Transforming Urban Waterfronts Gene Desfor, Jennefer Laidley, Quentin Stevens, Dirk Schubert, 2010-10-04 The collection engages with major theoretical debates and empirical findings on how waterfronts transform and have been transformed in port cities in North and South America Europe and the Caribbean It brings together authors from a broad range of disciplinary backgrounds to tackle vital questions of waterfront development

Transforming Urban Waterfronts Gene Desfor, Jennefer Laidley, Quentin Stevens, Dirk Schubert, 2010-10-04 In port cities around the world waterfront development projects have been hailed both as spaces of promise and as crucial territorial wedges in twenty first century competitive growth strategies Frequently these mega projects have been intended to transform derelict docklands into communities of hope with sustainable urban economies economies intended to both compete in and support globally networked hierarchies of cities This collection engages with major theoretical debates and empirical findings on the ways waterfronts transform and have been transformed in port cities in North and South America Europe the Caribbean It is organized around the themes of fixities built environments institutional and regulatory structures and cultural practices and flows information labor capital energy and knowledge which are key categories for understanding processes of change By focusing on these fixities and flows the contributors to this volume develop new insights for understanding both historical and current cases of change on urban waterfronts those special areas of cities where land and water meet As such it will be a valuable resource for teaching faculty students and any audience interested in a broad scope of issues within the field of urban studies

Activating Urban Waterfronts Quentin Stevens, 2020-12-14 Activating Urban Waterfronts shows how urban waterfronts can be designed managed and used in ways that can make them more inclusive lively and sustainable The book draws on detailed examination of a diversity of waterfronts from cities across Europe Australia and Asia illustrating the challenges of connecting these waterfront precincts to the surrounding city and examining how well they actually provide connection to water The book challenges conventional large scale long term approaches to waterfront redevelopment presenting a broad re thinking of the formats and processes through which urban redevelopment can happen It examines a range of actions that transform and activate urban spaces including informal appropriations temporary interventions co design creative programming of uses and adaptive redevelopment of waterfronts over time It will be of interest to anyone involved in the development and management of waterfront precincts including entrepreneurs the creative industries community organizations and most importantly ordinary users

The Gentrification Plot Thomas Heise, 2021-12-21 For decades crime novelists have set their stories in New York City a place long famed for decay danger and intrigue What happens when the mean streets of the city are no longer quite so mean In the wake of an unprecedented drop in crime in the 1990s and the real estate development boom in the early 2000s a new suspect is on the scene gentrification Thomas Heise identifies and investigates the emerging gentrification plot in contemporary crime fiction He considers recent novels that depict the sweeping transformations of five iconic neighborhoods the Lower East Side Chinatown Red Hook Harlem and Bedford Stuyvesant that have been central to African American Latinx immigrant and blue collar life in the city Heise reads works by Richard Price Henry Chang Gabriel Cohen Reggie Nadelson Ivy Pochoda Grace Edwards Ernesto Qui onez Wil Medearis and Brian Platzer tracking their representations of broken windows policing cultural erasure racial conflict class grievance and displacement Placing their novels in conversation with oral histories urban planning and policing theory he explores crime fiction s contradictory and ambivalent portrayals of the postindustrial city s dizzying metamorphoses while underscoring the material conditions of the genre A timely and powerful book The Gentrification Plot reveals how today s crime writers narrate the death or murder of a place and a way of life Transforming Urban Transport Nicholas Low,2013 This work confronts head on the dilemma faced by a world wedded to mobility the danger of continuing along the fossil fuelled path and the real paucity of viable technological alternatives which can be deployed in time Handbook of Waterfront Cities and Urbanism Mohammed Rahman,2022-07-29 Handbook of Waterfront Cities and Urbanism is the first resource to address cities transformations of their coastlines and riverbanks and the resulting effects on environment culture and identity in a genuinely global context Spanning cities from Gda sk to Georgetown this reference for design development and planning explores the transition of waterfronts from industrial and port zones to crowd drawing urban spectacles within the frameworks of urban development economics ecology governance globalization preservation and sustainability A collection of contextual studies local perspectives project reviews and analyses of evolution and emerging trends provides critical insight into the phenomenon of waterfront development and urbanism in cities from the East to the West Features Explores the transformation of waterfronts from industrial hubs to urban playgrounds through the lenses of preservation governance economics ecology and more Presents chapter length case studies drawn from cities in China Bangladesh Turkey the United States Malaysia the European Union Egypt and other countries Includes contributions from an interdisciplinary team of international scholars and professionals a much needed corrective to the historical exclusion of researchers and issues from the Global South An ideal reference for graduate students scholars and professionals in urban planning architecture geography and history the Handbook of Waterfront Cities and Urbanism deserves to be on the shelf of urban authorities and any internationally minded academic or practitioner in real estate development water management preservation or tourism Handbook of Urban Politics and Policy Ronald K. Vogel,2024-07-05 This authoritative Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of research into urban politics and policy in cities across the globe Leading scholars examine the position of urban politics within political science and analyse the critical approaches and interdisciplinary pressures that are broadening the field The Routledge Companion to Urban Regeneration Michael E. Leary,John McCarthy,2013-10-30 In the past decade urban regeneration policy makers and practitioners have faced a number of difficult challenges such as sustainability budgetary constraints demands for community involvement and rapid urbanization in the Global South Urban regeneration remains a high profile and important field of government led intervention and policy and practice continue to adapt to the fresh challenges and opportunities of the 21st century as well as confronting long standing intractable urban problems and dilemmas This Companion provides cutting edge critical review and synthesis of recent conceptual policy and practical developments within the field With contributions from 70 international experts within the field it explores the meaning of urban regeneration in differing national contexts asking questions and providing informed discussion and analyses to illuminate how an apparently disparate field of research policy and practice can be rendered coherent drawing out common themes and significant differences The Companion is divided into six sections exploring globalization and neo liberal perspectives on urban regeneration emerging reconceptualizations of regeneration public infrastructure and public space housing and cosmopolitan communities community centred regeneration and culture led regeneration The concluding chapter considers the future of urban regeneration and proposes a nine point research agenda This Companion assembles a diversity of approaches and insights in one comprehensive volume to provide a state of the art review of the field It is a valuable resource for both advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students in Urban Planning Built Environment Urban Studies and Urban Regeneration as well as academics practitioners and politicians

