Derek Walcott: The Journeyman Years. Volume 2: Performing Arts Christopher Balme, Gordon Collier, 2013-12-06 During the same period in which Derek Walcott was pouring immense physical emotional and logistical resources into the foundation of a viable first rate West Indian theatre company and continuing to write his inimitable poetry he was also busy writing newspaper reviews chiefly for the Trinidad Guardian His prodigious reviewing activity extended far beyond those areas with which one might most readily associate his interests and convictions As Gordon Rohlehr once presciently observed If one wants to see a quotidian workaday Walcott one should go back to his well over five hundred articles essays and reviews on painting cinema calypso carnival drama and literature articles which reveal a rich various witty and scrupulous intelligence in which generous humour counterpoints acerbity These articles capture the vitality of Caribbean culture and shed additional light on the aesthetic preoccupations expressed in Walcott's essays published in journals The editors have examined the corpus of Walcott's journalistic activity from its beginnings in 1950 to its peak in the early 1970s and have made a generous selection of material from the Guardian along with occasional pieces from such sources as Public Opinion Kingston and The Voice of St Lucia Castries The articles in Volume 2 are organized as follows the performing arts general surveys of anglophone Caribbean drama theatre and society festivals theatre companies and productions British and American drama dance and music theatre Carnival and calypso and cinema screenings in Trinidad Volume 2 additionally contains an exhaustive annotated and cross referenced chronological bibliography of Walcott's journalism up to 1990 The co editor Christopher Balme has written a searching introductory essay on a central theme here a survey of West Indian theatre and Walcott's engagement with it particularly the idea of a National Theatre coupled with an illustrative discussion of the playwright's seminal dramatic spectacle Drums and Colours Historicizing the Enlightenment, Volume 2 Michael McKeon, 2023-07-14 Enlightenment critics from Dryden through Johnson and Wordsworth conceived the modern view that art and especially literature entails a double reflection a reflection of the world and a reflection on the process by which that reflection is accomplished Instead neoclassicism and Augustanism have been falsely construed as involving a one dimensional imitation of classical texts and an unselfconscious representation of the world In fact these Enlightenment movements adopted an oblique perspective that registers the distance between past tradition and its present reenactment between representation and presence Two modern movements Romanticism and modernism have appropriated as their own these innovations which derive from Enlightenment thought Both of these movements ground their error in a misreading of imitation as understood by Aristotle and his Enlightenment proponents Rightly understood neoclassical imitation constitutively aware of the difference between what it knows and how it knows it is an experimental inquiry that generates a range of prefixes counter mock anti neo that mark formal degrees of its epistemological detachment Romantic ideology has denied the role of the imagination in Enlightenment imitation imposing on the eighteenth century a dichotomous periodization duplication versus imagination the mirror versus the lamp Structuralist ideology has dichotomized narration and description form and content structure and history Poststructuralist ideology has propounded for the novel a contradictory novel tradition realism modernism postmodernism postcolonialism whose stages both constitute a sequence and collapse it each stage claiming the innovation of the stage that precedes it Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Collected Novels Volume Two Elizabeth Jane Howard, 2018-06-12 A quartet of witty perceptive novels from the international bestselling author of the Cazalet Chronicles and a compelling storyteller The Guardian Best known for the five novels that comprise her million selling Cazalet Chronicles which was made into a BBC television series British novelist Elizabeth Jane Howard wrote about upper middle class English life in the twentieth century with a poetic eye and penetrating sanity Martin Amis Her highly acclaimed literary fiction is shrewd and accurate in human observation with a fine ear for dialogue and an evident pleasure in the English language and landscape The Guardian Collected here are four of her finest novels about the delight and dangers of desire Odd Girl Out When beautiful wealthy shiftless twenty two year old Arabella Dawick comes to stay one summer with Anne and Edmund

Cornhill their once idyllic marriage becomes a domestic minefield of desires and secrets A unique blend of high comedy and acute psychology Hilary Mantel Something in Disguise One could characterize May's unwise second marriage to Col Herbert Brown Lacy as a death worse than fate The ripple effects of this unhappy union on May herself her own adult offspring Oliver and Elizabeth as well as her stepdaughter Alice who is impulsively getting married to escape lead to surprising and satisfying outcomes Astute experienced vulnerable and it reads with incomparable ease Kirkus Reviews Falling In the wake of a painful divorce sixtyish playwright Daisy Langrish buys a weekend cottage in the country When Henry Kent shows up looking for work Daisy hires him as a caretaker Despite her wariness she begins to fall for her charming employee Slowly and with masterful skill the aging con man seduces Daisy drawing her into his spiraling web of lies and deception Troubling subtle and distinctive Completely unputdownable The Independent Getting It Right Thirty one year old virgin Gavin Lamb is a shy hairdresser in London's West End who still lives at home with his parents But meeting two women at a party an oversexed married millionairess named Joan and bon vivant who goes by Lady Minerva Munday will shake up his quest for true love Howard wrote the screenplay for the film adaption of this delightful social comedy featuring Helena Bonham Carter as Minerva and Lynn Redgrave as Joan Howard scores again with a wry social comedy Total delight Kirkus Reviews Great North American Stage Directors Volume 2 Jonathan Chambers,2024-01-25 This volume assesses the accomplishments of three mid 20th century North American stage directors Harold Clurman Orson Welles and Margo Jones Though their theatre making endeavours were distinct each produced work that challenged preconceived notions of theatre making all while working within the structure of a company As directors drawn to the potential rewards of collaboration all also were keenly adept at understanding how the relationship with a company of collaborators is often marked by struggle and crisis The essays in this volume explore how these accomplished directors not only created bold work but also drew on the complex energies of the theatre companies with which they worked to reimagine the shape and scope of theatre directing The Great North American Stage Directors series provides an authoritative account of the art of directing in North America by examining the work of twenty four major practitioners from the late 19th century to the present Each of the eight volumes examines three directors and offers an overview of their practices theoretical ideas and contributions to modern theatre The studies chart the life and work of each major North American theatre director placing his or her achievement in the context of other important theatre practitioners and broader social history Written by a team of leading experts the series presents the genealogy of directing in North America while simultaneously chronicling crucial trends and championing contemporary interpretation The Life of Saul Bellow, Volume 2 Zachary Leader,2019-12-03 The second volume in the life of literary giant Saul Bellow vividly capturing a personal life that was always tumultuous and career that never ceased being triumphant Bellow at forty nine is at the pinnacle of American letters rich famous critically acclaimed The expected trajectory is one of decline volume 1 rise volume 2 fall Bellow never fell producing in the latter half of his life some of his greatest fiction Mr
