Translation And Literary Studies Homage To Marilyn Gaddis Rose:

Translation and Literary Studies Marella Feltrin-Morris, Deborah Folaron, Maria Constanza Guzmán, 2014-04-08 By nature a transdisciplinary area of inquiry translation lends itself to being investigated at its intersection with other fields of study Translation and Literary Studies seeks to highlight the manifold connections between translation and notions of gender dialectics agency philosophy and power The volume also offers a timely homage to renowned translation theorist Marilyn Gaddis Rose who was at the forefront of the group of scholars who initiated and helped to institutionalize translation studies Inspired by Gaddis Rose's work and particularly by her concept of stereoscopic reading the volume is dynamically complementary to the burgeoning contemporary field of global comparative literature underscoring the diversity of critical literary thought and theory worldwide Arranged thematically around questions of translation as literary and cultural criticism as epistemology and as poetics and politics and dealing with works within and beyond the Western tradition the essays in the volume illustrate the multi-voiced spectrum of literary translation studies today

Literary Translator Studies Klaus Kaindl, Waltraud Kolb, Daniela Schlager, 2021-04-15 This volume extends and deepens our understanding of Translator Studies by charting new territory in terms of theory methods and concepts The focus is on literary translators their roles identities and personalities The book introduces pertinent translator-centered approaches in four sections historical biographical studies social scientific and process-oriented methods and approaches that use paratexts or translations to study literary translators Drawing on a variety of concepts such as identity role self posture habitus and voice the various chapters showcase forgotten literary translators and shed new light on some well-known figures they examine literary translators not as functioning units but as human beings in their uniqueness Literary Translator Studies as a subdiscipline of Translation Studies demonstrates how exploring the cultural social psychological and cognitive facets of translatorial subjects contributes to a holistic understanding of translation

Handbook of Translation Studies Yves Gambier, Luc van Doorslaer, 2021-10-15 Up to now the Handbook of Translation Studies HTS consisted of four volumes all published between 2010 and 2013 Since research in TS continues to grow and expand this fifth volume was added in 2021 The HTS aims at disseminating knowledge about translation interpreting localization adaptation etc and providing easy access to a large range of topics traditions and methods to a relatively broad audience not only students who prefer such user-friendliness but also researchers and lecturers in Translation Studies Translation Interpreting professionals as well as scholars and experts from other adjacent disciplines All articles in HTS are written by specialists in the different subfields and are peer-reviewed

Translation and Emotion Séverine Hubscher-Davidson, 2017-10-31 This volume tackles one of the most promising and interdisciplinary developments in modern Translation Studies the psychology of translation It applies the scientific study of emotion to the study of translation and translators in order to shed light on how emotions can impact decision-making and problem-solving when translating The book offers a new critical approach to the study of emotion in translation by analysing translators accounts of their experiences as well as drawing on a case study of emotional intelligence involving 155 professional translators The author identifies three distinctive areas where emotions influence translators emotional material contained in source texts their own emotions and the emotions of source and target readers In order to explore the relevance and influence of emotions in translation each chapter focuses on a different emotion trait emotion perception emotion regulation and emotion expression A Literary Translation in the Making Claudine Borg, 2022-10-14 This book presents a holistic picture of the practice of an experienced literary translator working in situ highlighting the value of in depth process studies for the discipline and offering a model for future similar studies Bringing together Cognitive Translation Studies CTS and literary translation Borg interrogates existing assumptions in CTS and sheds light on the value of a combined look at both cognitive and social processes in literary translation The volume extends the scope of existing CTS studies with its comprehensive examination of the work of one translator and exploration of the wide range of materials from draft to finished translation This unique model allows for a greater understanding of the actions decisions motivations and work practices of individual translators as well as of their interactions with other participants in the practice of a literary translation Making the case for in depth process research in illuminating the dynamics of translation production and working practices this innovative book will be of interest to students and scholars in translation and interpreting studies especially those interested in literary translation and cognitive approaches Teaching Translation Nabil Al-Awawdeh, 2024-11-28 This book provides teachers with a strategic guide through the complex domains of translation studies illustrating a broad and transformative voyage By extensively exploring the theoretical complexities associated with cognitive processes overarching frameworks and cultural sensitivity the initial chapters lay a strong groundwork for the development of effective translation pedagogy The fundamental idea revolves around adopting a student centric stance and ensuring that educational methods are in line with the ever evolving demands of the translation field The text puts an emphasis on technology and its transformative capacity to augment the learning experience which is evident in the chapters devoted to digital tools online platforms and interactive methods This emphasis acknowledges the critical importance of technological expertise for teachers and students alike in order to successfully navigate the contemporary translation environment The book s chapters devoted to innovations in translation education not only provide an in depth discussion of current developments like gamification project based methodologies and online learning but also assess their direct impact on student achievement in a critical manner The Psychology of Translation Séverine Hubscher-Davidson, Caroline Lehr, 2022-11-30 Drawing on work from scholars in both psychology and translation studies this collection offers new perspectives on what Holmes 1972 called translation psychology This interdisciplinary volume brings together contributions addressing translation from the vantage point of different applied branches of psychology including critical developmental psychology occupational psychology and forensic psychology Current theoretical and methodological practices in these areas have the potential to strengthen and diversify how translators decision making and problem solving behaviours are understood but many sub branches of psychology have lacked visibility so far in the translation studies literature The Psychology of Translation An Interdisciplinary Approach therefore seeks to expand our understanding of translator behaviour by bringing to the fore new schools of thought and conceptualisations Some chapters report on empirical studies while others provide a review of research in a particular area of psychology of relevance to translation and translators Written by a range of leading figures and authorities in psychology and translation it offers unique contributions that can enrich translation process research and provide a means of encouraging further development in the area of translation psychology This book will be of interest to scholars working at the intersection of translation and psychology in such fields as translation studies affective science narrative psychology and work psychology amongst other areas It will be of particular interest to researchers and postgraduate students in translation studies

