Transformative Dimensions of Adult Learning Jack Mezirow,1991-05-07 Transformative Dimensions of Adult Learning describes the dynamics of how adults learn and how their perceptions are transformed by learning as a framework for formulating educational theory and practice It presents an in depth analysis of the ways in which adults learn how they make meaning of the learning experience and how their lives can be transformed by it Learning as Transformation Jack Mezirow,2000-10-05 Provocative and illuminating this book is a must read for adult educators seeking to understand and facilitate transformational learning It showcases a stellar group of authors who not only engage each other and the reader in constructive discourse but who also model the heart of the transformational learning process Sharan B Merriam Department of Adult Education University of Georgia This volume continues the landmark work begun by Jack Mezirow over twenty years ago revealing the impact of transformative learning on the theory and practice of adult education Top scholars and practitioners review the core principles of transformation theory analyze the process of transformative learning describe different types of learning and learners suggest key conditions for socially responsible learning explore group and organizational learning and present revelations from the latest research They also share real world examples drawn from their own experiences and assess the evolution of transformative learning in practice and philosophy Learning as Transformation presents an intimate portrait of a powerful learning concept and invites educators researchers and scholars to consider the implications of transformative learning in their own professional work The Power of Life Coaching, Abridged Edition Holley Swanson Clough,2021-01-21 University adult programs are recruiting and retaining the fastest growing student segment in higher education Yet two of the biggest challenges faced by organizations today are declining enrollment and decreasing retention rates In this time of globalization artificial intelligence and shifting consumer preferences it is not business or education as usual The leading challenges faced by business and education sectors both are a declining workforce and enrollment retention rates Organizations comprised of adult learners need to adapt to accommodate this complex population The updated Power of Life Coaching offers a how to guide for business owners organizational leaders human resource development personnel as well as enrollment personnel seeking to address these challenges while transforming the lives of those they lead and serve along the way Comparative research contrasting key missional alignment indicators determined that life coaching has the most significant transformational impact on adult learners lives In response this ethical coaching model was developed based on adult experiential learning and values based institutional assessment all in alignment with the International Coach Federation s ethically founded competencies This text is theoretically based delivering a coaching technique for adult learner satisfaction leading to increased retention rates The Power of Life Coaching is a manual for assisting personnel and teams to fully embrace and live out their mission and values

Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons,2010-04-07 Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it is necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept. Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire, the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew, encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight teaching and learning. In its opening pages, two seasoned educators, Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman, discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention. Thoreau's wide awakes an act of consciousness and a process by which people can understand themselves, their work, particularly in the form of life projects, and others. Building on this foundation, the Handbook analyzes through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors definitional issues concerning reflection, what it is and is not, worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education, reflection as promoted across professional educational domains including K-12 education, teacher education, occupational therapy, and the law, methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement, current pedagogical and research practices in reflection, approaches to assessing reflective inquiry, educators across the professions as well as adult educators, counselors, and psychologists, and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times.

The Handbook of Transformative Learning Edward W. Taylor, Patricia Cranton, 2012-04-06
The Handbook of Transformative Learning The leading resource for the field, this handbook provides a comprehensive and critical review of more than three decades of theory, development, research, and practice in transformative learning. The starting place for understanding and fostering transformative learning as well as diving deeper, the volume distinguishes transformative learning from other forms of learning, explores future perspectives, and is designed for scholars, students, and practitioners. PRAISE FOR THE HANDBOOK OF TRANSFORMATIVE LEARNING This book will be of inestimable value to students and scholars of learning, irrespective of whether or not their emphasis is on transformative learning. It should find its way to the reference bookshelves of every academic library focusing on education, teaching, learning, or the care professions. PETER JARVIS, professor of continuing education, University of Surrey Can there be a coherent theory of transformative learning? Perhaps. This handbook goes a long way to answering this question by offering a kaleidoscope of perspectives, including non-Western, that consider the meaning and practice of transformative learning. SHAUNA BUTTERWICK, associate professor, University of British Columbia This handbook will be valuable and accessible to both scholars and practitioners who are new to the study of adult education and transformative learning and to more seasoned scholars who seek a sophisticated analysis of the state of transformative learning thirty years after Mezirow first shared his version of a then fledgling theory of adult learning. JOVITA ROSS GORDON, professor and program coordinator, MA in Adult Education, Texas State University Transforming Ministry Formation Hahnenberg, Edward P., Jewell, Marti R., Whapham, Theodore James, 2021 A theological and practical exploration of ministry formation in the church today Adult Learning in the Language Classroom Stacey Margarita Johnson, 2015-09-17 This book explores connections between the fields of foreign second language teaching and adult learning This interdisciplinary approach serves as a framework in order to understand the teaching methods that promote the deeper more critical sort of language learning advocated by scholars and professional organizations b understand how adult students learn and transform through language study and c reinforce the immense value of beginning language courses Johnson studies a classroom of adult language learners for one semester exploring issues of motivation and perceived value for these short term learners as well as touching on issues around intercultural communication teaching and learning The book will be of interest to adult language teachers as well as researchers studying adult education and second language learning

Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners Carrie J. Boden, Kathleen P. King, 2013-10-01 Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners is the second volume in a series of scholarly publications associated with the annual Adult Higher Education Alliance AHEA The Alliance conference The title of this volume derived from the theme of the 2012 conference co sponsored by American Association of Adult and Continuing Education AAACE in Las Vegas NV encompasses significant issues and questions at the forefront of the field of adult education At the conference scholars practitioners and adult educators gave presentations and received feedback on some of the most significant and timely issues in their praxis The Alliance which values collaboration transformative dialogue and collegiality among professionals considers this volume a continuation of those conversations as the presentations were expanded into chapters We are glad that you are joining the conversation This volume confirms not only that adult learning higher education and both fields of research have many contexts but also that there is so much more to learn about different perspectives and opportunities for research and practice Opportunities for symbiotic relationship abound We hope that Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners will be a book that you pull off your bookshelf or open in your e reader often We know that as we engage in program and course planning design and teaching this book will provide needed refreshment and new vision When research ideas seem too similar this volume will also provide many seeds for new opportunities
