Transcendental Style In Film:

Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 1988 Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 1972
Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 2018-05-18 With a new introduction acclaimed director and screenwriter Paul Schrader revisits and updates his contemplation of slow cinema over the past fifty years Unlike the style of psychological realism which dominates film the transcendental style expresses a spiritual state by means of austere camerawork acting devoid of self consciousness and editing that avoids editorial comment This seminal text analyzes the film style of three great directors Yasujiro Ozu Robert Bresson and Carl Dreyer and posits a common dramatic language used by these artists from divergent cultures The new edition updates Schrader's theoretical framework and extends his theory to the works of Andrei Tarkovsky Russia B la Tarr Hungary Theo Angelopoulos Greece and Nuri Bilge Ceylan Turkey among others This key work by one of our most searching directors and writers is widely cited and used in film and art classes With evocative prose and nimble associations Schrader consistently urges readers and viewers alike to keep exploring the world of the art film Transcendence and Film David P. Nichols, 2019-05-23 In this edited collection of essays ten experts in film philosophy explore the importance of transcendence for understanding cinema as an art form They analyze the role of transcendence for some of the most innovative film directors David Cronenberg Karl Theodor Dreyer Federico Fellini Werner Herzog Stanley Kubrick David Lynch Terrence Malick Yasujiro Ozu and Martin Scorsese Meanwhile they apply concepts of transcendence from continental philosophers like Alain Badiou Gilles Deleuze Martin Heidegger Michel Henry Edmund Husserl Karl Jaspers S ren Kierkegaard Maurice Merleau Ponty Friedrich Nietzsche and Jean Paul Sartre Each of the ten chapters results in a different perspective about what transcendence means and how it is essential to film as an art medium Several common threads emerge among the chapters The contributors find that the limitations of human existence are frequently made evident in moments of transcendence so as to bring characters to the margins of their assumed world At other times transcendence goes immanent so as to emerge in experiences of the surprising nearness of being as though for a radical intensification of life Film can also exhibit ciphers of transcendence whereby symbolic events open us to greater realizations about our place in the world Lastly the contributors observe that transcendence occurs in film not simply from isolated moments forced into a storyline but in a manner rooted within an ontological rhythm peculiar to the film itself