A World Atlas of Translation Yves Gambier, Ubaldo Stecconi, 2019-02-15 What do people think of translation in the different historical cultural and linguistic traditions of the world How many uses has translation been put to How distant from one another are the concepts of translation found in the different traditions These are some of the questions A World Atlas of Translation addresses Its twenty one reports give us pictures taken from the inside both from traditions that are well represented in the literature and from the many that for now are not But the Atlas is not content with documenting no map is this innocent In fact the wealth of information collected and made accessible by its reporters can be useful to gauge the dispersion of translation concepts across traditions As you read its reports the Atlas will keep asking How far apart do these concepts look to you Finally and more ambitiously the reports can help us test the hypothesis that a cross cultural notion of translation exists In this respect the Atlas is mostly a proof of concept It hopes to encourage further fact based research in quest of a robust and compelling unifying notion of translation

Adventures in Phenomenology Eileen Rizo-Patron, Edward S. Casey, Jason M. Wirth, 2017-07-31 Repositions Bachelard as a critical and integral part of contemporary continental philosophy Like Schelling before him and Deleuze and Guattari after him Gaston Bachelard made major philosophical contributions to the advancement of science and the arts In addition to being a mathematician and epistemologist whose influential work in the philosophy of science is still being absorbed Bachelard was also one of the most innovative thinkers on poetic creativity and its ethical implications His approaches to literature and the arts by way of elemental reverie awakened long buried modes of thinking that have inspired literary critics depth psychologists poets and artists alike Bachelard s extraordinary body of work unduly neglected by the English language reception of continental philosophy in recent decades exhibits a capacity to speak to the full complexity and wider reaches of human thinking The essays in this volume analyze Bachelard as a phenomenological thinker and situate his thought within the Western tradition Considering his work alongside that of Schelling Husserl Bergson Buber Heidegger Merleau Ponty Gadamer Deleuze and Nancy this collection highlights some of Bachelard s most provocative proposals on questions of ontology hermeneutics

Colette and the Incest Taboo Dr.Carol Mastrangelo Bove,2025-01-14 This book makes an argument critical to literary theory and sexuality in 2022 It argues that Colette s fiction portrays a woman struggling to live in the throes of the incest taboo understood in its psychological implications for power relations both private and public then and now Informed by Julia Kristeva s work it approaches Colette s writing and its translation along with two films via close psychoanalytic readings It demonstrates that this version of Kristeva s psychoanalytic theory in an accessible form and with emphasis on the psychology of women and social transformation helps to read Colette for the twenty first century as well as to show how Kristeva s theory works This volume examines especially Colette s most admired novels especially from the second half of her life including the much misunderstood La Maison de Claudine 1922 where the incest taboo surfaces in the relationship of the narrator with the mother The taboo had appeared two years earlier in Ch ri 1920 in the rapport between the maternal L a a woman of a certain age and the young man Ch ri finally in Gigi the incest taboo characterises the relations between the young teenager of the eponymous title and her much older uncle figure Gaston
