Grotesque Purgatory Henry W. Sullivan, 2010-11 Cervantes's great novel Don Quixote is a diptych the first part of which was published in 1605 and the second in 1615 Focusing almost entirely on the novel's second part Henry W Sullivan is the first critic to offer a systematic account of Don Quixote's passage from madness to sanity Sullivan argues that Part II of the novel is a salvation epic within which the Cave of Montesinos episode is the single most important pivot in the Knight's confrontation with his own emotional difficulties In this carefully researched and challenging study Sullivan shows that chapters 22-24 the Cave of Montesinos episode represent an entrance into Purgatory while chapter 55 is the exit from this realm The Knight and his Squire are made to suffer excruciating torments in the chapters in between experiencing a Purgatory in this life This original reading of the book is coupled with an explanation that this Purgatory is grotesque since Don Quixote's and Sancho's sins are venial and can thus be cleansed by theological means against a background of comedy By combining these two aspects Sullivan exposes both the deeply agonizing and the comic aspects of the text In addition the combination of theological interpretation and Lacanian analysis to show Don Quixote's salvation cure in this life results in a truly comprehensive vision of the Knight's progress Sullivan also summarizes in five different streams of critical tradition the accumulated reception history of the Cave of Montesinos incident drawing on scholarly writings from the nineteenth century to the present
