M. Nouwen, 2003-01-01 From mourning to discernment from invitation to intimacy and from community to the charge to go forth and witness With Burning Hearts calls us to experience all of this journey to know that what we celebrate and what we are called to live are one and the same Mere Spirituality Wil Hernandez, PhD, Obl. OSB, 2015-09-16 Discover Henri Nouwen's authentic spacious spirituality of being deeply beloved in this insightful distillation of his vast literary legacy Scholar and spiritual director Wil Hernandez offers an elegant synthesis of Nouwen's main themes inspiring us to embrace the power and vulnerability of mere spirituality Henri's Mantle Chris R. Anderson, 2025-06-24 There is a universal human need to understand our identity and find belonging and sacred purpose in the most daily moments of our lives When we know our identity as the beloved of God our lives take on practices that are urgently needed in our divisive culture today starting with compassion hospitality and discourse and joining a movement to boldly proclaim Abbas love Sacred purpose involves everything we do on holy ground which is where God walks with us before us and alongside us in time and place As we enter the fray we find ways to live as people of justice grace and conviction seeking the kingdom of God as our priority as we address those issues that are so charged and divisive today race inclusion exclusion individualism and trauma Within the image of an ecosystem we understand that Scripture the living word points us to Jesus the Incarnate Word who calls us to sacred purpose a living relationship of following Jesus at our own altars in the world for all of our lives Wounded

Henri J. M. Nouwen, 1993-01-01 In this journal of his travels in Bolivia and Peru Nouwen ponders the presence of God in the poor the challenge of a persecuted church the relation between faith and justice and his own struggle to discern the path along which God is calling him Nouwen puts his inexhaustible curiosity and hunger for religious experience gladly at the service of a worldwide audience The Boston Globe Sacred Fire Ronald Rolheiser, 2017-03-14 When one reaches the highest degree of human maturity one has only one question left How can I be helpful TERESA OF VILA Beloved author Ronald Rolheiser continues his search for an accessible and penetrating Christian spirituality in this highly anticipated follow up to the contemporary classic The Holy Longing With his trademark acuity wit and thoughtfulness Rolheiser shows how identifying and embracing discipleship will lead to new heights of spiritual awareness and maturity In this new book Rolheiser takes us on a journey through the dark night of the senses and of the spirit Here we experience the full gamut of human life pleasure and fervor disillusionment and boredom But as Rolheiser explains when we embrace the struggle and yearning to know God we can experience too a profound re understanding to our daily lives What lies beyond the essentials the basics Rolheiser writes Where do we go once some of the basic questions in our lives have been answered or at least brought to enough peace that our focus can shift away from ourselves to others Where do we go once the basic questions in our lives are no longer the restless questions of youthful insecurity and loneliness Who am I Who loves me How will my life turn out Where do we go once the basic question in life becomes How can I give my life away more purely and more meaningfully How do I live beyond my own heartaches headaches and obsessions so as to help make other peoples lives more meaningful The intent of this book is to try to address exactly those questions How can we live less self centered more mature lives What constitutes deep maturity and how do we reach that place And not unimportantly what constitutes a more adult Christian discipleship What constitutes a truly mature following of Jesus As the poet Rainer Maria Rilke suggests Live the questions now In Sacred Fire Rolheiser s deeply affecting prose urges us on in pursuit of the most holy of all passions a deep and lasting intimacy with God You'll Be Changed Into Me Stuart Squires,2024-02-10 In recent decades Catholic books on the Eucharist have often focused narrowly on the question of the nature or essence of the Eucharist Although the question of the nature of the Eucharist is undoubtedly important it unfortunately has overshadowed a question that is just as important if not more important what does the Eucharist do If Jesus body blood soul and divinity are truly present in the Eucharist as Catholics believe then we should not be surprised to learn that when Catholics receive the Eucharist they receive multiple effects or fruits You Will Be Changed Into Me introduces six of the most important fruits of the Eucharist It will explore how the Jesus Event is brought to the present through Eucharistic memory it will investigate how the Eucharist is the application of Christ s sacrificial offering on the cross it will demonstrate how the Eucharist radically conforms the communicant to the heart of Christ it will review the unity in the human family that is created by the Eucharist through union with Christ it will show how a Eucharistic life leads to a life of service it will explain the significance of the Eucharist for the journey beyond this life Henri Nouwen and Soul Care Wil Hernandez,2008 A synthesis of Henri Nouwen s integrated approach to spiritual formation which is both driven and tempered by his integral relationship with psychology ministry and theology Genius Born of Anguish: The Life and Legacy of Henri Nouwen Michael W. Higgins,Kevin Burns,2014-05-14 An intimate look at this important spiritual writer s life enriched with the personal accounts of some of the people closest to him friends family and colleagues A twelve page photo section is included Ordination: Celebrating the Gift of Min , My Home in L'Arche Geoff Rigby,Stephen Rigby,David Treanor,2014-12-01 Fifty years ago L Arche was born in a small French town called Trosly when Jean Vanier invited two men with intellectual disabilities living in a Mental Institution to come and live with him One hundred and forty three L Arche Communities now exist in over forty countries Sharing stories has become an essential feature of life within L Arche Communities and forms the basis for developing lasting mutual relationships not only between core members assistants and other members of a Community home but also within the broader L Arche Community Within our L Arche Communities in Australia we have developed a Remembering Celebrating and Dreaming process that encourages core members and companions from within the Community to spend time together getting to know each other dreaming about plans for the future and celebrating lives together Often a core member may not have been afforded an opportunity to share some aspects of their lives or to talk about issues that worry them or what they would like to do to make their lives comfortable Spending time listening and sharing stories helps to facilitate this process and provides an opportunity to share some of these memories and dreams with the broader Community families and friends One of the key parts of the L Arche Mission is to make known the gifts of people with intellectual disabilities and all too often we find that it is not only with those directly involved with core members that these gifts become apparent and have a profound influence but with all who come in contact with them Most of the time the stories that arise from these relationships are not shared outside the L Arche Communities The importance of sharing stories emanates from our history Universally as L Arche welcomed more people into Community we discovered that there was little or no attention paid to the lives and events of core members Many people had lived significant experiences and they needed these listened to and acknowledged as part of who they are and their personal history The primary objective of this book is to share some of these stories from people with and without intellectual disabilities who have been involved in some way within L Arche Communities Living together and sharing as a Community as well as being part of the broader L Arche Australia and International Federation Family involves participation in many activities that involve day to day commitments and organisational demands All of these are part of the L Arche Australia story and we have tried to include snippets of information that highlight some of the background of L Arche together with features from day to day Community life and operation of the various Communities We hope you enjoy these stories and gain a little understanding of the heart of L Arche
