The birds are captured in various stages of flight, with their wings spread. The overall tone is serene and expansive.

Transnationalism and German-Language Literature in the Twenty-First Century Stuart Taberner, 2017-03-01 This book examines how German language authors have intervened in contemporary debates on the obligation to extend hospitality to asylum seekers refugees and migrants the terrorist threat post 9 11 globalisation and neo liberalism the opportunities and anxieties of intensified mobility across borders and whether transnationalism necessarily implies the end of the nation state and the dawn of a new cosmopolitanism The book proceeds through a series of close readings of key texts of the last twenty years with an emphasis on the most recent works Authors include Ter zia Mora Richard Wagner Olga Grjasnowa Marlene Streeruwitz Vladimir Vertlib Navid Kermani Felicitas Hoppe Daniel Kehlmann Ilija Trojanow Christian Kracht and Christa Wolf representing the diversity of contemporary German language writing Through a careful process of juxtaposition and differentiation the individual chapters demonstrate that writers of both minority and nonminority backgrounds address transnationalism in ways that certainly vary but which also often overlap in surprising ways

German Literature as a Transnational Field of Production, 1848-1919 Lynne Tatlock, Kurt Beals, 2023 A collection of new essays bringing into view the push and pull of the national and the international in the German language cultural field of the period The cultural formations of the so called Age of Nationalism 1848 1919 have shaped German language literary studies to the present day for better or worse Literary histories German self representations the view from abroad all of these perspectives offer images of a culture ever more concerned with formulating a coherent nationally focused idea of its origins history and cultural community But even in this historical moment the German speaking territories were not culturally self contained international forces always played a significant role in the constitution of the so called German literary and cultural field This volume rethinks the historical period with fourteen case studies that bring into view the push and pull of the national and international in Germany Austria and Switzerland undertaking a reframing of literary cultural history that recognizes the interrelatedness of literatures and cultures across political and linguistic boundaries Viewing even overtly national literary and cultural projects as belonging to an international system these case studies examine the interrelations organization and positioning of the agents forces enterprises and processes that constituted the German language literary cultural field locating these ostensibly national developments within an inter or even anti national context Transnational German Studies Rebecca Braun, Benedict Schofield, 2020-07-17 This volume consists of a series of essays written by leading scholars within the field demonstrating the types of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities underpinning German language culture and history as these travel right around the globe Contributions discuss the inherent cross pollination of different languages times places and notions of identity within German language cultures and the ways in which their construction and circulation cannot be contained by national or linguistic borders In doing so it is not the aim of the volume to provide a compendium of existing transnational approaches to German Studies or to offer its readers a series of survey chapters on different fields of study to date Instead it offers novel research led chapters that pose a question a problem or an issue through which contemporary and historical transcultural and transnational processes can be seen at work Accordingly each essay isolates a specific area of study and opens it up for exploration providing readers especially student readers not just with examples of transnational phenomena in German language cultures but also with models of how research in these areas can be configured and pursued Contributors Angus Nicholls Anne Fuchs Benedict Schofield Birgit Lang Charlotte Ryland Claire Baldwin Dirk Weissmann Elizabeth Anderson James Hodgkinson Nicholas Baer Paulo Soethe Rebecca Braun Sara Jones Sebastian Heiduschke Stuart Taberner and Ulrike Draesner MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association of America, 2008 Vols for 1969 include ACTFL annual bibliography of books and articles on pedagogy in foreign languages 1969 2018 Günter Berghaus, Domenico Pietropaolo, Beatrice Sica, 2018-04-09 The eighth volume of the International Yearbook of Futurism Studies is again an open issue and presents in its first section new research into the international impact of Futurism on artists and artistic movements in France Great Britain Hungary and Sweden This is followed by a study that investigates a variety of Futurist inspired developments in architecture and an essay that demonstrates that the Futurist heritage was far from forgotten after the Second World War These papers show how a wealth of connections linked Futurism with Archigram Metabolism Archizoom and Deconstructivism as well as the Nuclear Art movement Spatialism Environmental Art Neon Art Kinetic Art and many other trends of the 1960s and 70s The second section focuses on Futurism and Science and contains a number of papers that were first presented at the fifth bi annual conference of the European Network for Avant Garde and Modernism Studies EAM held on 1 3 June 2016 in Rennes They investigate the impact of science on Futurist aesthetics and the Futurist quest for a new perception and rational understanding of the world as well as the movement's connection with the esoteric domain especially in the field of theosophy the Hermetic tradition Gnostic mysticism and a whole phalanx of Spiritualist beliefs The Archive section offers a survey of collections and archives in Northern Italy that are concerned with Futurist ceramics and a report on the Fondazione Primo Conti in Fiesole established in April 1980 as a museum library and archive devoted to the documentation of the international avant garde and to Italian Futurism in particular A review section dedicated to exhibitions conferences and publications is followed by an annual bibliography of international Futurism studies exhibition catalogues special issues of periodicals and new editions *Habari ya English?
