The Political Economy of the Agri-Food System in Thailand Prapimphan

Chiengkul,2017-05-08 This book adopts a neo Marxist and Gramscian approach to studying the political economy of the agricultural and food system in Thailand 1990 2014 The author argues that hegemonic forces have many measures to co opt dissent into hegemonic structures and that counter hegemony should be seen as an ongoing process over a long period of time where predominantly counter hegemonic forces constrained by political economic structural conditions may at times retain some hegemonic elements Contrary to what some academic studies suggest the author argues that localist inspired social movements in Thailand are not insular and anti globalisation International Political Economy and the Global South Zaynab El Bernoussi,Adriana María Garriga-López,Giuliano Martiniello,Bashir Saade,2025-06-13 International Political Economy and the Global South provides students from both the Global South and the Global North a textbook that speaks to distinct concepts categories and issues of International Political Economy IPE from a Southern and Northern perspective while identifying how they differ The primary goal is to provide an alternative or complementary reading of IPE derived from the experiences of the periphery The textbook asks how has the Global South responded to the demands of a global economy What is the meaning of sovereignty to those who have experienced colonialism and imperialism How can the Global South claim the international when the Global North sets its norms institutions and practices It opens with a standard introduction offering an intellectual history of key IPE concepts including state firm capital power labor globalization and finance Each subsequent chapter follows a similar structure exploration of the problem discussion of what may be missing from dominant understandings of the problem and or how orthodox IPE may tell us something different about the problem compared to what is experienced in the Global South and identification of alternative frameworks and perspectives Aiming to de Westernize and decentralize the production of knowledge the textbook introduces students to the discipline and phenomenon of IPE with a genuinely global perspective The Politics of Biofuels, Land and Agrarian Change Saturnino Borras Jr.,Philip McMichael,Ian Scoones,2013-09-13 This book addresses key questions on biofuels within agrarian political economy political sociology and political ecology Contributions are based on fresh empirical materials from different parts of the world The book starts with four key questions in agrarian political economy Who owns what Who does what Who gets what And what do they do with the surplus wealth It also addresses the emergent social and political relations in the biofuel complex and given the impacts on natural resources and sustainability engages with questions about people environment interactions At the same time the book is concerned with the politics of representation that is what are the discursive frames through which biofuels are promoted and or opposed The book analyses the institutional structures and cultures of energy consumption on which a biofuels complex depends and the alternative political and ecological visions emerging that call the biofuels complex into question Across sixteen chapters presenting material from five regions across the North South divide and focusing on fourteen countries including Brazil Indonesia India USA and Germany these topics are addressed within the following themes global re configurations agro ecological visions conflicts resistances and diverse outcomes state capital and society relations mobilising opposition creating alternatives and change and continuity This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Peasants Negotiating a Global Policy Space Ingeborg Gaarde,2017-02-24 With members in more than 80 countries of the world the global peasant movement La V a Campesina has planted itself firmly on the international scene With a focus on agency the capacity to act this book explores the opportunities and challenges for mobilised peasants to engage directly in the global policy processes within the Committee on World Food Security

Handbook of Land and Water Grabs in Africa John Anthony Allan,2013 Four other themes will addressed politics economics the environment and the history of land investments in sub Saharan Africa Emergent Possibilities for Global Sustainability Phoebe Godfrey,Denise Torres,2016-06-17 It must be acknowledged that any solutions to anthropogenic Global Climate Change GCC are interdependent and ultimately inseparable from both its causes and consequences As a result limited analyses must be abandoned in favour of intersectional theories and practices Emergent Possibilities for Global Sustainability is an interdisciplinary collection which addresses global climate change and sustainability by engaging with the issues of race gender and class through an intersectional lens The book challenges readers to foster new theoretical and practical linkages and to think beyond the traditional and oftentimes reductionist environmental science frame by examining issues within their turbulent political cultural and personal landscapes Through a variety of media and writing styles this collection is unique in its presentation of a complex and integrated analysis of global climate change and its implications Its companion book Systemic Crises of Global Climate Change addresses the social and ecological urgency surrounding climate change and the need to use intersectionality in both theory and practice This book is a valuable resource for academics researchers and both undergraduate and post graduate students in the areas of Environmental Studies Climate Change Gender Studies and International studies as well as those seeking a more intersectional analysis of GCC A Companion to Moral Anthropology Didier Fassin,2015-01-20 A Companion to Moral Anthropology is the first collective consideration of the anthropological dimensions of morals morality and ethics Original essays by international experts explore the various currents approaches and issues in this important new discipline examining topics such as the ethnography of moralities the study of moral subjectivities and the exploration of moral economies Investigates the central legacies of moral anthropology the formation of moral facts and values the context of local moralities and the frontiers between moralities politics humanitarianism Features contributions from pioneers in the field of moral anthropology as well as international experts in related fields such as moral philosophy moral psychology evolutionary biology and neuroethics
