Ed Mary Crawford,2012

Gender Stories Sonja K. Foss,Mary E. Domenico,Karen A. Foss,2012-06-06 Essential for anyone who seeks to understand the contemporary gender landscape Gender Stories defines gender as the socially constructed meanings that are assigned to bodies The book helps readers navigate issues of gender by introducing them to the ubiquitous gender binary the problems with much of the research on gender differences and the variety of gender stories in popular culture At the heart of the book is a description of the process of becoming a gendered person through crafting and performing gender stories Because each gender performance is unique a virtually unlimited number of genders existsnot just two as the gender binary would have us believe The same multiplicity that characterizes the gender landscape characterizes the individual who typically changes gender multiple times a day and across the lifespan In Gender Stories personal gender performances are framed within a philosophy of choice Readers are encouraged to become more conscious of the choices they have in constructing their gender identities and to allow others the same choice by respecting their gender performances Readers will easily find a place for themselves in the book regardless of their views on gender because one perspective on gender is not presented as the right one Gender Stories affirms and legitimizes diverse perspectives as providing more comprehensive knowledge about gender for everyone

Gender and Thought: Psychological Perspectives

Mary Crawford,Margaret Gentry,2012-12-06 In this volume gender serves as a general framework for analyzing the ways people think about mathematical performance language self concept social categories and methods and ways of knowing and creating knowledge A distinguished group of authors shows how various forces in language family practices and education reinforce differentiation among the sex roles This volume attempts to bridge this gap between difference and equality by revitalizing and reinterpreting the concept of gender differences Gender and Thought places research on women and gender at the heart of many important areas of scholarly inquiry

Sex Trafficking in South Asia Mary Crawford,2010-01-21

This book is a critical feminist analysis of sex trafficking Arguing that trafficking in girls and women is a product of the social construction of gender and other dimensions of power and status within a particular culture and at a particular historical moment this book offers the necessary locally grounded analysis Focusing on the case of Nepal from where 5 000 to 7 000 thousands of Nepali girls and women are trafficked each year primarily to India Mary Crawford assesses how the social construction of trafficking the concept and its representation in discourse are influenced by the dynamics of gender caste and the development establishment The defining figure is an innocent na ve young girl being lured or duped into leaving the safety of her village The trafficking victim is portrayed as backward however she is backward in specific ways that resonate with Nepal s struggle to resist and yet encompass Western influence This view may lead to paradoxical effects in which efforts to protect girls and women instead restrict their human rights Rather than seeing women as universalized victims Crawford assesses how the social construction of trafficking in a particular society affects girls and women who live in that society In this book the author's voice as a woman a feminist and a social scientist immersed in a foreign way of life illuminates aspects of this process and highlights the subjectivity of urban women It makes the connection between Nepali subjectivities and a problem of international significance the trafficking of girls and women The book provides a model for other locally grounded accounts of sex trafficking to counter the universalizing rhetoric of the mass media and some anti trafficking activists filling a niche in South Asian Studies and Women's Studies

Gender and Leadership in Nigeria and Ghana Mobolanle Sotunsa, Abiola Sakirat Kalejaiye, Patricia Animah Nyamekye, 2023-10-27 This book provides balanced critical linguistic and literary representations of gender and power relations in Ghanaian and Nigerian texts contrary to most existing literary and linguistic studies on gender that have either focused on male chauvinism or male emasculation This text provides novel insight into gender dynamics liberation and empowerment especially as it relates to language and power in Africa
