

The Virtuoso Pianist

Part I

Preparatory Exercises, for the acquirement of agility, independence, strength and perfect evenness in the fingers

Stretch between the fifth and fourth fingers of the left hand in ascending, and the fifth and fourth fingers of the right hand in descending.

For studying the 20 exercises in this First Part, begin with the metronome set at $\text{♩} = 60$, gradually increasing the speed up to 108; this is the meaning of the double metronome mark at the head of each exercise. Lift the fingers high and with precision, playing each note very distinctly.

$\text{♩} = 60-108$

Ascending

Descending

For brevity, we shall henceforward indicate only by their figures those fingers which are to be specially attended in each exercise; e.g. 3-4 in No.2; 2-3-4 in No.3, etc.

Observe that, throughout the book, both hands are continually executing the same exercise in the same way the left hand becomes as skilful as the right. Besides, the difficulties executed by the left hand in ascending are exactly copied by the same fingers of the right hand in descending: this new style of exercise will cause hands to acquire perfect equality.
