The Impact of Global English on Cultural Identities in the United Arab Emirates Sarah Hopkyns,2020-03-18 This book provides a nuanced portrait of the complexities found within the cultural and linguistic landscape of the United Arab Emirates unpacking the ever shifting dynamics between English and Arabic in today s era of superdiversity Employing a qualitative phenomenological approach which draws on a rich set of data from questionnaires to focus groups with Emirati students Emirati schoolteachers and expatriate university teachers Hopkyns problematizes the common binary East West paradigm focused on the tension between the use of English and Arabic in the UAE Key issues emerging from the resulting analysis include the differing attitudes towards English and in particular English Medium Instruction the impact of this tension on identities and the ways in which the two languages are employed in distinct ways on an everyday scale The volume will particularly appeal to students and scholars interested in issues around language and identity language policy and planning multilingualism translanguaging and language in education Socialist and

Post-Socialist Mongolia Simon Wickhamsmith,Phillip P. Marzluf,2021-03-03 This book re examines the origins of modern

Mongolian nationalism discussing nation building as sponsored by the socialist Mongolian People's Revolutionary Party and the Soviet Union and emphasizing in particular the role of the arts and the humanities. It considers the politics and society of the early revolutionary period and assesses the ways in which ideas about nationhood were constructed in a response to Soviet socialism. It goes on to analyze the consequences of socialist cultural and social transformations on pastoral Kazakh and other identities and outlines the implications of socialist nation building on post socialist Mongolian national identity. Overall Socialist and Post Socialist Mongolia highlights how Mongolia's population of widely scattered seminomadic pastoralists posed challenges for socialist administrators attempting to create a homogenous mass nation of individual citizens who share a set of cultural beliefs, historical memories, collective symbols and civic ideas. Additionally, the book addresses the changes brought more recently by democratic governance. Transnational Identities and Practices in English Language Teaching Rashi Jain, Bedrettin Yazan, Suresh Canagarajah, 2021-07-27. The self-inquiries in this edited volume exemplify the dynamism that permeates global ELT wherein English language educators and teacher educators are increasingly operating across blurred national boundaries, creating new liminal spaces, charting new trajectories, crafting new practices and pedagogies, constructing new identities and reconceptualizing ELT contexts. This book captures the diverse voices of emerging and established ELT practitioners and scholars originally from and/or operating in non-Western contexts, spanning not only the so-called non-Western peripheries but also peripheries created within the center when certain members are minoritized on the basis of their race, language and/or place of origin. The chapters address a range of related issues occurring at the intersections of personal and professional identities, pedagogy and classroom interactions as well as research and professional practices in liminal transnational spaces.

Bloomsbury World Englishes Volume 3: Pedagogies Yasemin Bayyurt, Mario Saraceni, 2021-05-20. Bloomsbury World Englishes offers a comprehensive and rigorous description of the facts, implications and contentious issues regarding the forms and functions of English in the world. International experts cover a diverse range of varieties and topics, offering a more accurate understanding of English across the globe and the various social contexts in which it plays a significant role. With volumes dedicated to research, paradigms, language ideologies and pedagogies, the collection pushes the boundaries of the field to go beyond traditional descriptive paradigms and contribute to moving research agendas forward. Volume 3: Pedagogies addresses the teaching of English as a world language. Chapters in this volume consider the teaching and learning of English from a range of perspectives and on the basis of experiences and research from many parts of the world.

World Englishes: A Critical Analysis Mario Saraceni, 2015-02-26. Winner of the BAAL Book Prize 2016. The field of World Englishes takes on ever more importance in the modern era. Mario Saraceni's World Englishes: A Critical Analysis looks at the developments in the field from a critical perspective. It examines the historical linguistic ideological and pedagogical aspects in the study of the ever evolving forms roles and statuses of English around the world The principal aim is to offer a critical overview of the field in order both to inform readers about the main issues at stake and to challenge established positions and descriptive analytical paradigms The book has four sections each of which reviews established accounts and offers alternative perspectives on those History considers representations of the evolution of old English and new Englishes and begins to unveil the strong link between conventional accounts and ideological motivations Language critically examines the traditional notion of difference in the description of varieties of English and discusses more recent orientations which aim to describe English as a lingua franca and the phenomenon of language hybridity Ideology examines ideological debates around the presence and status of English in the world such as linguistic imperialism language ownership and language ecology The final section Pedagogy discusses pedagogical implications such as the choice of appropriate models of English and considers the possibility of teaching English as a fully de anglicised language
