Transmission Making Disciples Through Short Term Missions:

TransforMission Michael S. Wilder, Shane W. Parker, 2010-05-01 Remarkably thirty percent of North American teenagers millions of people between the ages of 13 and 17 have engaged in religious missions or service projects Building on this statistic the authors of TransforMission believe that short term mission is one way God is taking the gospel to the nations and concurrently transforming the lives of these student participants Writing to youth ministers missiologists church leaders adult volunteers and post high school students they assess strategies for further promoting this kind of involvement by exploring several questions What mechanisms is God employing to achieve this advance in mission What is taking place in the lives of believers who are obediently participating in the fulfillment of the Great Commission What are the theological and theoretical foundations for the life transformation that is occurring What is the most effective means of conducting short term mission experiences

TransforMission Michael S. Wilder, Shane W. Parker, 2010 For youth ministry and mission programs a book exploring the boom in short term mission work among U S teenagers and how best to support this movement of God Mapping Out Curriculum in Your Church James R. Estep, M. Roger White, Karen L. Estep, 2012-06-01 This new book from top Christian education professionals integrates biblical foundations educational theory and practical insights into a new curriculum formation approach for the local church Uniquely identifying curriculum as a means of ministry through the metaphor of mapmaking it shows how believers are lost along the spiritual journey without a study plan having no clear destination or reliable path to follow toward maturity Detailing the theological educational and pastoral dimensions that make a curriculum Christian the text is arranged into four sections 1 rationale for curriculum 2 curricular foundations 3 curricular theory and 4 the practice of curriculum Covering areas from children s ministry to adult education contributors include editors James R Estep Karen L Estep and Roger White as well as Holly Allen Mark H Senter III Michael S Wilder Timothy Paul Jones and Brett Robbe

Translation Applied! Ali Darwish, 2010-09-15 Educating in the Spirit Eric J. Kyle, 2019-05-16 This book is an attempt to address two struggles for theistic educators e g those who approach their educational vocation from a religious perspective whether they are working in secular or faith based institutions The first struggle is that while numerous guidelines on teaching excellence have been compiled the resulting checklists can contain more than a hundred criteria to consider This book therefore identifies the evidence based guidelines that are likely to have the highest impact on student achievement thereby empowering educators to focus their efforts in more substantial ways The second struggle is related to the lack of resources which can help educators to view and approach their vocation from a theistic perspective While there are texts that discuss the relationship of spirituality and or theology to education few to date have sought to bring evidence based educational literature into dialogue with the western Christian tradition and thereby develop a bottom up theology of education This book addresses this historical and theological gap Overall this book is therefore intended to not only provide theistic educators with high impact guidelines that can significantly improve the quality of education in their school systems but it also strives to do so from a thoroughly theistic perspective

Understanding Faith Formation Mark A. Maddix, Jonathan H. Kim, James Riley Jr. Estep, 2020-10-27 Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives biblical theological pastoral practical and global They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship Bible study and mission They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions

Trained in the Fear of God Randy Stinson, Timothy Paul Jones, Dr Randy Stinson and Dr Timothy Paul Jones have been the primary architects of the theological foundations for what has become known as family equipping ministry a recognition that the generations need one another and that parents have an inherent responsibility for the discipleship of their children

The Transformation of Missions in the Twenty-First Century Carrie A. Miles, 2025-08-21 Drawing on interviews with founders of independent missions field work in Africa India and Haiti and her experience as director of an independent mission Carrie A Miles explores the challenges and strengths of missions built on interpersonal relationships and spiritual capital This book examines the rise of a new movement within Global Christianity the independent mission Once death defying residential lifelong commitments undertaken and supported by career professionals a growing number of international missions are now small agencies operating without institutional support and undertaken by volunteers who travel occasionally to the mission field but who live and work at home Focusing on the importance of culturally respectful collaborations with national partners this book also deals with the harm caused by missionaries who do not share that orientation In a compelling example Miles recounts her discovery that early missionaries to East Africa taught that God cursed humankind in Creation Making no attempt to understand the meaning of curses in traditional religions however the missionaries created a devastating syncretism that persists to this day The Transformation of Missions in the Twenty First Century Cross Cultural Partnership without Syncretism argues that in requiring cross cultural awareness to operate the constraints of working independently are also its strengths
