American Muckraker James O'Keefe, 2022-01-25 ON POWER They do have tremendous power But in part it is because we give it to them We are nothing but we are not alone Awe cannot live in fear The moment you stop caring about what the media establishment thinks of you is the moment you become truly free ON INSIDERS The USPS whistleblower a Marine Corps combat veteran said I would rather be back in Afghanistan getting shot at by Afghans honest to God than be interrogated by federal agent Russell Strasser who coerced him by saying I am trying to twist you a little bit because your mind will kick in I am not scaring you but I am scaring you ON PRIVACY The right to record is closely tied to the right to speak or even to take contemporaneous notes about what one sees and hears As 60 Minutes producer Don Hewitt quipped People committing malfeasance don't have any right to privacy What are we saying that Upton Sinclair shouldn't have smuggled his pencil in ON MEANS it is only that which makes you feel better than you would otherwise ON LITIGATION Polling does not decide the truth nor speak to evidence The New York Times have not met their burden to prove that Veritas is deceptive claiming protections from an upstart competitor armed with a cell phone and a website There is a substantial basis in law to proceed to permit Project Veritas to conduct discovery into The New York Times Project Veritas v New York Times Company New York Supreme Court March 18 2021 The Media and Sino-American Rapprochement, 1963-1972 Guolin Yi, 2020-11-11 Winner of the ACPSS Research Award An important new cultural study of the Cold War Guolin Yi's The Media and Sino-American Rapprochement 1963-1972 analyzes how the media in both countries shaped public perceptions of the changing relations between China and the United States in the decade prior to Richard Nixon's visit to Beijing This book offers the first systematic study of Cankao Xiaoxi Reference News an internal Chinese newspaper that carried relatively objective stories the Xinhua News Agency translated from world news media for circulation among Communist cadres As the main channel for the cadres to learn about the outside world this newspaper provides a window into China's evolving foreign policy including the reception of signals from the Nixon administration Yi compares this internal communications channel with the public accounts contained in the more widely circulated newspaper People's Daily a chief propaganda outlet of the Chinese Communist Party CCP directed at its own people and China watchers all over the world A third level of communication emerges in classified CCP instructions and government documents By approaching the Chinese communication system on three levels internal public and classified Yi's analysis demonstrates how people at different positions in the political hierarchy accessed varying types of information allowing him to chart the development of Beijing's approach to the U.S. government In a corresponding analysis of the defining features of American reporting on China Yi considers the impact of government media relationships in the United States during the Cold War Alongside prominent magazines and newspapers particularly the New York Times and the Washington Post in their differing coverage of key events Yi discusses television networks which proved vital for promoting the success of Ping Pong Diplomacy and the impact of Nixon's visit in 1972 With its comparative study of news outlets in the two countries The Media and Sino American Rapprochement 1963 1972 presents a thorough and comprehensive perspective on the role of the media in influencing domestic Chinese and American public opinion during a critical decade Advertising and Public Relations Shelly Field, 2005 Presents over eighty job descriptions with education requirements training salary range and more for those interested in a career in advertising or public relations Culture, Politics and Climate Change Desera A. Crow, Maxwell T. Boykoff, 2014-03-21 Focusing on cultural values and norms as they are translated into politics and policy outcomes this book presents a unique contribution in combining research from varied disciplines and from both the developed and developing world This collection draws from multiple perspectives to present an overview of the knowledge related to our current understanding of climate change politics and culture It is divided into four sections Culture and Values Communication and Media Politics and Policy and Future Directions in Climate Politics Scholarship each followed by a commentary from a key expert in the field The book includes analysis of the challenges and opportunities for establishing successful communication on climate change among scientists the media policy makers and activists With an emphasis on the interrelation between social cultural and political aspects of climate change communication this volume should be of interest to students and scholars of climate change environment studies environmental policy communication cultural studies media studies politics sociology Law, Culture and Visual Studies Anne Wagner, Richard K. Sherwin, 2013-07-11 The proposed volumes are aimed at a multidisciplinary audience and seek to fill the gap between law semiotics and visuality providing a comprehensive theoretical and analytical overview of legal visual semiotics They seek to promote an interdisciplinary debate from law semiotics and visuality bringing together the cumulative research traditions of these related areas as a prelude to