Transcending The New Woman Transcending The New Woman:

Transcending the New Woman Charlotte J. Rich, 2009 The dawn of the twentieth century saw the birth of the New Woman a cultural and literary ideal that replaced Victorian expectations of domesticity with visions of social political and economic autonomy Although such writers as Edith Wharton and Kate Chopin treated these ideals in well known literature of that era marginalized women also explored changing gender roles in works that deserve more attention today This book is the first study to focus solely on multiethnic women writers responses to the ideal of the New Woman in America opening up a world of literary texts that provide new insight into the phenomenon Charlotte Rich reveals how these authors uniquely articulated the contradictions of the American New Woman and how social class race or ethnicity impacted women s experiences of both public and private life in the Progressive era Rich focuses on the work of writers representing five distinct ethnicities Native Americans S Alice Callahan and Mourning Dove African American Pauline Hopkins Chinese American Sui Sin Far Mexican American Mar a Cristina Mena and Jewish American Anzia Yezierska She shows that some of their works contain both affirmative and critical portraits of white New Women in other cases while these authors align their multiethnic heroines with the new ideals those ideals are sometimes subordinated to more urgent dialogues about inequality and racial violence Here are views of women not usually encountered in fiction of this era Callahan s and Mourning Dove s novels allude to women s rights but ultimately privilege critiques of violence against Native Americans Hopkins s novels trace an increasingly pessimistic trajectory drawing cynical conclusions about black women s ability to thrive in a prejudiced society Mena s magazine portraits of Mexican life present complex critiques of this independent ideal of womanhood Yezierska s stories question the philanthropy of socially privileged Progressive female reformers with whom immigrant women interact These writers works sometimes affirm emerging ideals but in other cases illuminate the iconic New Woman s blindness to her own racial and economic privilege Through her insightful analysis Rich presents alternative versions of female autonomy with characters living outside the mainstream or moving between cultures Transcending the New Woman offers multiple ways of transcending an ideal that was problematic in its exclusivity as well as an entrance to forgotten works It shows how the concept of the New Woman can be seen in newly complex ways when viewed through the writings of authors whose lives often embody the New Woman s emancipatory goals and whose fictions both affirm and complicate her aspirations

Interpreting and Explaining Transcendence Robert A. Yelle, Jenny Ponzio, 2021-09-07 In this volume an interdisciplinary group of scholars uses history sociology anthropology and semiotics to approach Transcendence as a human phenomenon and shows the unavoidability of thinking with and through the Beyond Religious experience has often been defined as an encounter with a transcendent God Yet humans arguably have always tried to get outside or beyond themselves and society The drive to exceed some limit or condition of finitude is an enduring aspect of culture even in a disenchanted society that may have cut off most paths of access to the Beyond The contributors to this volume demonstrate the humanity of Transcendence in various ways as an effort to get beyond our crass physical materiality as spiritual entrepreneurship as the ecstasy of rituals of possession and as a literary aesthetic and semiotic event These efforts build from a shared conviction that Transcendence is thoroughly human and accordingly avoid purely confessional and parochial approaches while taking seriously the various claims and behavioral expressions of traditions in which Transcendence has been understood in theological terms Phenomenology of the Object and Human Positioning Calley A. Hornbuckle, Jadwiga S. Smith, William S. Smith, 2021-06-01 This edited volume explores the intersections of the human nonhuman transhuman and posthuman from a phenomenological perspective Representing perspectives from several disciplines these investigations take a closer look at the relationship between the phenomenology of life creative ontopoiesis and otherness technology and the human art and the question of humanity nonhumans animals and intentionality and transhumanism Ontological positioning of the human is reconsidered with regard to the nonhuman transhuman and posthuman within the cosmos Further examination of the artificial and object in the lifeworld is also explored This volume also pays tribute to Anna Teresa Tymieniecka and her methodical contributions to phenomenology This text appeals to students and researchers of phenomenology worldwide

Intimacy, Transcendence, and Psychology S. Halling, 2007-12-25 This book addresses the richness and depth of our intimate relationships and especially those moments when we come to see ourselves and the other person in a new way In such moments we realize that however much we are influenced by heredity and upbringing we are also agents with the capacity for openness and transcendence Transcendence and Sensoriness, 2015-06-02 Protestant theology and culture are known for a reserved at times skeptical attitude to the use of art and aesthetic forms of expression in a religious context In Transcendence and Sensoriness this attitude is analysed and discussed both theoretically and through case studies considered in a broad theological and philosophical framework of religious aesthetics Nordic scholars of theology philosophy art music and architecture discuss questions of transcendence the human senses and the arts in order to challenge established perspectives within the aesthetics of religion and theology Transcending Self and Other Through

Akogare [Desire] Chisato Nonaka, 2018-09-26 The Japanese concept of akogare has become well known in TESOL related literature in recent years usually in the context of interracial sexual desire In this far reaching new study of the internationalization of Japanese Higher Education Chisato Nonaka uses akogare as both an analytical lens and the object of enquiry and ultimately reconceptualises it as the creation of a space where individuals negotiate and transcend their ethnic national racial gender or linguistic identities The book innovatively engages with the often controversial binary of Japanese non Japanese and demonstrates how Japan often thought of as a homogenous nation may be at a critical crossroads where long held assumptions about a singular Japanese identity no longer hold true The book has profound implications for how internationalization can mean more than just the use of English Transcending Cycles of Violence: The RING of Conflict Resolution Mary Kendall Hope, 2014-05-16 The course of a Cycle of Violence can be changed This FULL COLOR Book Provides a New Theory of Conflict Resolution Transcending Cycles of Violence presents a thorough analysis and discussion of how a cycle of violence exists underneath every conflict as its initial stimulus and continuing driving force Changing the cycle involves a change of stimulants The harm from negative stimulants must be addressed positively When the change from a cycle s original negative stimuli occurs a cycle of violence can become a new cycle of growth Understanding and Empowerment are the first and most important steps on the journey toward effective intervention Conflict is complicated but effective address and transcendence is within our reach
