from the interplay of languages and cultures in Africa

Linguistic and Sociolinguistic Perspectives of Youth

Language Practices in Africa G. Atindogbe, Emmanue Ebongue, 2019-11-16 With the demographic explosion of young people in major African cities we are witnessing the emergence of youth languages and new speech forms In search of well being these young people plagued by poverty social injustice unemployment and idleness invent linguistic codes that allow them to find themselves The linguistic and sociolinguistic description of these youth languages is the object of this volume The contributions inform on the statutes and functions of the youth languages of Africa their forms and structures their representations and envisage perspectives and prospective didactics

Ethnic Diversity and Federalism Yonatan Tesfaye Fessha, 2016-05-23 How federalism can be used to provide recognition and accommodate ethnic groups is an important topic not only in Africa but in multi ethnic communities around the world Examining how institutions of multi ethnic states have been designed to accommodate ethnic diversity while at the same time maintaining national unity this book locates institutional responses to the challenges of ethnic diversity within the context of a federal arrangement It examines how a federal arrangement has been used to reconcile the conflicting pressures of the demand for the recognition of distinctive identities on the one hand and the promotion of political and territorial integrity on the other Comparative case studies of South Africa and Ethiopia as the two federal systems provide a contrasting approach to issues of ethnic diversity Suggesting new ways in which federalism might work the author identifies key institutions lessons which will help to build an all inclusive society
