Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon III, 2019-05-03 Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on Black Theology and its attendant Black Christology Explicitly the philosophical examination of Black Theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing Black Christology as an authentic form within Christian theology This text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how Black Theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity Significantly the racialized character of Black Theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race Clearly the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding Notably the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the African American experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race Therefore Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race Summarily while this book tackles the formidable problem of Christian theological subject matter nonetheless the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of Christian theology Subsequently while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles Furthermore although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to examine African American theologians and philosophers the subject matter of Black Christology substantially facilitates in filling this intellectual void Jesus and the Disinherited Howard Thurman, 2022-10-11 No other publication in the twentieth century has upended antiquated theological notions truncated political ideas and socially constructed racial fallacies like Jesus and the Disinherited Thurman's work keeps showing up on the desk of anti apartheid activists South American human rights workers civil rights champions and now Black Lives Matter advocates Rev Otis Moss III author of Blue Note Preaching in a Post Soul World and senior pastor at Trinity United Church of Christ A commemorative edition of the work that inspired Martin Luther King Jr and helped shape the civil rights movement In this beautiful gift edition of the classic theological treatise complete with a place marker ribbon and silver gilded edges celebrated theologian and religious leader Howard Thurman 1899 1981 revolutionizes the way we read the gospel Thurman lifts Jesus up as a partner in the pain of the oppressed and reveals the gospel as a manual of resistance for the poor and disenfranchised In this view the example of Jesus's life shows us that hatred does not empower it decays Only by recognizing fear deception contempt and love of one another can God's justice prevail With a new foreword by acclaimed womanist theologian Kelly Brown Douglas this edition of Jesus and the Disinherited is a timeless testimony of faith that demonstrates how to thrive and flourish in a world that attempts to destroy one's humanity from the inside out Having witnessed firsthand the depths of white supremacy and the heights of human civility Thurman reiterates the inherent dignity of all of God's children

Black San Francisco Albert S. Broussard, 1993 This work explores race relations in the city of San Francisco where whites for the most part were outwardly civil to blacks while denying them employment opportunities and political power The author argues that it is essential to understand the nature of the racial caste system

Canaan Land Albert J. Raboteau, 2001 Offers insight into the history of African American religious traditions in the United States

The Origins of Black Humanism in America Juan M. Floyd-Thomas, 2008-09-15 The Origins of Black Humanism in America is a provocative examination of the religious and intellectual roots of African American humanist thought and praxis that weaves together history biography literary criticism cultural studies political theory and religious studies drawn from widely scattered sources across the African diaspora Floyd Thomas tells the remarkable story of Reverend E Ethelred Brown a Jamaican immigrant ordained as a Unitarian minister in the early twentieth century who founded the Harlem Unitarian Church the first fellowship established by Unitarians of African descent in North America By linking Brown's pioneering efforts in the Unitarian Church to the many varied expressions of religious and secular humanism within the African American experience Floyd Thomas offers a groundbreaking narrative that brings to life the overlooked legacy of visionary Black men and women who have led prophetic struggles for social justice in a desperate era ultimately transforming liberal faith working class radicalism and cultural nationalism in order to redefine contemporary notions of race and religion for a new generation
