Treasured Recipes Cooking Through Years:

Treasured Recipes Chris Munda, 2015-11-26 Here's a cookbook which besides being a collection treasured recipes also includes little snippets of the author's special memories about wonderful people places and times Some of these recipes came from a grandmother for example the recipe for apple butter Some came from her mother or mother in law and some came from her children all now grown Cooking for family and friends may not be an earth shattering activity But in its own way it does change the world from hungry and hopeful to full and satisfied And how to make that change we hope you'll agree is something worth learning more about As the author explains Over many years I've tried lots of different recipes Some of them were wonderful and my family and friends loved them On the other hand some were total flops did not taste good and were quickly discarded It has taken a lot of years to develop the confidence I needed to really enjoy cooking but time and practice have helped my skills grow In this little book of my most treasured recipes I believe you will find that most of them are very easy and fairly quick to prepare A couple of them are more difficult and time consuming but those are the ones that will test your cooking abilities and help you develop your skills If you do have failures don't get discouraged Just try again until you have exactly the dish you want Enjoy mealtime with your family and friends because a meal together is much more satisfying

Treasures in Tragedy Kathleen Hathaway Mitchel,2017-09-12 After Steven died I began to read books about grieving written by those who also had a child die I could not get enough I needed to feel like I was not alone I needed to identify with somebody I needed to know that I was not going crazy and that what I was feeling was normal whatever normal means when your child has died It helped knowing others had gone through what I was now experiencing I learned that bereaved parents may do things that seem strange to others That does not mean they are crazy or that they are not moving forward in their grief They are coping the best way they can They are trying to keep their child s memory alive Darcie Sims a former grief counselor and bereaved parent once said that as long as you are not hurting yourself or anyone else then you are grieving exactly the way you need to do it
