Sophiology as this book shows is not a rogue theology but a way of perceiving that which shines through the cosmos a way that can return metaphysics to postmodern thought and facilitate a re union of religion science and art This is a brave powerful and intensely fascinating book that will certainly prove controversial The notion of the divine Wisdom Sophia has always proved contentious in theology but has remained persistent For Michael Martin it is essentially a poetic intuition challenging our ways of perception and understanding Exploring writers left in the shadows by conventional theology he taps sources from which theology and the life of the Church could find renewal ANDREW LOUTH In The Submerged Reality Michael Martin suggests why a radicalized orthodoxy in the future will need more to walk on the wild side and appropriate what is best in the esoteric occult and even gnostic traditions He intimates that the past failure to do this is linked to a one sidedly masculine theology downgrading the sacrality of life immanence fertility and the active receptivity of the feminine The consequence of this has been the perverse liberal attempt to distill order out of disorder or the denial of real essences relations gender difference and the objective existence of all things as beautiful Finally Martin argues that such a genuinely feminist theology would also be concerned with a space between the openly empirical observation of nature on the one hand and the reflective exposition of divine historical revelation on the other In this space continuously new poetic realities are shaped and emerge under the guidance of holy inspiring wisdom JOHN MILBANK This is a very clearly written and lively work of Catholic apologetics Professors would be well advised to assign it as a text for undergraduate courses in theology The Submerged Reality could win the hearts and minds of contemporary young people for Christian belief FRANCESCA ARAN MURPHY Sophiology is best understood not as a doctrine but as a way of seeing and feeling the deepest mystery of reality In this wide ranging and exhilarating book Michael Martin gives us the most important theological apologia for the contemplation of divine Sophia since the great Russian Sophiologists of the last century Drawing on the Russian genius of Vladimir Soloviev and Sergius Bulgakov Martin s meditation on Sophia ranges across the contributions of figures such as Jacob Boehme and Rudolf Steiner Edith Stein and Pavel Florensky Hans Urs von Balthasar and John Milbank In so doing he weaves a rich tapestry that illumines how a deeper gaze toward the feminine figure of Sophia begins to yield a more adequate response to the crisis of post modern secular culture AARON RICHES MICHAEL MARTIN is Assistant Professor of English and Philosophy at Marygrove College He is the author of Literature and the Encounter with God in Post Reformation England Ashgate 2014 a work of literary criticism and a volume of poetry Meditations in Times of Wonder Angelico Press 2014 The Trinitarian Wisdom of God: Louis Bouyer's Theology of the God-World Relationship Keith Lemna, 2022-12-16 Christian theology in recent decades has seen an explosion in the number of books published seeking a renewal of Trinitarian ontology There has also been a proliferation of studies dedicated to the theology of Wisdom Few if any of these books on the Trinity or on Wisdom have drawn for inspiration on the comprehensive vision of French Oratorian priest Louis Bouyer 1913 2004 one of the greatest theologians of the modern age Bouyer produced a comprehensive work of theology that integrated these two seminal concerns based on a vast re sourcing of the Christian tradition Dr Keith Lemna explores Bouyer s achievement in depth showing that at the heart of his venture was a deep contemplative penetration into God s mediation to the world his creation sustenance and redemption of creation in the Wisdom of the Eternal Son Bouyer is a decisive resource for theologians wanting to develop the Christian understanding of the Trinity and creation based on tradition but in dialogue with modern cosmological thought The Trinitarian Wisdom of God Louis Bouyer s Theology of the God World Relationship gets to the heart of Louis Bouyer s theology of the God World relationship more deeply than any other has done before In doing so Lemna recovers a great theologian at his best Sophia in Exile Michael Martin,2021-09-16 Dostoevsky's Incarnational Realism Paul J. Contino,2020-08-17 In this book Paul Contino offers a theological study of Dostoevsky s final novel The Brothers Karamazov He argues that incarnational realism animates the vision of the novel and the decisions and actions of its hero Alyosha Fyodorovich Karamazov The book takes a close look at Alyosha s mentor the Elder Zosima and the way his role as a confessor and his vision of responsibility to all for all develops and influences Alyosha The remainder of the study which serves as a kind of reader s guide to the novel follows Alyosha as he takes up the mantle of his elder develops as a monk in the world