The Encyclopedia of Confederate Generals Samuel W. Mitcham,2022-05-24 A renown military historian and frequent television commenter brings to life the generalship of the South during the Civil War in sparkling information filled vignettes For both the Civil War completist and the general reader Anyone acquainted with the American Civil War will readily recognize the names of the Confederacy s most prominent generals Robert E Lee Stonewall Jackson James Longstreet These men have long been lionized as fearless commanders and genius tacticians Yet few have heard of the hundreds of generals who led under and alongside them Men whose battlefield resolve spurred the Confederacy through four years of the bloodiest combat Americans have ever faced In The Encyclopedia of Confederate Generals veteran Civil War historian Samuel W Mitcham documents the lives of every Confederate general from birth to death highlighting their unique contributions to the battlefield and bringing their personal triumphs and tragedies to life Packed with photos and historical briefings The Encyclopedia of Confederate Generals belongs on the shelf of every Civil War historian and preserves in words the legacies once carved in stone A Guidebook to South Carolina Historical Markers ,2021-02-19 The South Carolina Historical Marker Program established in 1936 has approved the installation of more than 1 700 interpretive plaques each highlighting how places both grand and unassuming have played important roles in the history of the Palmetto State These roadside markers identify and interpret places valuable for understanding South Carolina s past including sites of consequential events and buildings structures or other resources significant for their design or their association with institutions or individuals prominent in local state or national history This volume includes a concise history of the South Carolina Historical Marker Program and an overview of the marker application process For those interested in specific historic periods or themes the volume features condensed lists of markers associated with broader topics such as the American Revolution African American history women s history the Civil War and Reconstruction While the program is administered by the South Carolina Department of Archives and History most markers are proposed by local organizations that serve as a marker s official sponsor paying its cost and assuming responsibility for its upkeep In that sense this inventory is a record not just of places and subjects that the state has deemed worthy of acknowledgment but of those that South Carolinians themselves have worked to enshrine Twilight on the South Carolina Rice Fields Margaret Belser Hollis,Allen H. Stokes,2012-12-07 A firsthand account of the Civil War and Reconstruction in the Old South rice kingdom from one of South Carolina s founding families The Civil War and Reconstruction eras decimated the rice planting enterprise of the South and no family experienced the effects of this economic upheaval quite as dramatically as the Heywards of South Carolina a family synonymous with the wealth of the old rice kingdom in the Palmetto State Twilight on the South Carolina Rice Fields collects the revealing wartime and postbellum letters and documents of Edward Barnwell Barney Heyward 1826 1871 a native of Beaufort District and grandson of Nathaniel Heyward one of the most successful rice planters and largest slaveholders in the South Barney Heyward was also the father of South Carolina governor Duncan Clinch Heyward author of Seed from Madagascar the definitive account of the rice kingdom s final stand a generation later Edited by Margaret Belser Hollis and Allen H Stokes the Heyward family correspondence from this transformational period reveals the challenges faced by a once successful industry and a once opulent society in the throes of monumental change During the war Barney Heyward served as a lieutenant in the engineering division of the Confederate army but devoted much of his time to managing affairs at his plantations near Columbia and Beaufort His letters chronicle the challenges of preserving his lands and maintaining control over the enslaved labor force essential to his livelihood and his family's fortune The wartime letters also provide a penetrating view of the Confederate defense of coastal South Carolina against the Union forces who occupied Beaufort District In the aftermath of the conflict Heyward worked with only limited success to revive planting operations In addition to what these documents reveal about rice cultivation during tumultuous times they also convey the drama affections and turmoil of life in the Heyward family from Barney's increasingly difficult relations with his father Charles Heyward to his heartfelt devotion to his wife the former Catherine Tat Maria Clinch and their children

Twilight of the South Carolina Rice Fields also features an introduction by noted economic historian Peter A Coclanis that places these letters and the legacy of the Heyward family into a broader historical context A History of the Diocese of Charleston Pamela Smith,2020-06-01 In 1820 the Catholic Diocese of Charleston was established and Bishop John England arrived from Ireland His new diocese encompassed North and South Carolina Georgia and for a time Haiti From 1859 to 1885 when Patrick Lynch and Henry Northrop were bishops of Charleston the diocese included the Bahama Islands However the history of Catholics in the diocese which now covers all of South Carolina began much earlier The arrival of Spanish settlers and missionary priests dated back more than 150 years before there was a diocese on American soil Sister Pam Smith charts the history of the diocese from the first words of prayer uttered on Santa Elena in the sixteenth century through the interfaith singing of a reformed slaveholder's hymn at a painful funeral in the twenty first century Encyclopedia of South Carolina ,1993-01-01 High School Football in South Carolina John Boyanoski,2010-08-05 South Carolina has a proud tradition of high school football stretching back to the 1890s making the sport one of the most celebrated in the state Discover how Florence High School sometimes dubbed the Yellow Jackets or the Golden Tornadoes won the first four state titles a record that has been tied but never broken And learn about the aftermath of a 1922 game between Columbia and Charleston when violent Columbia fans hurled eggs at the Charleston train as the players left for home Through the 1960s the sport withstood the immense pressure of integration until 157 teams ballooned into 193 by the end of the decade John Boyanoski reveals the trophies tears and triumphs of the Palmetto State's time honored football legacy God, Guts, and Gallantry Dr. Will Joslin,2021-02-05 Major James Lide Coker of Hartsville South Carolina was a gutsy man of God and an entrepreneurial genius who founded 20 successful businesses He grew up in the Old South but became one of the most forward thinking leaders of the New South His business odyssey alone makes a fascinating story but his expansive heart and keen intellect reached well beyond commerce He was a passionate leader of the Christian faith a pace setter in women's education and a progressive in race relations Ahead of his times in every way he concluded his own book on the Civil War with these words There is one great result of the war between the States for which we are truly thankful slavery is abolished Though high born he and his family were brought low In the Civil War he bravely defended his homeland fighting with Robert

E Lee and Stonewall Jackson in Virginia where his brother was killed In Tennessee James s left thigh was shattered at the Battle of Lookout Mountain and he became a prisoner of war Delirious with pain he had several harrowing escapes from death before finally returning home to Sherman devastated South Carolina He had lost almost everything including the use of a leg But with extraordinary valor he rose up with a crutch and a hoe to re establish his farm and went on to lead the economic educational and spiritual rebound of his region in a time of crisis and carpetbaggers James became the wealthiest man in South Carolina yet remained humble and down to earth His war agonies and innate sensitivity to human need enabled him to identify with the harshest realities of the human condition and with the plight of the disenfranchised When his ingenious and diligent post war initiatives brought him rivers of prosperity he let them flow through him to bless countless others in his rural state A deeply spiritual man Major Coker also faithfully taught the boys Sunday School for thirty eight years Today we have too few leaders of genuine integrity We need more like the Major rock solid gallant far sighted and good to the core For the benefit of present and future generations his inspiring story with fresh perspectives and previously unpublished material is retold in Dr Joslin s unique style blending biography daring adventure courageous faith and the drama of American history
