Organisations Michael Serwornoo, 2021-01-05 The Image of Africa in Ghana's Press is of high conceptual theoretical and methodological quality It gives a good overview of the literature and the state of the art in the fields tackled by the author The originality of the book lies especially in its methodological approach Prof Guido Keel Director of the Institute of Applied Media Studies Zurich University of Applied Sciences The Image of Africa in Ghana's Press is a comprehensive and highly analytical study of the impact of foreign news organisations on the creation of an image of Africa in its own press Identifying a problematic focus on the Western media in previous studies of the African media image Serwornoo uses the Ghanaian press as a case study to explore the effects of centuries of Afro pessimistic discourse in the foreign press on the continent's self description This study brings together a number of theoretical approaches including newsworthiness intermedia agenda setting postcolonial theory and the hierarchy of influences to question the processes underpinning the creation of media content It is particularly innovative in its application of the methodological frameworks of ethnographic content analysis and ethnographic interview techniques to unveil the perspectives of journalists and editors The Image of Africa in Ghana's Press presents a vital contribution of the highest academic standard to the growing literature surrounding Afro pessimism and postcolonial studies It will be of great value to scientists in the field of journalism studies as well as researchers interested in the merging of journalism research postcolonial studies and ethnography Think/Point/Shoot Annette Danto, Mobina Hashmi, Lonnie Isabel, 2016-10-04 Think Point Shoot gives students a thorough overview of the role of ethics in modern media creation Case studies emphasize the critical issues in global media ethics today in all stages of media creation from preproduction research and development to production and post production This volume features practicing filmmakers journalists and media creators who provide insight into dealing with real world ethical dilemmas For this era digital imagery sounds and web communication have opened doors to sharing thoughts and ideas instantaneously to potentially vast audiences This presents exciting opportunities but also serious ethical legal and social challenges The cases and exercises found in this book are applicable to the current media field while still remaining grounded in strong ethical theory Think Point Shoot explains the challenge of communicating a story to a worldwide audience while maintaining ethical standards A companion website provides additional resources for students and instructors media ethics game chapter summaries and case studies important forms Instructors will also find classroom exercises PowerPoints video from the Global Media Ethics Conference from March 2013 News Aesthetics and Myth Shashidhar Nanjundaiah,2024-07-17 This book considers the presence of media illiteracy in a world in which we are supposedly consumed by media live a media life in a media ecosystem surrounded by mediated communication Unpacking this paradoxical situation the author proposes that before venturing into media literacy we must first understand the workings of how mystification occurs Departing from the idea that aesthetics work on an agreed set of principles between art and society the author applies this ideology of aesthetics to news based narration Using empirical cases from India the author proposes demystification as a possible methodology to approach media illiteracy and recommends completely transformed media literacy programs that deliver to communities drawing from the construct of critical pedagogy The book offers the possibilities for a collectivistic non Western postcolonialist model of learning by using the very collective and hierarchical identities of societies that must be critiqued This vital and innovative book will be an important resource for scholars and students in the areas of media literacy and critical media literacy media education journalism mass communication aesthetics and media technology Journalistic Role Performance Claudia Mellado,Lea Hellmueller,Wolfgang Donsbach,2016-11-03 This volume lays out the theoretical and methodological framework to introduce the concept of journalistic role performance defined as the outcome of concrete newsroom decisions and the style of news reporting when considering different constraints that influence the news product By connecting role conception to role performance this book addresses how journalistic ideals manifest in practice The authors of this book analyze the disconnection between journalists understanding of their role and their actual professional performance in a period of high uncertainty and excitement about the future of journalism due the changes the Internet and new technologies have brought to the profession Continuity and Change in Asia Kraus, Filip,Westlake, Renata,Šamajová, Kateřina,a kolektiv, T ma kontinuity a zm n v Asii je obecn p ij man jako d le it a slo it probl m Asie je pova ov na za jednu z nejdynami t ji se rozv jej c ch st sv ta Rychl prom ny Asijsk ch ekonomick ch politick ch a soci ln ch i kulturn ch syst m poskytuj adu n m t ke zkoum n v takov ch oblastech jako je antropologie etnografie lingvistika a liter rn studia i v takov ch v dn ch oborech jako jsou soci ln politick a ekonomick studia Obzvl t po n kolika letech opat en proti en Covid 19 je d le it porozum t tomu co z stalo stejn i co se mohlo zm nit a b t nav dy ztraceno The theme of continuity and change is generally acknowledged as an important and a highly complex problem Asia is considered as one of the most dynamically changing parts of the world. The quick economic, political and socio-cultural changes are generating interesting topics in those scholarly fields such as anthropology, ethnography, linguistics and literary studies or in other fields of social, political and economic science. Especially after the years of anti-Covid 19 measures, it is important to understand what remains stable or what had been changed and may be lost forever.

Reconceptualizing New Media and Intercultural Communication in a Networked Society Bilge, Nurhayat, Marino, María Inés, 2018-04-20. Over one billion people access the internet worldwide and new problems of language, security and culture accompany this access. To foster productive and effective communication, it becomes imperative to understand people's different linguistic and cultural backgrounds as well as their value systems. Reconceptualizing New Media and Intercultural Communication in a Networked Society is a critical scholarly resource that addresses the need for understanding the complex connections between culture and new media. Featuring a broad range of topics such as social presence, crisis communication and hyperpersonal communication model, this book is geared towards academicians, researchers, professionals, practitioners and students seeking current research on the discipline of intercultural communication and new media.

Multicultural Instructional Design: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-07-05. As the world becomes more globalized, student populations in educational settings will continue to grow in diversity. To ensure students develop the cultural competence to adapt to new environments, educational institutions must develop curriculum policies and programs to aid in the progression of cultural acceptance and understanding. Multicultural Instructional Design: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications is a vital reference source for the latest research findings on inclusive curriculum development for multicultural learners. It also examines the interaction between culture and learning in academic environments and the efforts to mediate it through various educational venues. Highlighting a range of topics such as intercultural communication, student diversity and language skills, this multi-volume book is ideally designed for educators, professionals, school administrators, researchers and practitioners in the field of education.

Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth Bill Fox, 2022-03-23. Media has long been considered a primary site for political discourse in Western liberal democracies, but now with the advent of social media, giant multinational digital platforms such as Google and online journalism, the way we do politics, talk politics and cover politics has completely transformed. Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth considers the ways that technology has led to an irreversible transition in power distribution, political journalism and public discourse. Discussing how the military-industrial complex of the 1950s gave way to today's celebrity distribution complex, Bill Fox examines the amount of power accorded to people well known for being well known, from Donald Trump to Justin Trudeau. Taking on a Canadian perspective, Fox addresses the disturbing cries of fake news in the post-truth age and demonstrates how journalism, no longer the domain of a select few political reporters and editors, has become decentralized and disaggregated. In a world that now plays out on mobile devices, Trump Trudeau Tweets Truth

Truth seeks a path through the debris left behind by recent seismic shifts in political media and technology
