Transactional Analysis in Contemporary Psychotherapy Richard G. Erskine, 2018-03-08 After fifty years of development and refinement in Transactional Analysis TA the theory of methods and the actual methods have changed considerably from those originally published by Eric Berne Many concepts and methods have emerged and been subject to clinical experimentation some have been refined and expanded and some are no longer used This book includes contributions from several authors each of whom presents his or her unique focus on how TA is used in their psychotherapy practice This book will address the therapeutic effectiveness of various methods in TA and will cover a variety of topics such as unconscious experience transference countertransference the therapist's transparency transgenerational scripts trauma and regression psychological games the self-destructive client an integrative approach to the psychotherapy of obsession gender psychopolitics and psychotherapy from a social cognitive perspective It is written for both psychotherapists and counsellors who want to learn and refine their knowledge of contemporary TA methods that are most effective with today's clients

At the Interface of Transactional Analysis, Psychoanalysis, and Body Psychotherapy William F. Cornell, 2018-08-15 At the Interface of Transactional Analysis Psychoanalysis and Body Psychotherapy revolves around two intertwined themes that of the critique and expansion of the theory and practice of transactional analysis and that of the generative richness discovered at the intersection of transactional analysis psychoanalysis and somatic psychotherapy William F Cornell explores the work of psychotherapists and counsellors through the lenses of clinical theory practice supervision and ethics The reader is thus invited into a more vivid experience of being engaged and touched by this work's often deep and at times difficult intimacy The book is grounded in the approaches of contemporary transactional analysis and psychoanalysis using detailed case discussions to convey the flesh of these professional and yet all too human working relationships Attention is paid to the force and richness of the transferential and countertransferential tensions that pervade and enliven the therapeutic process Unconscious processes are viewed as fundamentally creative and life seeking with the vital functions of fantasy imagination and play brought into the foreground In the era of short term cognitive behavioural solution focused and evidence based models of counselling and psychotherapy At the Interface of Transactional Analysis Psychoanalysis and Body Psychotherapy seeks to demonstrate the power and creativity of longer term dynamically oriented work
