Counseling and Psychotherapy Allen E. Ivey, Mary B. Ivey, Lynn Simek-Morgan, 1996-12

Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Joseph G. Ponterotto, 2001-04-25 This Second Edition of the Handbook of Multicultural Counseling marks an important turning point It brings together the voices of some pioneers who have paved the way and introduces us to new voices who while influenced by the pioneers have taken different paths Because the multicultural community is well represented in content and scholarship in this second addition the reader can be assured that the view points represented in this book speak to the core issues of the field I am excited about this Handbook because the authors answer the question that is often heard at many a conference Where is the research to support multicultural counselling I am equally excited about this Handbook because it breaks new ground by using as its anchor oral histories which demonstrates that for many of us multicultural counselling is not simply a research agenda but a life long journey that cannot always be measured The underlying theme of social justice only reinforces our commitment to this journey Drs Ponterotto Casas Suzuki and Alexander have once again helped shape the multicultural conversation To those who have often said Where is the research look no further Donald B Pope-Davis University of Notre Dame Its First Edition set a standard for a then emerging field Now The Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Second Edition presents not merely an update of the original but a completely reconceived work reflecting the many developments that continue to expand the field of multicultural counselling This new edition features mostly brand new chapters and expanded coverage of historical perspectives on the field highlighted by personal accounts from some of the pioneers in the area professional and ethical issues counselling's role in fighting oppression psychological measurement theories research design gender issues and higher education issues With contributions once again from the field's key leaders as well as top emerging scholars this new edition maintains the breadth and comprehensiveness of the original The Handbook of Multicultural Counseling Second Edition is a critical resource for counsellors counselling students and other mental health professionals who seek to improve their competence in treating a culturally diverse clientele

Multicultural Counseling Competencies Derald Wing Sue, Robert T. Carter, J. Manuel Casas, Nadya A. Fouad, Allen E. Ivey, Margaret Jensen, Teresa LaFromboise, Jeanne E. Manese, Joseph G. Ponterotto, Ena Vazquez-Nuttall, 1998-02-12 Multicultural Counseling Competencies is a state of the art book integrating the literature and work on multicultural counseling competencies It draws out implications for individual professional and institutional development by identifying the characteristics related to culturally competent mental health care As such it has relevance for practitioners who will increasingly encounter client populations who differ from them in terms of race culture and ethnicity it suggests how the mental health profession needs to alter its practices to fit the needs of the culturally different in our society and it advocates changes in mental health policy programs and organization In a very systematic manner the text provides a working definition of multiculturalism from which counselors therapists and social workers can ground their awareness knowledge and skills It presents a new concept called ethnocentric monoculturalism and traces how it has inundated our society and the mental health professions Written by leaders in the field of multicultural counseling Multicultural Counseling Competencies is a landmark volume in clinical and counseling psychology educational psychology gender studies nursing social work psychology health services interpersonal violence and ethnic studies
