Abigail Foerstner

Transcendental Utopias Individual And Community At Brook Farm Fruitlands And Walden:

Transcendental Utopias Richard Francis, 1997 Francis suggests that at the heart of Transcendentalism was a belief that all phenomena are connected in a repetitive sequence The task was to explain how human society could be reordered to benefit from this seriality Some members of the movement believed in evolutionary progress whereas others hoped to be the agents of a sudden millennial transformation They differed as well in their views on whether the fundamental social unit was the individual the family the phalanstery or the community The story of the three communities was inevitably also the story of particular individuals and Francis highlights the lives and ideas of such leaders as George Ripley W H Channing Bronson Alcott Charles Lane and Theodore Parker

Utopias and Utopians Richard C.S. Trahair, 2013-10-31 Utopian ventures are worth close attention to help us understand why some succeed and others fail for they offer hope for an improved life on earth Utopias and Utopians is a comprehensive guide to utopian communities and their founders Some works look at literary utopias or political utopias etc and others examine the utopias of only one country this work examines utopias from antiquity to the present and surveys utopian efforts around the world Of more than 600 alphabetically arranged entries roughly half are descriptions of utopian ventures the other half are biographies of those who were involved Entries are followed by a list of sources and a general bibliography concludes the volume

Urban Utopias Malcolm Miles, 2007-11-21 Utopia tends to generate a bad press regarded as impracticable perhaps nostalgic or contradictory when visions of a perfect world cannot accommodate the change that is necessary to a free and self organizing society But people from diverse backgrounds are currently building a new society within the old balancing literal and metaphorical utopianism and demonstrating plural possibilities for alternative futures and types of settlement Thousands of such places exist around the world including intentional communities eco villages permaculture plots religious and secular retreats co housing projects self build schemes projects for low impact housing and activist squats in urban and rural sites This experience suggests however that when planning and design are not integral to alternative social formations the modern dream to engineer a new society cannot be realized The book is structured in four parts In part one literary and theoretical utopias from the early modern period to the nineteenth century are reconsidered Part two investigates twentieth century urban utopianism and contemporary alternative settlements focusing on social and environmental issues activism and eco village living Part three looks to wider horizons in recent practices in the non affluent world and Part four reviews a range of cases from the author's visits to specific sites This is followed by a short conclusion in which a discussion of key issues is resumed This book brings together insights from literary theoretical and practical utopias drawing out the characteristics of groups and places that are part of a new society It links today's utopian experiments to historical and literary utopias and to theoretical problems in utopian thought

The Literary Utopias of Cultural Communities, 1790-1910 Margu rite Corporaal, Evert Jan van Leeuwen, 2010 This volume of essays by scholars in the field of English and American studies brings together a variety of perspectives on the utopian
