Status of Bad Memories Jonathan Butoto, 2016-03-19 His book Status of Bad Memories was written just after the tragedy that happened in Democratic Republic of Congo in 1996 until 2004 He was shocked at the way he and other people from his tribe were marginalized and was horrified that they were being killed by other tribes from Congo and Interahamwe extremist groups from the neighboring country of Rwanda This book delivers a true account of what happened during the civil war in Congo Many people died and Gabby survived the tragedy With this book he is thanking Americans and all people who contributed to the protection of his life and family from the hands of killers He says that there is something inside his heart The tragedy was caused by the war that happened in DRC During that time tears were everywhere in the country People have been hunted as if they were wild animals He saw this tragedy with his two eyes He could stand in a hidden place to see what was happening Women and children were also killed His brothers and sisters became homeless They are now wandering everywhere in the world Killing a person was no longer a sin but a game to some tribes in Congo This book is a mediator a bridge to make Congo a holy place to live in and remind new generation that Congo deserves development instead of having killings quarrels and instability

Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The mystery of Whipple s success is why his commercials sold so much toilet paper The answer is that they were extremely irritating and people used the fast forward button to avoid them 2 The idea of Mr Whipple the advertiser is not good It is repetitive schmaltzy and cornball But it is effective advertising and it sells billions of rolls of toilet paper 3 The public is cynical about advertising and we send out every year the Gallup poll of most and least trusted professions advertising practitioners trade last or second to last place with used car salesmen and members of Congress 4 The 1950s saw the birth of modern advertising with the concept of the unique selling proposition This meant that advertisers would claim their products offered a specific benefit that no other product did
