Transition Frank J. Korom, Leah K. Lowthorp, 2020-05-21 The Indian Subcontinent has been at the centre of folklore inquiry since the 19th century yet while much attention was paid to India by early scholars folkloristic interest in the region waned over time until it virtually disappeared from the research agendas of scholars working in the discipline of folklore and folklife This fortunately changed in the 1980s when a newly energized group of younger scholars who were interested in a variety of new approaches that went beyond the textual interface returned to folklore as an untapped resource in South Asian Studies This comprehensive volume further reinvigorates the field by providing fresh studies and new models both for studying the lore and the life of everyday people in the region as well as their engagement with the world at large By bringing Muslims material culture diasporic horizons global interventions and politics to bear on South Asian folklore studies the authors hope to stimulate more dialogue across theoretical and geographical borders to infuse the study of the Indian Subcontinent s cultural traditions with a new sense of relevance that will be of interest not only to areal specialists but also to folklorists and anthropologists in general This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture The

Pentecostal Churches in Transition Shane Clifton, 2009 The global growth of Pentecostal movements during the course of the twentieth century has been widely documented although to date there has been little written on their developing ecclesiology After making the case for a concrete rather than idealised approach to ecclesiology this book describes and analyses the transitions that have framed the ways in which Australian Pentecostals have understood church life and mission From a loosely knit faith missions movement to congregational free church structures to the so called apostolic models of mega churches Australian pentecostalism stands as a microcosmos of ecclesial developments that have occurred throughout the world This book therefore provides a means of reflecting upon what has been gained and lost in the

Campbell, 2016-06-23 In the fourteenth century the Old World witnessed a series of profound and abrupt changes in the trajectory of long established historical trends Transcontinental networks of exchange fractured and an era of economic contraction and demographic decline dawned from which Latin Christendom would not begin to emerge until its voyages of discovery at the end of the fifteenth century In a major new study of this Great Transition Bruce Campbell assesses the contributions of commercial recession war climate change and eruption of the Black Death to a far reaching reversal of fortunes from which no part of Eurasia was spared The book synthesises a wealth of new historical palaeo ecological and biological evidence including estimates of national income reconstructions of past climates and genetic analysis of DNA extracted from the teeth of plague victims to provide a fresh account of the creation collapse and realignment of Western Europe's late medieval commercial economy Law, Society and Transition in Myanmar Melissa Crouch, Tim Lindsey, 2014-10-23 This edited volume addresses the dynamics of the legal system of Myanmar Burma in the context of the dramatic but incomplete transition to democracy that formally began in 2011 It includes contributions from leading scholars in the field on a range of key legal issues now facing Myanmar such as judicial independence constitutional law human rights and institutional reform It features chapters on the legal history of Myanmar electoral reform the role of the judiciary economic reforms and the state of company law It also includes chapters that draw on the experiences of other countries to contextualise Myanmar's transition to democracy in a comparative setting including Myanmar's participation in regional bodies such as ASEAN This topical book comes at a critical juncture in Myanmar's legal development and will be an invaluable resource for students and teachers seeking greater understanding of the legal system of Myanmar It will also be vital reading for a wide range of government business and civil society organisations seeking to re-engage with Myanmar as it navigates a difficult transition toward democracy and the rule of law Theology in Transition Katrin Kusmierz, 2016 South African theologians have long been powerful voices in the hard fought political transition from a repressive apartheid regime to a young democracy A key question is What should the public role of churches be in this democracy The simultaneously emerging global discussion on public theology has been one important point of reference offering a number of frameworks for thinking about the churches public role This book considers answers given by South African theologians beginning with an historical review of approaches taken during apartheid and tracing their development in the two decades following Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der Öffentlichkeit Vol 8 Subject Religious Studies African Studies Diasporic Chinese Voluntary Associations in Transition Ningning Chen, Emily Hertzman, Sylvia Ang, 2025-02-17 Recent studies of Chinese voluntary associations CVAs have attempted to highlight the theoretical significance of CVAs for understandings of community re-making However the power dynamics inherent in community re-making have rarely been expounded In recognition of this this book weaves together case studies across countries in the Asia Pacific to explore the complex power relations played out in and through the transformation of CVAs Collectively CVAs are understood as ever changing heterogeneous ancestral communities composed of common ancestral ties be it origin locality surname religion or language Contributions to this book focus on CVAs in three ways 1 by foregrounding CVAs as sites of power relations through unpacking ethnic relations and gender hierarchies 2 by illuminating Chinese diaspora transnationalism beyond political economic perspectives and 3 by examining the contemporaneous transformation of ethnic Chinese communities in shifting times including amidst China's rise as a global power This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Tradition in Transition Mark J. Boda, Michael Floyd, 2008-10-15 Hebrew tradition presents Haggai and Zechariah as prophetic figures arising in the wake of the Babylonian exile with an agenda of restoration for the early Persian period community in Yehud This agenda however was not original to these prophets but rather drawn from the earlier traditions of Israel In recent years there has been a flurry of scholarly attention on the relationship between these Persian period prophets and the earlier traditions with a view to the ways in which these prophets draw on earlier tradition in innovative ways It is time to take stock of these many contributions and provide a venue for dialogue and evaluation
