The World Is A Ghetto Race And Democracy Since World War II:

The World Is A Ghetto Race And Democracy Since World War II Howard Winant, 2001-05-30 A masterly account of world racial politics and the future of global race relations by a leading American sociologist The New Politics Of Race Howard Winant, 2004-08-13 The New Politics of Race brings together Winant's new and previously published essays to form a comprehensive picture of the origins and nature of the complex racial politics that engulf us today Global Historical Sociology of Race and Racism Alexandre I.R. White, Katrina Quisumbing King, 2021-09-30 In this volume of Political Power and Social Theory a special collection of papers reconsiders race and racism from global and historical perspectives Together these articles serve as an entry point for sharpening our sociological understandings of how racism operates in current times

Race, Class, and Power Leo Kuper, 2017-07-05 Examining in detail the apparently inexorable polarization of society in such countries as Rwanda Algeria and South Africa the author questions whether current theories correctly explain the past or offer adequate guides for the future In their place he puts forward an alternative neo Durkheimian view of the possibility of non violent revolutionary change based on the development of such social and cultural continuities as already exist within each plural society But he warns that this is an age of passionate commitment to violence in which vicarious killers abound in search of a Vietnam of their own The aim of this groundbreaking and challenging book is to create theoretical perspectives in which to view the racial conflict of plural societies Written in the turbulent early 1970s the book demonstrates the inadequacy of then prevailing views such as Marxist interpretations of racial conflict as class struggle and the Fanon a priori rejection of non violent techniques of change which Kuper holds responsible for the acceptance of what he calls the platitudes of violence The book concludes with more personal sections focusing on the author's struggles with the then prevailing South African society critiques of that and censorship of his attempts to make these public In the light of subsequent changes in South Africa many decades later this book serves not only as an important work of political sociology but as a personal testament to the fight against racism in South Africa Leo Kuper was professor of sociology and director of the African Studies Center at the University of California Los Angeles A South African by birth he was one of the first writers on genocide as well as other aspects of African studies and urban sociology His major book Genocide Penguin 1981 remains in print The Leo Kuper Foundation is a non governmental organization dedicated to the eradication of genocide through research advice and education It was created in Washington DC in 1994 following the death of Leo Kuper with the aim of improving measures to prevent genocide The main area of work for the past five years has been in support of the creation of an International Criminal Court Troy Duster is director at the Institute for the History of the Production of Knowledge New York University Race Peter Wade, 2015-07-02 An introduction to race that compares diverse historical and regional contexts illustrated with numerous examples from daily life Reclaiming Integration and the Language of Race in the "Post-Racial" Era Curtis L. Ivery, Joshua Bassett, 2015-09-03 The book is divided into two major sections 1 Reclaiming

Integration 2 Reclaiming the Language of Race Both sections are located in the context of the post racial era and analyzed by nationally renowned scholars in various dimensions The purpose of this organization is to link structural efforts to encourage voluntary integration with discursive efforts to broaden our social understanding of race in ways that advance the project of American democracy It is our firm belief that we cannot achieve meaningful advances against enduring racial inequalities without linking structural impacts of racialization e g racial inequalities in economics education healthcare etc to the social discourse of race specifically in terms of the rejection of post racial politics that are based on the false idea that racism and discrimination are no longer obstacles to opportunity in the United States

Social Theory: Volume II Roberta Garner, Black Hawk Hancock, 2014-05-29 The organization of this popular social theory reader which pairs classical articles with contemporary theoretical and empirical studies highlights the historical flow of social theory and demonstrates how disagreements and confrontations shape theory over time Written in clear down to earth language the introductions to each selection link theorists to one another illustrating how theoretical traditions are not rigidly separate but are always in conversation addressing and challenging each other Volume II From Modern To Contemporary Theory uses key transitional theorists to illustrate how contemporary theory emerged from the past New chapters on race on culture and on media as well as a significantly reworked gender chapter deepen coverage As well new contextual and biographical materials surround each reading and each chapter includes a study guide with key terms and innovative discussion questions and classroom exercises The result is a volume of readings that offers instructors flexibility in how they approach teaching and students an affordable and accessible introduction to the most important contemporary social theorists

Race and Ethnicity Rodney D. Coates, 2004-10-01 Race and ethnicity much like water and air are all around us Yet race and ethnicity remain impreviuous to many of us Hence in this volume authors were challenged to think outside the box As such scholars were encouraged to dare to contemplate to evaluate and analyze issues regarding race and ethnicity from radically different perspectives This critical process required them to evaluate their own assumptions and those of their respective disciplines Therefore much like walking a tight rope without a net the scholars attempt to free themselves from the disciplinarian blinders that often preclude the development of fresh insights Collectively the papers challenge the way we conceive and perceive of race and ethnicity As a consequence they go past the ideological constraints that normally limit such discourse by disciplinarian boundaries or disciplinarian myopia Therefore these papers provide a critical reappraisal of race and ethnicity
