for and who it is for It challenges the assumption that education equals school and takes the reader on a trip from the cradle to old age Disability & the Politics of Education Susan Lynn Gabel,Scot Danforth,2008 Disability and the Politics of Education An International Reader is a rich resource that deals comprehensively with the many aspects of the complex topic of disability studies in education For nearly two decades global attention has been given to education as a human right through global initiatives such as Education for All EFA and the Salamanca Statement Yet according to UNESCO reaching the goals of EFA remains one of the most daunting challenges facing the global community Today millions of the world s disabled children cannot obtain a basic childhood education particularly in countries with limited resources Even in the wealthiest countries many disabled children and youth are educationally segregated from the nondisabled particularly if they are labeled with significant cognitive impairment International agencies such as the United Nations and the World Bank have generated funds for educational development but unfortunately these funds are administered with the assumption that west is best thereby urging developing countries to mimic educational policies in the United States and the United Kingdom in order to prove their aid worthiness This McDonaldization of education reproduces the labeling resource allocation and social dynamics long criticized in disability studies The authors in this volume explore these subjects and other complexities of disability and the politics of education In doing so they demonstrate the importance and usefulness of international perspectives and comparative approaches

Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,2003 The Promise and Peril of National Educational Policy Implementation Christopher Joseph Johnstone,2005 Exceptional Child Education Resources ,2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 An Oral History of the Education of Visually Impaired People Sally French,2006 By means of 61 open ended interviews with visually impaired people written as stories and an analysis of documentary evidence this book explores the history of education for visually impaired children in Britain since the 18th century