identifying fertile avenues for research going forward Advance Praise for Law Culture and Visual Studies This diverse and exhilarating collection of essays explores the many facets both historical and contemporary of visual culture in the law It opens a window onto the substantive jurisdictional disciplinary and methodological diversity of current research It is a cornucopia of materials that will enliven legal studies for those new to the field as well as for established scholars It is a must read that will leave you wondering about the validity of the long held obsession that reduces the law and legal studies to little more than a preoccupation with the word Leslie J Moran Professor of Law Birkbeck College University of London Law Culture Visual Studies is a treasure trove of insights on the entwined roles of legality and visuality From multiple interdisciplinary perspectives by scholars from around the world these pieces reflect the fullness and complexities of our visual encounters with law and culture From pictures to places to postage stamps from forensics to film to folklore this anthology is an exciting journey through the fertile field of law and visual culture as well as a testament that the field has come of age Naomi Mezey Professor of Law Georgetown University Law Center Washington D C USA This highly interdisciplinary reference work brings together diverse fields including cultural studies communication theory rhetoric law and film studies legal and social history visual and legal theory in order to document the various historical cultural representational and theoretical links that bind together law and the visual This book offers a breath taking range of resources from both well established and newer scholars who together cover the field of law s representation in interrogation of and dialogue with forms of visual rhetoric practice and discourse Taken together this scholarship presents state of the art research into an important and developing dimension of contemporary legal and cultural inquiry Above all Law Culture and Visual Studies lays the groundwork for rethinking the nature of law in our densely visual culture How are legal meanings produced encoded distributed and decoded What critical and hermeneutic skills new or old familiar or unfamiliar will be needed Topical diverse and enlivening Law Culture and Visual Studies is a vital research tool and an urgent invitation to further critical thinking in the areas so well laid out in this collection Desmond Manderson Future Fellow ANU College of Law Research School of Humanities the Arts Australian National University Australia Practical Airport Operations, Safety, and Emergency Management Jeffrey Price, Jeffrey Forrest, 2016-02-09 Practical Airport Operations Safety and Emergency Management Protocols for Today and the Future focuses on the airport itself not the aircraft manufacturers designers or even the pilots The book explores the safety of what s been called the most expensive piece of pavement in any city the facility that operates maintains and ensures the safety of millions of air passengers every year The book is organized into three helpful sections each focusing on one of the sectors described in the title Section One Airport Safety explores the airport environment then delves into safety management systems Section Two Airport Operations continues the conversation on safety management systems before outlining airside and landside operations in depth while Section Three Airport Emergency Management is a careful detailed exploration of the topic ending with a chapter on the operational challenges airport operations managers can expect to face in the future Written by trusted experts in the field users will find this book to be a vital resource that provides airport operations managers and students with the information protocols and strategies they need to meet the unique challenges associated with running an airport Addresses the four areas of airport management safety operations emergency management and future challenges together in one book Written by leading professionals in the field with extensive training teaching and practical experience in airport operations Includes section on future challenges including spaceport unmanned aerial vehicles and integrated incident command Ancillary materials for readers to reinforce concepts and instructors teaching operations courses Focuses on the topics of safety operations emergency management and what personnel and students studying the topic can expect to face in the future Communications Research in Action Philip M. Napoli, Minna Aslama, 2011-02-01 A synergy between academia and activism has long been a goal of both scholars and advocacy organizations in communications research The essays in Communications Research in Action demonstrate for the first time in one volume how an effective partnership between the two can contribute to a more democratic public sphere by helping to break down the digital divide to allow greater access to critical technologies democratizing the corporate ownership of the media industry and offering myriad opportunities for varied articulation of individuals ideas Essays spanning topics such as the effect of ownership concentration on children s television programming the media s impact on community building and the global consequences of communications research will not only be valuable to scholars activists and media policy makers but will also be instrumental in serving as a template for further exploration in collaboration
