Traveling Back Toward A Global Political Theory:

Traveling Back Susan McWilliams, 2014-03 What does it mean to think globally Susan McWilliams argues that to understand politics in our new world we should revisit one of the oldest themes in political theory travel This title uncovers the rich travel story tradition of political theorizing and shows how it helps to answer today's toughest political questions

The Oxford Handbook of Comparative Political Theory Leigh K. Jenco, Murad Idris, Megan Christine Thomas, 2020 Chapters emphasize exploration of substantive questions about political life in a range of global contexts with attention to whether and how those questions may be shared contested or reformulated across differences of time space and experience An interdisciplinary volume that bridges the gaps between various traditions regions and concerns regarding political theory Provides tags and keywords to aid navigation of the handbook and help readers trace disruptions thematic connections and conceptual contrasts across entries

The American Road Trip and American Political Thought Susan McWilliams Barndt, 2020-07-06 Americans love road trips They love to go on road trips They love to read about road trips They love to watch road trip stories unfold on television and film Road trip stories are a consistent feature of the American landscape a central part of American mythology and an important piece of the American dream In The American Road Trip and American Political Thought Susan McWilliams argues that the American fascination with road trip stories is about more than mere escapism or wanderlust She shows in walking through stories like On the Road and The Grapes of Wrath that American road trip stories are a key expression of American political thought They are not just stories of personal journeys They are stories of the American nation McWilliams Barndt shows how Americans have long used road trip stories to raise and explore central questions about American politics in theory and practice They talk about freedom and equality and diversity and take those vaunted American ideals for a test drive American road trip stories are where the rubber meets the road in American political thought The American Road Trip and American Political Thought includes explorations of a wide variety of American authors from Walt Whitman and Henry David Thoreau to Erika Lopez and Cheryl Strayed from Mark Twain and John Steinbeck to Solomon Northup and Hunter S Thompson It covers topics including gender labor place race and technology in American political life This is a book that will change the way you think about the great American road trip and the great American story

Creolizing Hannah Arendt Marilyn Nissim-Sabat, Neil Roberts, 2024-05-13 Creolizing Hannah Arendt is the first book to explore the implications of creolizing Hannah Arendt 1906-75 and thinking for action liberation freedom power democracy identity racism prejudice totalitarianism immigration judgment revolution decolonial politics the human and the modern traditions of Caribbean political thought Africana philosophy and existential phenomenology Contributors include Cristina Beltr n Roger Berkowitz Ang lica Maria Bernal Robert Eaglestone Stephen Nathan Haymes Paget Henry Thomas Meagher Dana Francisco Miranda Marilyn Nissim Sabat Niklas Plaetzer Neil Roberts

Liberal Education and Citizenship in a Free Society Justin Buckley Dyer, Constantine Christos Vassiliou, 2023-07-24

The liberal arts university has been in decline since well before the virtualization of campus life increasingly inviting public skepticism about its viability as an institution of personal civic and professional growth. New technologies that might have brought people together have instead frustrated the university's capacity to foster thoughtful citizenship among tomorrow's leaders and exacerbated socioeconomic inequalities that are poisoning America's civic culture. With Liberal Education and Citizenship in a Free Society, a collection of 19 original essays, editors Justin Dyer and Constantine Vassiliou present the work of a diverse group of scholars to assess the value of a liberal arts education in the face of market, technological, cultural, and political forces shaping higher learning today. A Political Companion to James Baldwin Susan J.

McWilliams, 2017-11-15 In seminal works such as Go Tell It on the Mountain, Notes of a Native Son, and The Fire Next Time, acclaimed author and social critic James Baldwin (1924-1987) expresses his profound belief that writers have the power to transform society, to engage the public, and to inspire and channel conversation to achieve lasting change. While Baldwin is best known for his writings on racial consciousness and injustice, he is also one of the country's most eloquent theorists of democratic life and the national psyche. In A Political Companion to James Baldwin, a group of prominent scholars assess the prolific author's relevance to present-day political challenges. Together they address Baldwin as a democratic theorist, activist, and citizen, examining his writings on the civil rights movement, religion, homosexuality, and women's rights. They investigate the ways in which his work speaks to and galvanizes a collective American polity and explore his views on the political implications of individual experience in relation to race and gender. This volume not only considers Baldwin's works within their own historical context but also applies the author's insights to recent events such as the Obama presidency and the Black Lives Matter movement, emphasizing his faith in the connections between the past and present. These incisive essays will encourage a new reading of Baldwin that celebrates his significant contributions to political and democratic theory.

