The Teacup Ministry and Other Stories Rhoda H. Halperin, 2010-07-05 In the global world of the twenty first century class boundaries are subtle and permeable though real nonetheless Markers of identity authenticity and belonging can change with a gesture or a glance making people feel they do or don't belong in certain places with certain people at certain times In these powerfully written ethnographic stories Rhoda Halperin maps the boundaries of class by examining three themes crossing class boundaries class creativity and class vulnerability In telling these stories Halperin draws on a wealth of ethnographic experiences in this country and abroad Her book challenges class stereotypes in ways that touch on universals across cultures and over time

The Reluctant Terrorist and Other Stories Rajeev Ahal, 2017-08-18 Every minute in life you are at a crossroad Do you feel it The heart pounding breathtaking exhilaration of it all If not you aren't alone This is a book for those moments when you feel stifled constricted or just simply not where you want to be Take a journey into a seemingly haphazard past spent off the beaten track Starting with a disillusioned college kid and continuing on into the life of a somewhat grown man these twelve tales offer entertainment but also insights into the true flavors of rural and urban life rooted in an ancient yet developing country like India Meet people whose trysts with their daily lives hold insights into friendship love justice pain inspiration and more This is a book of both adventure and reflection It is for the soul As the adage goes Truth and amla wild gooseberry are the same they are bitter at first but sweet and healthy in their aftertaste These stories deal with some questions that may well echo those that you hold The meanings you derive from each story or choose not to should be of great interest to you for therein lie the seeds of the learning in your own lives

The Small Faces & Other Stories Roland Schmitt, 2011-08-01 The Small Faces Other Stories is a trip back in time charting the rise and fall of one of the Sixties most energetic and successful bands It is the extraordinary story of how this bold four piece led by mercurial cockney Steve Marriot found fame and then splintered by the end of the decade to evolve into Humble Pie with Peter Frampton and the Faces fronted by Rod Stewart Along the way their trademark songs Itchycoo Park All or Nothing Stay With Me and Baby I Love Your Way would influence future generations of musicians such as Paul Weller Ocean Colour Scene and Blur By way of anecdote interview and analysis Uli Twelker and Roland Schmitt lift the lid on the bands complex histories and the explosive characters involved that built one of rock music s most enduring and successful family trees “The Sting of Death” and Other Stories Toshio Shimao,2020-06-01 Until a recent boom Shimao Toshio writer of short fiction critic and essayist was not widely known even in Japan He has never won the Akutagawa or the Naoki Prize and none of his works had previously appeared in English translation He is less well known than other writers Yasuoka Shotaro Kojima Nobuo and Shono Junzo with whom he has associated and whose works have been liberally translated into English Yet there are those who consider him to be one of the best contemporary writers in Japan This volume by no means exhausts the scope of Shimao s fiction There are no stories here for instance about childhood or student life and none of his many travel stories Some of his most famous stories When we Never Left Port for example have not been included But the stories presented here do offer a considerable variety of style from the pristine storybook language of The Farthest Edge of the Islands to the young intellectual s jargon of Everyday Life in a Dream to the visionary hysterical occasionally ritualistic prose of the sick wife stories to the sober difficult almost ponderous narration of This Time That Summer Shimao s approach to his material varies as well Everyday Life in a Dream is the only representative here of a large number of stories usually called surrealistic by the critics stories whose plots progress by the logic of dreams The individual experience of real life are lived through a combination of conscious and unconscious perception These stories are the least approachable and the least charming to the casual reader but they serve among other things to highlight patterns in the more realistic fiction The Farthest Edge of the Islands is a symbolic heightening of reality in another way a romantic fairy tale beginning at the extremity of experience at the farthest edge of the world The other stories are presented as precise close chronicles of reality by a participant in that reality whose attention never waivers and who never allows himself to avert his eyes from a world that he sees as his responsibility and in a sense his fault All but the first story The Farthest Edge of the Islands which is in third person narration are told in the first person by the character who plays Shimao s role in the life that inspired the fiction Charlie Carew; and other stories Annie Thomas,1877 The Queen of Spades and Other Stories Alexander Pushkin,2009-01-29 This volume contains new translations of four of Pushkin s best works of fiction The Queen of Spades has long been acknowledged as one of the world s greatest short stories in which Pushkin explores the nature of obsession The Tales of Belkin are witty parodies of sentimentalism while Peter the Great s Blackamoor is an early experiment with recreating the past The Captain s Daughter is a novel length masterpiece which combines historical fiction in the manner of Sir Walter Scott with the devices of the Russian fairy tale The introduction provides close readings of the stories and places them in their European literary context The Phantoms of the Foot-Bridge, and Other Stories Mary Noailles Murfree,2021-04-25 In The Phantoms of the Foot Bridge and Other Stories Mary Noailles Murfree deftly weaves a tapestry of Appalachian life and folklore presenting a rich collection of tales steeped in the region's haunting beauty and cultural idiosyncrasies. The stories explore themes of love, loss, and the supernatural with a lyrical prose style reminiscent of both Romantic and Gothic literary traditions. Murfree's work is notable for its vivid imagery and the authentic voice she gives to her characters, reflecting the complexities of rural life against the backdrop of a rapidly changing America in the late 19th century. Mary Noailles Murfree, often referred to as Charles Egbert Craddock, was one of the first female authors to gain recognition for her depictions of the Southern Appalachian region. Born in Tennessee, her close association with the landscape and its people deeply informed her writing. Murfree's experiences in the Smoky Mountains cultivated her ability to blend local dialects and folk tales, allowing her to explore broader social themes while remaining true to her roots. Readers seeking a profound exploration of the Southern Gothic tradition will find in Murfree's collection an engaging and illuminating experience. The Phantoms of the Foot Bridge promises not only to enchant those drawn to the eerie and the ephemeral but also to enrich their understanding of an often overlooked dimension of American literature.

The United States Catalog, 1904 Mason Jars in the Flood & Other Stories Gary Carden, 2002 Gary Carden is a folklorist and storyteller. He was raised by his grandparents in a house filled with the past. He grew up listening to Grady Cole and Renfro Valley on the radio while his grandfather tuned musical instruments with a tuning fork and sang hymns from a shape note songbook. He grew up with cows, June apple trees, comic books, the Farmers Federation, and Saturday movies. He told his first stories to 150 white leghorn chickens in a dark chicken house when he was six years old. His audience wasn't terribly attentive and tended to get hysterical during the dramatic parts.