and at the end of three days ascends in his vision of Cana The study attends also to Alyosha s brothers and his ministry to them Mitya s struggle to become a new man and Ivan s anguished groping toward responsibility Finally Contino traces Alyosha s generative role with the young people he encounters and his final message of hope Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin,2015-09-15 In Hans Urs von Balthasar and the Critical Appropriation of Russian Religious Thought Jennifer Newsome Martin offers the first systematic treatment and evaluation of the Swiss Catholic theologian s complex relation to modern speculative Russian religious philosophy Her constructive analysis proceeds through Balthasar s critical reception of Vladimir Soloviev Nikolai Berdyaev and Sergei Bulgakov with respect to theological aesthetics myth eschatology and Trinitarian discourse and examines how Balthasar adjudicates both the possibilities and the limits of theological appropriation especially considering the degree to which these Russian thinkers have been influenced by German Idealism and Romanticism Martin argues that Balthasar s creative reception and modulation of the thought of these Russian philosophers is indicative of a broad speculative tendency in his work that deserves further attention In this respect Martin consciously challenges the prevailing view of Balthasar as a fundamentally conservative or nostalgic thinker In her discussion of the relation between tradition and theological speculation Martin also draws upon the understudied relation between Balthasar and F W J Schelling especially as Schelling s form of Idealism was passed down through the Russian thinkers In doing so she persuasively recasts Balthasar as an ecumenical creatively anti nostalgic theologian hospitable to the richness of contributions from extra magisterial and non Catholic sources Jung and the Epic of Transformation Vol. 2: Goethe's "Faust" as a Text of Transformation Paul Bishop,2025-10-07 For Goethe his Faust was his main business Hauptgesch ft an opus magnum or divinum within the framework of which his whole life was so enacted Or so believed C G Jung who described himself as haunted by the same dream as launched upon a single enterprise which was his main business and someone in whom Faust had struck a chord and pierced through in a way he could not but regard as personal In Goethe s Faust as a Text of Transformation Paul Bishop considers the significance for Jung of this iconic work of German literature which embraces the periods of Sturm und Drang Weimar Classicism and Romanticism and constitutes a major work in the German epic of transformation In Parts One and Two of this dramatic poem or poetic drama Faust undergoes a series of transformations as do those readers who as Jung did open themselves up to the transformational power of Goethe s work This is the second volume in a series of books examining key texts in German literature and thought that were in Jung s own estimation or by scholarly consent highly influential on his thinking The project of Jung and the Epic of Transformation consists of four titles sequentially arranged to explore great works from a Jungian perspective and in turn to highlight their importance for interpreting The Red Book Graced Life John Hughes,2016-08-02 Graced Life collects together the work of the late John Hughes Dean of Jesus College Cambridge who died in a car crash in 2014 aged 35 John Hughes was a rising star in the Church of England for whom all things could be seen in the light of faith as graced and caught up in the redeeming love of God The Gift of Creation Matyas Szalay,2024-11-07 What does it mean to consider creation as a divine gift In the post Laudato Si era it has become more important than ever to rediscover and further develop a Catholic philosophy and theology of creation To that end a diversity of scholars has produced this collection of essays that examine our relationship with the Creator and the created world through a variety of lenses The authors of these chapters engage timeless visionaries such as St Augustine and St Hildegard of Bingen as well as more contemporary voices like Edith Stein St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross and Ferdinand Ulrich as they endeavor to deepen our understanding of Catholic teaching on creation and the nature of being Featuring contributions from internationally recognized philosophers and theologians including Rocco Buttiglione William Cavanaugh Salvador Antuano Alea and others this volume seeks to challenge the reader in an examination of what it means to receive the gift of creation Messianic Imagination Joseph R. vision Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology Brandon Gallaher, 2016-09-02 Freedom and Necessity in Modern Trinitarian Theology examines the tension between God and the world through a constructive reading of the Trinitarian theologies and Christologies of Sergii Bulgakov 1871 1944 Karl Barth 1886 1968 and Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 It focuses on what is called the