Herodotus in the Anthropocene Joel Alden Schlosser, 2020-07-15 We are living in the age of the Anthropocene in which human activities are recognized for effecting potentially catastrophic environmental change. In this book, Joel Alden Schlosser argues that our current state of affairs calls for a creative political response, and he finds inspiration in an unexpected source: the ancient writings of the Greek historian Herodotus. Focusing on the Histories written in the fifth century BCE, Schlosser identifies a cluster of concepts that allow us to better grasp the dynamic complexity of a world in flux. Schlosser shows that the Histories, which chronicle the interactions among the Greek city-states and their neighbors that culminated in the Persian Wars, illuminate a telling paradox: at those times when humans appear capable of exerting more influence than ever before, they must also assert collective agency to avoid their own downfall. Here, success depends on nomoi, or the culture, customs, and laws that organize human communities and make them adaptable through cooperation. Nomoi arise through sustained contact between humans and their surroundings and function best when practiced willingly and with the support of strong commitments to the equality of all participants. Thus, nomoi are the very substance of political agency and ultimately the key to freedom and ecological survival because they guide communities to work together to respond to challenges An ingenious contribution to political theory political philosophy and ecology Herodotus in the Anthropocene reminds us that the best perspective on the present can often be gained through the lens of the past

Localism in the Mass Age Mark T. Mitchell, Jason Peters, 2018-04-02 In the United States the conventional left right distinction has become increasingly irrelevant if not harmful The reigning political cultural and economic visions of both the Democrats and the Republicans have reached obvious dead ends Liberalism with its hostility to any limits is collapsing So called Conservatism has abandoned all pretense of conserving anything at all Both dominant parties seem fundamentally incapable of offering coherent solutions for the problems that beset us In light of this intellectual cultural and political stalemate there is a need for a new vision

Localism in the Mass Age A Front Porch Republic Manifesto assembles thirty one essays by a variety of scholars and practitioners associated with Front Porch Republic seeking to articulate a new vision for a better future The writers are convinced that human apprehension of the true the good and the beautiful is best realized within a dense web of meaningful family neighborhood and community relationships These writers seek to advance human flourishing through the promotion of political decentralism economic localism and cultural regionalism In short Front Porch Republic is dedicated to renewing American culture by fostering the ideals necessary for strong communities

Film and Faith Carson Holloway, Micah Watson, 2023-11-21 Film and Faith Modern Cinema and the Struggle to Believe explores religious themes in contemporary film with a focus on recent depictions of religion s continuing manifestations in a secularizing age The contributors are students of philosophy political theory and theology examine religious and philosophical ideas in commercially and artistically important modern films They offer a scholarly yet accessible considerations of contemporary films exploring the problem of faith in the modern world The approach is balanced sympathetic but not uncritical reflecting a complexity in the minds of the contributors themselves While they are religious believers nonetheless established scholars trained in mainstream academic disciplines The chapters cover cinema that are important in different ways and that represent different genres from the art films of Terrence Malick to the more conventional but serious dramas of the Coen brothers and Frank Capra to popular action blockbusters like the Dark Knight and the Marvel films Drawing on these cinematic works the authors explore religious themes that remain salient even in a time when religion seems to be in decline themes such as sin and judgment the experience of grace and reconciliation and confrontation with radical evil

African American Political Thought Melvin L. Rogers, Jack Turner, 2024-05-31 African American Political Thought offers an unprecedented philosophical history of thinkers from the African American community and African diaspora who have addressed the central issues of political life democracy race violence liberation solidarity and mass political action Melvin L Rogers and Jack Turner have brought together leading scholars to reflect on individual intellectuals from the past four centuries developing their list with an expansive approach to political expression The collected essays consider such figures as Martin Delany Ida B Wells W E B

Du Bois James Baldwin Toni Morrison and Audre Lorde whose works are addressed by scholars such as Farah Jasmin Griffin Robert Gooding Williams Michael Dawson Nick Bromell Neil Roberts and Lawrie Balfour While African American political thought is inextricable from the historical movement of American political thought this volume stresses the individuality of Black thinkers the transnational and diasporic consciousness and how individual speakers and writers draw on various traditions simultaneously to broaden our conception of African American political ideas This landmark volume gives us the opportunity to tap into the myriad and nuanced political theories central to Black life In doing so African American Political Thought A Collected History transforms how we understand the past and future of political thinking in the West
