Page, 2017-12-04 Tourism and

Entrepreneurship International Perspectives provides an innovative interdisciplinary approach This book takes as its central theme the role of entrepreneurship in the context of regional local and national tourism development By engaging with top academics in both tourism and entrepreneurship this book delivers a cohesive interdisciplinary examination of the most recent developments in both tourism and entrepreneurship Several key themes are explored and articulated through the following concepts and issues tourism innovation and entrepreneurship the role and nature of individual and collective entrepreneurship in different contexts the role of tourism in responding to development opportunities created by global forces and finally issues associated with tourism strategies and policies Divided into four parts the book reflects on the most relevant areas of tourism entrepreneurship Understanding the conceptual basis of tourism entrepreneurship Creative use of entrepreneurship and processes of social innovation Tourism entrepreneurship mediating the global local divide Sectoral strategies and policy issues of tourism entrepreneurship Tourism and Entrepreneurship International Perspective Explains the impact of tourism entrepreneurship on places and overall regional and destination development Examines the role of the public sector in facilitating the need for sustainable tourism development Examines the effects and implications of funding schemes and support programmes Takes the owner manager and entrepreneur as the starting point of analysis to explore specific issues Allows practitioners and policy makers to explore practical applications and best practice of theory through a diverse range of international case studies Contributed to by an international team of leading scholars in tourism and entrepreneurship This book is a unique combination of theory case studies and discussion highlighting the importance of entrepreneurial tourism activity for economic success It is essential reading for students and researchers in both tourism and entrepreneurship The Critical Turn in Tourism Studies Irena Ateljevic, Annette Pritchard, Nigel Morgan, 2007-03-15

New approaches to tourism study demonstrate a notable critical turn a shift in thought that emphasises interpretative and critical modes of tourism inquiry The chapters in this volume reflect this emerging critical school of tourism studies and represent a coordinated effort of tourism scholars whose work engages innovative research methodologies Since such work has been dispersed across a variety of tourism related and other research fields this book responds to a pressing need to consolidate recent advances in a single text Adopting a broad definition of criticality the contributors seek to find fresh ways of theorising tourism by locating the phenomenon in its wider political economic cultural and social contexts The collection addresses the power relations underpinning the production of academic knowledge presents a range of qualitative data collection methods which confront the field's dominant post positivist approaches foregrounds the emotional dynamics of research relations and explores the personal the political and the situated nature of research journeys The book has been divided into two parts with the essays in the first part establishing a context specific framework for engaging philosophical and theoretical debates in contemporary tourism enquiry The second set of essays then present discuss and critique specific methodologies research techniques methods of interpretation and writing strategies all of which are in some sense illustrative of critical tourism research Contributors range from postgraduate students to established academics and are drawn from both the geopolitical margins and the powerbases of the tourism academy Their various relationships with the English speaking academy thus range from relative outsider to well positioned insider and as a result their essays are reflective of a range of locations within the complexly spun web of academic power relations and social divisions