problematic of divine freedom and necessity and the response of the writers Problematic refers to God being simultaneously radically free and utterly bound to creation God did not need to create and redeem the world in Christ It is a contingent free gift Yet on the other side of a dialectic he also has eternally determined himself to be God as Jesus Christ He must create and redeem the world to be God as he has so determined In this way the world is given a certain free necessity by him because if there were no world then there would be no Christ A spectrum of different concepts of freedom and necessity and a theological ideal of a balance between the same are outlined and then used to illumine the writers and to articulate a constructive response to the problematic Brandon Gallaher shows that the classical Christian understanding of God having a non necessary relationship to the world and divine freedom being a sheer assertion of God's will must be completely rethought Gallaher proposes a Trinitarian Christocentric and cruciform vision of divine freedom God is free as eternally self giving self emptying and self receiving love The work concludes with a contemporary theology of divine freedom founded on divine election The Gentle Traditionalist Returns Roger Buck, 2019-12-16

Three years ago the Gentle Traditionalist introduced the skeptical secular Geoffrey to the Catholic Mystery Now a convert Geoffrey struggles to see with his reason what his wife Anna intuitively to her horror the steady possession of a once Christian West by the twin forces of Secular Materialism and Secular Spiritualism the New Secular Religion and New Age Religion In Ireland land of saints and scholars the transformation is rapid and devastating over 1 500 years of faith evaporating in just 50 years Meanwhile Anna's cousin Brigid who grew up Catholic is now entangled with Gareth LightShadow a slick salesman of post Christian enlightenment and a smooth operator with the ladies The situation is desperate Enter Gilbert Tracey the Gentle Traditionalist who deftly exposes the contradictions confusions and lies within LightShadow's shallow creed Spiritual But Not Religious which brackets out sin and the Cross The result is often heartlessness including toward the unborn child a key theme of this very pro life book All of which GT demonstrates to Geoffrey with unexpected aid from the Chesterbelloc and the mysterious Emperor of Christendom In the process we are taken behind the scenes to the little known but deeply influential promoters of in GT's words Eastern Occultism Without Christ We are left with no doubts something profoundly disturbing an epochal shift is under way driven by giant political and economic interests It is time to wake up time to see clearly time to act Selected Essays, Volume II Andrew Louth, 2023-07-18 Taken together these two volumes collect seventy five essays written by Professor Andrew Louth over a forty year period Louth's contribution to scholarship and theology has always been significant and these essays have been collected from journals and edited collections many of which are difficult to access and are here made available over two thought provoking and wide ranging volumes Volume II collects essays on a variety of theological topics arranged chronologically showing the development of Louth's thought since 1978. Throughout this collection the nature of theology as it is understood within Orthodox tradition is a constant concern. These essays offer distinctive reflections on categories such as development of doctrine that have become foundational in modern western thought but which must be viewed rather differently from an Orthodox perspective. The legacy of modern Russian Orthodox thought especially the key figures of the twentieth century Russian diaspora is under constant consideration and forms a constant dialogue partner.

Christ the Liturgy William Daniel, 2020-06-25 We are Homo liturgicus liturgical beings. But what is liturgy? What does it mean to do liturgy? How is liturgy related to the agency of God in the world? In this profound work William Daniel discloses liturgy as the inner movement of the triune God into which creation is gathered by and through Christ who is Liturgy. Christ the Liturgy is a work of historical and liturgical theology that articulates how we make manifest both our true selves and God through bodily comportment and particular movements. Daniel explores the participatory nature of liturgy: how we encounter our natural nature in measure with our involvement in the agency of Christ which in turn is inseparable from the comportment and movements of others; the spatial realities of our environment and the grammatical structure and language used to account for each. All are interwoven and affect our capacity to know and experience ourselves as bearers of divine agency as beings known by God. Christ centered at every turn and grounded in scripture, Daniel's work situates human agency within the Agency of God: the Liturgy who is a participatory ontology materialized through dispositions of faith.

