Transforming Atonement A Political Theology Of The Cross:

Transforming Atonement Theodore W. Jennings, 2009 Many books on the Christian doctrine of atonement have been published in recent years Some point out the difficulties of traditional atonement theories others attempt a revision of one of the classical three types others attempt to combine aspects of these types Jennings attempts something new by approaching the question of the meaning of the cross through close attention to the biblical passages that serve as the basis of any reflection on the cross of Jesus and an engagement with patristic as well as contemporary discussion The result is an alternative theology of the cross that grounds the message concerning the cross in the socio political reality in which it was historically located and points to the way in which this message bears upon contemporary social and ecclesial reality Jennings's truly fresh understanding for Christians of the meaning of Jesus' death specifically grounds the cross in the concrete political confrontation within which it occurred relates the message about the cross to the practice of Jesus thus keeping in relationship the gospels and the theology of Paul and shows how the cross bears on overcoming of human division and sin reconciliation to God and new forms of social reality in the community of the crucified I Will Repay Dennis Oh, 2018-02-15 How can Christianity continue to rejoice over a redemption that came at the cost of the violent suffering and death of Jesus Christ In the wake of increasing revulsion toward oppression and abuse both historic and contemporary traditionally Protestant and evangelical theology is in the precarious position of defending one of its cardinal doctrines amidst a host of compelling critiques and alternatives In I Will Repay Dennis Oh explores how soteriology rooted in Scripture and resonant with tradition can also be conversant with the cinematic experience offered by popular films It proposes a narrative reenvisioning of the mechanism of atonement that both supports and extends traditional theological categories and vocabularies while retaining the cross centered conviction of an evangelical gospel The Cross Examen Roger J. Gench, 2020-10-29 This volume explores the essential relationship between spirituality and activism in conversation with a political theology of the cross The author contends that contemplative practice and activism bear the same cruciform footprint and are integrally connected for the cross of Jesus Christ reveals both the brokenness in our lives and the corresponding brokenness in the world it also discloses the God who is always and already bringing resurrection and life out of the death tending ways of our world The cross and resurrection expose other crosses large and small that litter the landscape of our world and of our personal and corporate lives as well as places where God's resurrecting power is at work bringing life out of death and establishing footholds for the unfolding of the new creation The volume engages Paul's Letter to the Galatians and new scholarly readings of it as a rich resource for reflection on these matters and explores the fruit of the Spirit as political virtues that empower communal participation in God's restorative work in the world Providing new angles of vision on both the cross and the apostle Paul the book expands and enlivens reflection on spirituality and activism as profound and generative resources for contemporary faith and practice The Atonement David L. Allen, 2019-04-01 In Peet, 2021-07-30 Jesus died not peacefully in bed but on the cross the instrument of execution used by the Romans to keep potential disturbers of the established political order in their place Until the pioneering work of J rgen Moltmann the cross has been the elephant in the room in Christian political theology This book explores the difference Jesus s crucifixion makes or should make to Christian political theology by examining the crucifixion in the theologies of the Mennonite John Howard Yoder and the liberation theologians Leonardo Boff and Jon Sobrino In the light of the cross and of the kenotic God revealed by the cross questions of political power are explored and a kenotic political ethic outlined In conclusion suggestions are made as to how the contemporary church can live out a cruciform or cross shaped political spirituality and ecclesiology     Theological Cartographies Benjamin Valentin, 2015-03-14 Benjam n Valent n presents a substantive yet accessible introduction to the three central doctrines of Christian theology God humanity and Christ In an engaging style Valent n offers an overview of each of these doctrines delving into its tradition within the Christian community throughout history from the writing of Scripture forward He further explores what contemporary life tells us about this doctrine and how that compares to traditional understandings and then determines how we can reconstruct this doctrine in light of our new assessment of it Each chapter concludes with suggested readings for further study Throughout Valent n highlights the diversity of Christian thought bringing together past tradition and contemporary questions to arrive at a new understanding of what these important doctrines can mean for us today     The Fourfold Gospel, Volume 3 John DelHousaye, 2023-07-25 In the spirit of Ludolph of Saxony c 1295 1378 and Ignatius of Loyola 1491 1556 The Fourfold Gospel invites the reader into the mystery of God s redemption in Jesus Christ All the parallel passages in the Gospels are glossed together along with the unique material using a medieval interpretive approach called the Quadriga or the acronym PaRDeS in Hebrew Meditating on the literal canonical moral and theological senses of Scripture offers a scaffolding for the spiritual formation of the reader This volume focuses on the illuminative stage of discipleship the goal of the parables along with Jesus s conflict with enemies and our mission     Saint Paul Elliott C.