Public Space Design and Social Cohesion Patricia Aelbrecht, Quentin Stevens, 2019-01-22 Social cohesion is often perceived as being under threat from the increasing cultural and economic differences in contemporary cities and the increasing intensity of urban life Public space in its role as the main stage for social interactions between strangers clearly plays a role in facilitating or limiting opportunities for social cohesion But what exactly is social cohesion how is it experienced in the public realm and what role can the design of city spaces have in supporting or promoting it There are significant knowledge gaps between the social sciences and design disciplines and between academia and practice and thus a dispersed knowledge base that currently lacks nuanced insight into how urban design contributes to social integration or segregation This book brings together scholarly knowledge at the intersection of public space design and social cohesion It is based on original scholarly research and a depth of urban design practice and analyses case studies from a variety of cities and cultures across the Global North and Global South Its interdisciplinary cross cultural analysis will be of interest to academics students policymakers and practitioners engaged with a range of subject areas including urban design urban planning architecture landscape cultural studies human geography social policy sociology and anthropology It will also have significant appeal to a wider non academic readership given its topical subject matter Adaptive Strategies for Water

Heritage Carola Hein, 2019-10-18 This Open Access book building on research initiated by scholars from the Leiden Delft Erasmus Centre for Global Heritage and Development CHGD and ICOMOS Netherlands presents multidisciplinary research that connects water to heritage Through twenty one chapters it explores landscapes cities engineering structures and buildings from around the world It describes how people have actively shaped the course form and function of water for human settlement and the development of civilizations establishing socio economic structures policies and cultures a rich world of narratives laws and practices and an extensive network of infrastructure buildings and urban form The book is organized in five thematic sections that link practices of the past to the design of the present and visions of the future part I discusses drinking water management part II addresses water use in agriculture part III explores water management for land reclamation and defense part IV examines river and coastal planning and part V focuses on port cities and waterfront regeneration Today the many complex systems of the past are necessarily the basis for new systems that both preserve the past and manage water today policy makers and designers can work together to recognize and build on the traditional knowledge and skills that old structure embody This book argues that there is a need for a common agenda and an integrated policy that addresses the preservation transformation and adaptive reuse of historic water related structures Throughout it imagines how such efforts will help us develop sustainable futures for cities landscapes and bodies of water