The Irreducibility of the Human Person Mark K. Spencer, 2022-03-25 This book presents a philosophical portrait of human persons that depicts each way in which we are irreducible with the goal of guiding the reader to perceive wonder at and love all the unique features of human persons. It builds this portrait by showing how claims from many strands of the Catholic tradition can be synthesized. These strands include Thomism, Scotism, phenomenology, personalism, nouvelle théologie, analytic philosophy, and Greek and Russian thought. The book focuses on how these traditions' claims are grounded in experience and on how they help us to perceive irreducible features of persons. This book also explores irreducible features of our subjectivity: senses, intellect, freedom, and affections, and of our souls, bodies, and activities.

The Cambridge Companion to Christianity and the Environment Alexander J. B. Hampton, Douglas Hedley, 2022-08-04 Christianity has understood the environment as a gift to nurture and steward, a book of divine revelation disclosing the divine mind, a wild garden in need of cultivation and betterment, and as a resource for the creation of a new Eden. Engaging with contemporary issues including gender, traditional knowledge, and enchantment, it brings together the work of international scholars on the subject of Christianity and the Environment from a diversity of fields. Together, their work offers a comprehensive guide to the complex relationship between Christianity and the environment that moves beyond disciplinary boundaries. To do this, the volume explains the key concepts concerning Christianity and the environment outlines the historical development of this relationship from antiquity to the present and explores important contemporary issues

Luther and Philosophies of the Reformation Boris Gunjevic, 2022-10-06 The book contains seven essays on the Reformation written by world renowned authors As much as they are widely known in their own academic fields and communities this is the first time that such authors have come together to reflect on the major contributions of Martin Luther s thought at the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation Luther and Philosophies of the Reformation is a multi disciplinary critical assessment on the Reformation discourse taking into consideration Luther s rediscovery of the Scripture primarily looking at readings of St Paul with the idea of gift and participation It also presents compares and contrasts a literary Dantean reading of Luther with the Reformer s daring development of the doctrine of the Church that is relevant today Consequently this book offers a strong but constructive criticism of Luther s medieval metaphysics and of the unintended outcomes of his idea from a Hegelian and radical left point of view The authors demonstrate throughout not only the relevance of Luther s thought for us today but also his possible significance for the future

God and Gaia Michael S Northcott, 2022-12-22 God and Gaia explores the overlap between traditional religious cosmologies and the scientific Gaia theory of James Lovelock It argues that a Gaian approach to the ecological crisis involves rebalancing human and more than human influences on Earth by reviving the ecological agency of local and indigenous human communities and of nonhuman beings Present day human ecological influences on Earth have been growing at pace since the Scientific and Industrial Revolutions when modern humans adopted a machine cosmology in which humans are the sole intelligent agency The resultant imbalance between human and Earthly agencies is degrading the species diversity of ecosystems causing local climate changes and threatens to destabilise the Earth as a System Across eight chapters this ambitious text engages with traditional cosmologies from the Indian Vedas and classical Greece to Medieval Christianity with case material from Southeast Asia Southern Africa and Great Britain It discusses concepts such as deep time and ancestral time the ethics of genetic engineering of foods and viruses and holistic ecological management Northcott argues that an ontological turn that honours the differential agency of indigenous humans and other kind and that draws on sacred traditions will make it is possible to repair the destabilising impacts of contemporary human activities on the Earth System and its constituent ecosystems This book will be of considerable interest to students and scholars of the environmental humanities history and cultural and religious studies
