Transitions to School - International Research, Policy and Practice Bob Perry, Sue Dockett, Anne Petriwskyj, 2013-11-04

This book provides an important compilation and synthesis of current work in transition to school research The book focuses strongly on the theoretical underpinnings of research in transition to school It outlines key theoretical positions and connects those to the implications for policy and practice thereby challenging readers to re conceptualize their understandings expectations and perceptions of transition to school The exploration of this range of theoretical perspectives and the application of these to a wide range of research and research contexts makes this book an important and innovative contribution to the scholarship of transition to school research A substantial part of the book is devoted to detailed examples of transition to school practice These chapters provide innovative examples of evidence based practice and contribute in turn to practice based evidence The book is also devoted to considering policy issues and implications related to the transition to school It records a genuine collaborative effort to bring together a range of perspectives into a Transition to School Position Statement that will inform ongoing research practice and policy The collaborative research policy and practice based development of this position statement represents a world first Transition Programs for Children and Youth with Diverse Needs Kate Scorgie,Chris Forlin,2022-01-17 Providing a focus on meaningful involvement and participation in communities and activities of choice that secure benefits for all the chapter authors examine both innovative evidence based practices that facilitate transition and potential barriers supplemented by informative case studies Children of Immigrants in Southern Europe Giuseppe Gabrielli,Roberto Impicciatore,2024-11-01 The goal of successfully incorporating ethnic minorities represents a decisive challenge for modern societies However migratory background continues to negatively affect the life trajectories of migrants descendants Hard and soft barriers determine long term inequality gaps and low intergenerational social mobility in both longstanding and more recent European immigration countries This book complements the sparse findings on education labour market outcomes and wellbeing relating to immigrant offspring by providing original research in order to individuate strategies for removing the obstacles that the migrants descendants face Chapters offer in depth analyses that have been performed for specific Southern European contexts to explore the specific inequality patterns that are emerging in these more recent and unexplored immigration contexts The main findings suggest that the lower academic performances of immigrants descendants can be raised through language support programmes mentoring programmes positive role and disciplinary climate extra scholastic activities and parental involvement Equality opportunities in education should support school to work transitions and better allocate the underutilised human capital reserves of migrants descendants Conversely long lasting penalties in educational careers and integration processes may arise when children are physically separated from their parents because of delayed family reunification This book will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of sociology ethnic and racial studies international politics and migration studies It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies
