The Sound Of Loneliness:

The Sound of the Sea Wayne Mansfield, 2017-06-24 Liam's life could be better. He's recovering from a divorce and a bitter custody battle which he loses. He dearly loves his six year old son Lucas but seeing him every second weekend is never enough. His one salvation is the sea. When he's sitting on the sand watching the waves rolling in he feels at peace, calmed and restored. One day the waves are particularly high and the sea particularly rough. He's surprised to see someone swimming in such choppy seas. When Liam calls out to the man asking if he needs help the man simply waves back. Liam thinks he must be an idiot. Little does he know the person he sees is no man which he discovers two days later. When they meet Liam is both horrified and fascinated. His curiosity produces a strange attraction that changes their lives irreversibly forever. MY YOUTHFUL REALITY T. K. MASHIYANE, 2013-03-26 This book is about my life as a young boy how I viewed life as a teenager who felt no one understood him. Hence it is mainly about loneliness and depression and it's about searching for love and loving someone from a distance. But also it is about how I found refuge in my faith which improved my relationship with my God. All in all this book is a creative way of expressing my feelings and also of dealing with them as a teenage boy but written in a way that would accommodate multitudes. Sound of a Shadow Jani Johe Webster, 1989 Liquid Space Sean Redmond, 2017-02-28 In this remarkable and original book Sean Redmond examines the issues and themes that are repeatedly found across a range of contemporary science fiction films and television programmes. He argues that they reveal the profound effects the digital age has had on our social lives. Through narratives that feature the post human genetic engineering and cloning, surveillance and data mining, space and time travel, artificial intelligence, online dating cultures and visions of catastrophe they portray a world in which the material and the stable are being lost to the ever more volatile and ephemeral idea of liquid space. Redmond examines a wide selection of popular films and TV series such as Gravity, Under the Skin, The Lobster, Children of Men and Doctor Who to locate how traditional values are being erased in favour of a new liquid modernity. Drawing on an eclectic range of approaches from phenomenology to critical race theory and from close textual analysis to the revelations of eye tracking technology this book is an illuminating account of the digital age through the lens of science fiction. Children with Emerald Eyes Mira Rothenberg, 2003-01-06 Mira Rothenberg pioneered both the clinical distinction and treatment protocol for autistic and severely disturbed children as separate from those for the mentally retarded. Winner of a Woman of the Year award from the New York City Chamber of Commerce and the National Organization for Mentally Ill Children, she eloquently recounts a lifetime of taking on seemingly hopeless cases and bringing these children through painstaking therapy and love back into the world. Unflinchingly honest whether dealing with the raw pain of her patients' lives or with Rothenberg's own complex feelings for them, Children with Emerald Eyes explores the landscape of mental illness while never losing sight of the humanity within each patient. Modern-Day Prayers for a Modern-Day World Evette M. The Faith Louis A. Marini, 2022-04-25 Faith is a word frequently used these days as we continue to struggle through a pandemic that took the lives of over eight hundred thousand Americans and rising Amid unsolved questions posed to the world of medicine in the throes of political and social unrest the darkness of this nightmare has left many with a growing skepticism in the leadership of many traditional institutions of Church and State Why are people so concerned over the existential issues of life and faith during these unprecedented times where the world seems to have gone topsy turvy Louis Marini suggests that faith has always been a multidimensional reality inherent in people's lives People have always aspired to faith to unite a nation in times of distress and social unrest The human act of believing is the first step to walking in faith Believing is always believing in another human being Faith always necessitates and is sustained only in relationships whether faith is solely based upon human interaction or seeking communion with the Divine These reflections open the possibility for discussions that faith is not just a human phenomenon but a natural gift that may transition into a relationship with the Divine Faith which is fundamentally a human reality can become a divine mystery This realization hopefully can
